

Tribute, service award to highlight 2005 Francis Week schedule at SBU

St. Bonaventure will hold its annual celebration for the patron saint of the University when Francis Week is observed this year. Francis Week celebrates the patron saint of the University, St. Francis of Assisi.

The celebration began with a Family Weekend Eucharist on Sunday and culminates in the Feast of St. Francis and the celebration of the Eucharist on Tuesday, Oct. 4.

St. Bonaventure also welcomes speakers Fr. André Cirino, O.F.M., as well as Josef Raischl, S.F.O., and his wife, Bernadette Raischl.

They will be giving a speech on Thursday titled "The Strategy That Saved Assisi," followed by a posthumous service award honoring Col. Valentin Müller (1891-1951).

Müller, a German physician, commanded the hospitals in wartime Assisi, Italy, in February 1944. Müller convinced June 1944, Müller commanded the evacuation of 2,000 German wounded and hospital personnel to make sure no harm was done to the buildings of Assisi by Allied bombings.

Müller ordered a large quantity of medical supplies to be left in the city for use by residents, an action that left him vulnerable to punishment in Berlin. He also was the last medical doctor to make visits to the homes of Jewish patients.

Fr. André, a Franciscan preacher, has ministered in parishes, Franciscan formation and education. Fr. André also worked at the Little Portion retreat house in the Bronx for eight years. He has written or co-authored both books and articles for The Cord: A Franciscan Spiritual Review, published by the Franciscan Institute at St. Bonaventure University. Most recently he has written "My Heart's Quest: Collected Writings of Eric Doyle, Friar Minor and Theologian," with Josef Raischl.

Josef Raischl, S.F.O., spent a year of study in Rome at the Capuchin Theological Institute. He collaborated with Fr. André to develop a retreat on St. Bonaventure's "Journey into God" during that time.

A native of Germany, Raischl studied theology at the Catholic University of Eichstatt, as well as at the Franciscan International Study Center in England. There he was a student of the late Eric Doyle, O.F.M., a Franciscan friar and scholar. Doyle, an advocate for the ordination of women in the church, also taught in the Graduate Theology Department at St. Bonaventure University from 1970 to 1982.

Bernadette Raischl, a psychotherapist and dance instructor, will give two workshops on meditative dance for prayer and worship on Tuesday during Francis Week. Raischl, the granddaughter of Col. Mueller, lives with her husband and their children in Dachau, Germany.

Fr. André Cirino, O.F.M.

Lenna Visiting Professor to lecture on Shakespeare, the Holocaust

Dr. Michael Shapiro, a professor of English at the University of Illinois, will offer a free public lecture on Shakespeare and the Holocaust as St. Bonaventure University's Lenna Visiting Professor.

Shapiro, who has taught at several universities, including Michigan State, Tamkang, Cornell and Reading University in England, is visiting SBU until Sunday.

He will deliver "The Merchant of Venice after Auschwitz: Shakespearean Comedy Meets the Holocaust," at 4 p.m. Wednesday in The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts.

While visiting SBU, Shapiro will also participate in classes including University Forum, World Views and several English and drama courses.

Shapiro has written several books on the Holocaust and Elizabethan drama, with an emphasis on Shakespeare, the most recent being, "Gender in Play on the Shakespearean Stage: Boy Heroines and Female Pages." Shapiro has also written numerous articles and reviews. He served as Scholar-In-Residence at both Millikin University (1990), and Southern
