

to write, as else I shant to write or else I shant
to write or else I shant Adress write I shant

Adrian Fay
Camp Parole Annapolis Md.
Care of Cal. A. R. Hunt

Mansfield
the drive house answer to the Drive house
I bit

Montrose
The I D

Mr Mer Adrian Fay
Camp Parole Md.
Care of Cal. A. R. Hunt
Camp Parole

~~Annapolis Md Jan. 1/64~~
Camp Parole Annapolis Md.
January 3rd 1864
Dear Father

I suppose you are all waiting anxiously to hear from me and to know when I am and what I am doing. I got here to Annapolis yesterday but I did not find all of the Regt. here as they staid us at Alexandria but there is a boat 1000 of us here and the rest are in the front yet but we are expecting them here this month it is a first rate place here and if the Cal. succeeds in getting

The rest of the Regt. here which he is in great hopes of doing. We shall have good times here and be very likely to see the rest of our time out here. But it is not certain yet that he can get them here. I left Alexandria the next day after Pass came a way and came to Baltimore and staid there until yesterday.
We are not doing any thing now hardly and every day that we work here doing any extra duty around the camp we get 25 cents extra pay. I think I shall go to work to morrow and try it. I guess I can work enough to earn what spending money I want. I thought it is hard for a Soldier to think of going to work. But I think I shall try it for a while any way and see what it gets

I shall send to morrow for my discription list and perhaps I shall get some pay this pay day. We shall get pay here in a bout two weeks.

There is a great many of the old trappers enlisting over again. I would not mind enlisting if it was not for one thing and that is what all troops that do enlist are counted in to fill the last call. and I dont like that I dont want to recenlist just to some some other man from coming out that never has tried the field. I dont think that is right.

Write as soon as you get this and tell me what the news are and who is going to be President in shintown this fall. Give my respects to all the folks and tell them all