

A boat lay on the summer sea
The light waves round it leaping
While laughing sunbeams bright and free
Played o'er an infant sleeping
A far away that bark in glee
Was o'er the bright deep straying
While all around the dimpling sea
With zephyrs soft was playing

O it was so sweet around that child
To see the ripples dancing
As o'er its brow so soft and mild
The sunbeams softly glancing
And then I prayed that naught break
The angel spell that bound it

A boat lay on the summer sea
The light waves round it leaping
While laughing sunbeams bright and free
Played o'er an infant sleeping
As far away that bark in glee
Was o'er the bright waves straying
While around the dimpling sea
With zephyrs soft was playing
