My dear

Grandma,

I send you in the same mail with this a photograph of myself. While Papa and Mama were in Chicago I of course went to visit Grandma Ackley while there a photograph man came along with a wagon, he had a lot of advertising matter to distribute. I secured the job and took my pay in pictures. I got half doz, and thought maby you would like to have one. They are not very good but papa say I must have looked just this way when they were taken. They have a cross look that I don't often have because I don't get cross unless something unusual happens, perhaps I was tired I don't remember, I think you will know who it is

Very Truly yours

Joe T. Wilson

I send Anna a little gingham dress in this mail

Anna

if there isn't enough let me know
