My Dear Wife

This is Monday A.M.
You promised to write and let us know how you got out to P.A.
Gus has just returned from Office no word from you <sup>are</sup> you sick or what is wrong, perhaps we will hear from you by tomorrow's mail we are all about half sick. Gus has a stiff neck and can scarcely get around Frank is complaining and I have the (belly ach,) had Boiled cabbage for dinner. I guess that's what's the matter, received a letter from Aunty Herr, will send It to you It may be Important let Harry see what he thinks of It. have designs of cutting the your old friend the generation as he will

Corn all husked and fodder the Barn Frank is gathering Elder Berries Gus is at Marcy Otis is at home gathering Apples to make Cider tomorrow. was at church yesterday A Mr. there is nothing new transpiring here worth noting, tis now 4 o'clock hope you got out all safe. <sup>and</sup> now dont forget that we want you to cut your visit very short because we cannot possibly get along alone very long I expect to go to work at Auffers house probably next, wk and if Frank has nothing to do will take him with me, you will remember me kindly to all hope this will find all well and doing good. will expect and look for a letter from you tomorrow Yours Affectionately
Augustus
