Spring Weekend Features Events For Everyone

Faculty, staff and students are invited to “Spring it On” as the University celebrates Spring Weekend 2006. In addition to the popular Rick Farina Softball Tournament, the fun will include performances by seven local bands.

Attractions Friday, April 28, and Saturday, April 29, will include fair-style food booths on the outdoor basketball courts between the Reilly Center and the Sandra A. and William L. Richter Center, along with outdoor entertainment, a caricature artist and an airbrush tattoo artist.

Hickey Dining Hall will be closed for dinner on Friday night and all day Saturday, as all meals will be served under tents between the Reilly and Richter centers. Students should pick up a food wristband in the Reilly Center lobby between 9 a.m. and noon Friday; students must have a wristband to receive free food throughout the weekend. Faculty and staff are encouraged to attend Spring Weekend activities, and food wristbands will be sold at the site as well.

OLEAN NATIVE, JAZZ ARTIST BILL EASLEY RETURNS FOR SOLD-OUT PERFORMANCE

Friends of Good Music, in association with The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts at St. Bonaventure University, presents "Bill Easley, Jazz" at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, April 29, for its final concert of the 2005-2006 season.

Olean native Bill Easley returns to St. Bonaventure where he received its first Artist's Award in 1997. Easley has had a diversified career, spanning more than 40 years. He has played in bands led by such notables as Ruth Brown, George Benson, Jimmy McGriff, Bobby Short, Nicholas Payton, Charles McPhearson, Earl May, Illinois Jaquett and Mercer Ellington among others.

In addition to his extensive discography as a sideman, he also has three recordings as a leader: "Wind Inventions," "First Call" and "Easley Said." Easley's collection of woodwind instruments includes tenor, alto and soprano saxophones, clarinet and bass clarinet, flute, alto flute and piccolo.

At age 13, Easley started playing professionally with his parents in The Bob Easley Combo in and around Olean. He moved to New York City in 1964 to study at the Juilliard School of Music while getting his feet wet in the uptown Jazz scene. Easley also served in the military with the 9th Army Band in Fairbanks, Alaska.

In 1968, Easley joined The George Benson

Quartet and traveled with the great guitarist for the remainder of the decade. He moved to Memphis in the 1970s, where he performed and recorded with Isaac Hayes. He also continued his formal education at Memphis State University. In the mid-1970s, Easley toured with the Duke Ellington Orchestra under the direction of Mercer Ellington. In 1980, he moved back to New York City to perform on Broadway. His Broadway credits include: "Sophisticated Ladies," "The Wiz," "Black and Blue," "Jelly's Last Jam," "Swingin On A Star," "Play On," "Fosse," and most recently, "The Wild Party."

Easley has been part of the Jazz Repertory Movement, playing in The American Jazz Orchestra (John Lewis), the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra (Wynton Marsalis), and The Smithsonian Jazz Orchestra (David Baker). For more about Easley, go to his Web site at <http://billeasley.net>.

This performance is partially underwritten by Iroquois Insurance Group, Inc., and is sponsored in part by the New York State Council on the Arts. For more information, call the Quick Center Box Office at (716) 375-2494.
