

Army Express Company,

Office, 337 Chestnut Street,

PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, JANUARY 17, 1862.

This Company having established a Branch Office in this City, is now prepared to forward all kinds of Merchandise to

Baltimore,

Washington,

Annapolis,

Fortress Monroe,

Newport News,

Camp Hamilton,

Hatteras Inlet,

Port Royal,

Blockading Squadron.

ALSO,

New York,

Boston, and

Eastern Cities.

This line offers superior inducements to all Sutlers, Army and Navy Officers, and to all those parties interested in shipping to merchants at Washington and other points.

DAVIS, BELDEN & CO., Managers.

Principal Office, 32 Broadway, New York.

D. GREENE, Superintendent of the Company.