

2005 Martin Luther King Week Celebrates Leadership, Sacrifice and Service

Dr. Livingston Alexander, president of the University of Pittsburgh at Bradford, will discuss the Montgomery Bus Boycott and the key roles played by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Rosa Parks as part of the Martin Luther King Week celebration on the St. Bonaventure University campus.

The public is invited to Alexander's talk, slated for 7 p.m. today in the Rigas Family Theater of The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts.

Before assuming the Pitt-Bradford presidency in August 2003, Alexander was the provost and vice president for academic affairs and professor of psychology at Kean University in Union, N.J.

During the last 12 years, he has been a frequent presenter of seminars and training workshops at colleges, universities, national conferences and professional associations throughout the country on leadership and diversity.

Dr. Livingston Alexander, president of Pitt-Bradford

The remainder of the week's events include:

Wednesday, Jan. 19

- 7 p.m., Rigas Family Theater, Pitt-Bradford president Dr. Livingston Alexander will discuss the Montgomery Bus Boycott and the key roles played by Martin Luther King Jr. and Rosa Parks. He will also present awards to the winners of the Allegany-Limestone Middle School essay contest. A reception in the atrium will follow.

Thursday, Jan. 20

- Noon, prayer at the Peace Pole
- Service component: Students can volunteer to serve and dine at The Warming House.

Friday, Jan. 21

- 4 p.m., prayer service, Thomas Merton Ministry Center
- 7-8:30 p.m., Music by K.J. James, Rathskeller

A networking reception for students and area business professionals of color that was originally slated as part of Martin Luther King Week has been rescheduled for 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Monday, Feb. 7, in The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts. Business professionals interested in taking part are asked to contact the Rev. Cheryl Parris at (716) 375-7813 or cparris@sbu.edu by Jan. 26.

For more information on Martin Luther King Week 2005, please contact Lt. Col. Rick Trietley at (716) 375-2565 or rtrietle@sbu.edu.

GLOBETROTTERS TO DONATE PROCEEDS FROM SBU PROGRAM SALES TO AID TSUNAMI VICTIMS

The Harlem Globetrotters, who are performing at St. Bonaventure University at 7 p.m. Monday, Feb. 7, in the Reilly Center Arena, are helping to raise money for the tsunami victims in Asia by donating proceeds from the sale of their 2005 commemorative game program.

Two dollars will be donated for the sale of each program and The Globetrotters will match the funds raised through the sale of the game programs. Fans wanting to make additional donations will find collection drums next to merchandise stands.

"This effort to support tsunami relief follows in the Harlem Globetrotters tradition of helping others," said Steve Plesac, director of the Office of Student Activities at SBU. "St. Bonaventure University is pleased to host this event and we encourage all attending to aid in the relief of the tsunami victims."

The Globetrotters are not only famous for their talent, but also for the work they do in an attempt to give back to communities around the country. They have donated more than $11 million since 1993 to organizations that include the Celebrity First Night Foundation, the Women's Missionary Society, the Life Development Foundation and the American Red Cross.

Tickets for their St. Bonaventure performance are $20 each for all upper-level seats and $25 for the floor level. A limited number of Magic Circle seats in the first row of the bleachers are also available at $50. Unlimited discount tickets for members of the St. Bonaventure community are available only through the Reilly Center Ticket Office at a cost of $14 for upper-level seats and $24 for floor-level (except Magic Circle). Also, students may purchase tickets for the area behind the baskets for $10.

Tickets may be purchased at the Reilly Center Arena Ticket Office in person or by phone at (716) 375-2500. The ticket office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tickets may also be purchased at Tops Friendly Markets, online at www.tickets.com, or by phone at 1-888-223-6000. Additional service fees apply to all Tickets.com sales.

Upcoming Events

Feb. 7 - 5:30-7:30 p.m., Networking reception for University students and Olean-area professionals of color at The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts Atrium

Feb. 11 - 8 p.m., Michel Bell will perform "America in Song" at The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts

Feb. 15 - 7:30 p.m., Award-winning motivational poet and performance artist Daniel Beaty will present a power-packed program of original poetry at The Rigas Family Theater, Quick Center for the Arts

ST. BONAVENTURE
UNIVERSITY

Valuing Knowledge, Integrity, Community