

Softball tourney, music and Real World stars highlight Spring Weekend

The traditional Rick Farina Softball Tournament will usher in Spring Weekend 2007 on Thursday, followed by free weekend concerts and the appearance of two cast members from “The Real World: San Diego.”

Dubbed Buzzfest, eight bands will be performing live outside the Sandra A. and William L. Richter Center Friday and Saturday. “MTV’s The Real World: San Diego” stars Brad Fiorenza and Cameran Eubanks will be hosting events outside the Richter Center throughout the day Saturday and in the Rathskeller Saturday night. Meet and Greet sessions with Brad and Cameran will also be scheduled on Saturday during the day and also in the Rathskeller in the evening.

A mechanical bull, inflatable games and a caricature artist to name just a few things will also be on the outside courts of the Richter Center both Friday and Saturday where 1,000 students will receive a free Spring Weekend T-shirt compliments of Student Government on Saturday.

At 9 p.m. Saturday, a Green Day Tribute band, “DOOKIE,” will perform two sets in the Rathskeller. The first 100 students in the door will have the opportunity to build their own stuffed bear at the Bear Factory in the Rathskeller. Each stuffed build-a-bear, which can be kept as a Spring Weekend souvenir, will have a custom St. Bona T-shirt complete with the University logo.

The Rick Farina Softball Tournament begins Thursday, April 26. Registration forms will not be accepted without the $45 fee. Each of the first 32 teams registered are guaranteed two games and will play their first game Thursday at either 4 p.m. or 5:30 p.m.

Thursday and Friday’s games will be posted in the residence halls, the Reilly Center lobby and the Richter Center. The championship team will be awarded a Rick Farina softball sweatshirt and a $45 gift certificate. The second-place team will receive long-sleeved T-shirts. All St. Bonaventure University policies are in effect this weekend.

Food for the weekend will be available beginning Friday morning with coffee and doughnuts outside the Richter Center. Steak and chicken sandwiches, french fries, meatball subs, beverages and desserts will be served from 4:30 to 8 p.m. Friday. A hotdog bar with hamburgers, fries, and Boca burgers will be outside the Richter Center Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The same dinner menu as Friday, with the addition of 6-foot Italian subs, will be available from 4:30 until 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Food bracelets will be on sale all day Thursday and until 1 p.m. Friday in Hickey Dining Hall. Bracelets are $18 and are for use all weekend. Students can purchase these bracelets using their meal plan, Bona Bucks, Flex dollars or cash. After 1 p.m. Friday, bracelets can be purchased using cash only.

Tickets to purchase nachos, fried dough, cotton candy and ice cream will be sold in increments of 50 cents outside the Richter Center during the dinner times.

All members of the university community are invited to attend Spring Weekend 2007 events.

Spring Weekend 2007 is sponsored by the Campus Activities Board, 88.3 The Buzz, Student Government Association, Student Life, Intramurals-Recreation-Club Sports, Counseling Center, Residence Life, and Dining Services.

The rain site for the concerts is the Reilly Center Arena; and two softball games are not guaranteed if Thursday’s games are rained out.

What's Going On? Campus activities this week

Student Research and Creative Endeavors Exposition 2007

All students, staff, faculty, and administrators are invited to view posters and paintings summarizing the wonderful projects of students in the School of Arts and Sciences. The posters will be displayed in the Doyle Hall Trustees Room from Wednesday, April 25 to Friday, April 27. The students will be present to answer questions about their projects during the reception in the Trustees Room on Friday, April 27, 12:30–2 p.m.

Students to present multi-media marketing communications campaign for The Coca-Cola Company

Please join us on Wednesday, April 25, at 4:30 p.m., in Murphy "A and B" to see The Stalwart Group, St. Bonaventure University's advertising agency, present their entry for the National Student Advertising Competition (NSAC). The Coca-Cola Company has asked 2007 NSAC participants to create an integrated marketing communications campaign for Coca-Cola classic, the most popular and biggest-selling soft drink in history.

BonaResponds is going back to the Gulf!

Want to go to help out in the Gulf Coast? BonaResponds will be going back in May. Come help! It will be great fun and a learning experience you will never forget! We especially need faculty/staff/community members who can drive rental vans (must be over 25). Two Information meetings this week: Monday and Wednesday 7 p.m. both nights. E-mail BonaResponds@sbu.edu for more information.
