

Local band Navar to open for 'Spring Weekend' concert

Local rock band Navar, heard playing locally in Allegany, will now rock the Reilly Center Arena at St. Bonaventure University as it opens for this year's Spring Weekend concert headliners, Reel Big Fish, at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 28.

"We are honored to play the St. Bonaventure spring concert, mainly because we have all attended this annual SBU tradition as music fans," said Pat Barry, lead singer. "It makes it even more special for Tim and our manager, Adam, to be a part of this as St. Bonaventure alumni."

Navar, a self-managed and independent band founded in 2002 in Fillmore, N.Y., has opened for multi-platinum recording artists Third Eye Blind and The Goo Goo Dolls. The band has played nearly 90 shows all over New York state, including Rochester, Buffalo and New York City.

Navar was the dream of lead singer and guitar player Pat Barry. Barry began playing with his brother, Ben, a bass veteran, and the two recorded a 12-song, self-titled debut.

Over the next year, Navar saw band members come and go. Fortunately, Mike "Skippy" Yudichak on guitar and Tim Lindhome on drums soon joined the band to create what is now Navar. Together they created the "Unreleased EP." EP was never formally released because their popular "Everything's the Same" single drove them into the studio to record their second full-length album "Your Window."

Robby Takac, producer and member of "The Goo Goo Dolls," Navar entered Chameleon West recording studio, owned by Takac, to create the 15-track album "Your Window." The album is full of what Navar has become known for — passion.

Navar has also been broadcasted on the nationally syndicated Howard Stern Show and featured on XM Satellite Radio. The band has played many shows in the heart of NYC's music scene, including such venues as CBGB, Arlene Grocery, The Luna Lounge and The Alphabet Lounge.

Navar can be heard locally on FM Radio 101.5-the Mix in Olean and is in rotation at Bona's WSBU-FM the Buzz, which has also done two on-air interviews with the band. Articles have been written about Navar in local papers, including the Cuba Patriot and The (Olean) Times Herald.

Warming House celebrates 30 years of service

All are invited as St. Bonaventure University celebrates 30 years of service by its student-run soup kitchen, The Warming House, with a brief ceremony at 7 p.m. Monday, in the atrium of The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts.

Fr. Michael Duffy, director of St. Francis Inn, a Franciscan soup kitchen in Philadelphia, will give a brief keynote address on "The Dignity of the Poor."

The Warming House, which began in academic year 1974-75, was honored in fall 2003 with a national award for "Forming Christian Conscience" from the Catholic Campus Ministry Association, one of only seven such ministry programs to be recognized nationally. The award was presented during a Bishops' Reception with the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops on Nov. 12, 2003, in Washington, D.C.

For 30 years, University students, faculty and friars, working in collaboration with community volunteers, have provided food and companionship to the needy of the Olean area. The soup kitchen is currently located at 110 W. State St., Olean.

For more information about The Warming House or to RSVP for the event, please contact director Sarah Nies at (716) 375-2601.

Be part of the fun at the 2005 Spring Weekend!

Be part of the fun at this year's Spring Weekend! When your team isn't competing in the softball tournament, come to the carnival midway where you can play such games as milk can toss, penny pitch and pop-a-pimple — right next to your favorite carnival food (fried dough, sausage sandwiches and caramel apples).

Better yet, get your club, organization or team together to man a game booth Friday, April 29, and Saturday, April 30. The booths — as well as a number of prizes for winners — will be provided. And, better yet, your organization gets to keep a portion of the money your booth brings in.

Game booths will be centrally located on the outdoor basketball courts between the Reilly Center and the Sandra A. and William L. Richter Center and need to be manned from 4-7 p.m. Friday and 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday. In addition to being close to the cotton candy stand, the game booths will be adjacent to the outdoor stage, which will feature entertainment including the student band Stop Seven (formerly Nullvoid).

For information about running a booth, contact Spencer Peavey, director of new students, at ext. 2051 or speavey@sbu.edu.
