

Division commander (Gen. Robinson) is awarded. we are not lucky to be here now. if we had have staid in the field we dont know how many of us poor Soldier Boys of the 94th might have been to day stretched out on some "Bloody Battle field." either killed or mortaly wounded.

The prospects of us staying here are fair. I think they will keep us here this summer with out doubt. Col. Raat says as long as the Boys do their duty well and behave well we shall stay here as in a better place. Darling I am so sleepy I cant see whether I am writing or not. I did not sleep much last night the Boys made so much noise the mail does not go out untill 9 o'clock this evening and I cant think of any thing more now so I will go and take a little nap.

Oh you look I got broke William Kings like John did not think much though the card the and a friend of his wrote up to me from to an about giving the school for his. But then John (and) the school was taken taken for the good name of looking through I dont know to what it was

My Darling, Sadie
According to agreement
I suppose I am bound to write to you the first thing I do after getting here. though I am half tired to death and jaded with worth my journey. But I arrived here all safe this morning about the time you was commencing your school. (I) I had no trouble at all coming though I expected that I should get here last night. But I did not get into Baltimore in time for the train the summer as a

So I went to the Soldiers Home and staid all night and came down on the 1/2 clock train this morning Every thing looks so <sup>changed</sup> ~~different~~ here the trees are all leafed out and the grass looks as though it was three weeks a head of Catt. "Grass". And the fruit trees are all in Blossom I guess there will be a good deal of fruit this season

Oh Sadie I have been so lonesome ever since I left you that I have hardly known what to do with myself I wonder if such has been yours ever? I presume it has although you have much to ~~occupy~~ <sup>occupy</sup> your self about now. But I know you get time now in a while to think of yours old. dont you Sadie? dont think he is a bad lay though I think he acted awfully naughty some of the time while he was at home Sadie if I did do or say any thing ~~that~~ was offensive to you I hope you will forgive me. will you Darling you have never said or done any thing that has been any offensive to me at all

I am so very tired and the fog and it is so awful warm here that I cant write as though of any thing if I could. it is a great deal warmer here than it is in Abington. even when Mrs Haring lived there

I expect they are having some warm weather and warm work in the Army of the Potomac about these times. there has been some awful hard fighting General Seymour & quartermaster are killed and many others wounded our old write as often to you as I can. I am in the want of you, and I will do the same

till we all the day and have you
like the school

Good night

From your truly

Dear Sadie

Sarah

Dear Sadie I have just wake up and perhaps I look some what by sleepy but I am not half as sleepy as I look. at least not so sleepy as to keep me from finishing this letter though I do not feel much like writing as you will see when you come to read this that is if you can read it. I was a going to tell you all the pitulas but now I cant think of any thing more pitulas that I ever think of so now. I left Gt. Valley about a clock and got into Elmira at night had to wait there till in the morning then we came direct through to Batherson got there at five in the evening just after the train had left for Annapolis.

Every time our fast school house on the way Davis would ask me if I saw the "School marm" Wasnt he hate ful. Sadie?

What do you think was the first ~~Miss~~ question the Boys asked us after we had got here and had shook hands all round: can you quilt?

I will tell you how I fear you went. (Did you get married) while you was at home?

And the punishment they had for the man that did get married was a Blanket Court Martial. So I escaped went I lucky? Some of them had to take the Court Martial through. The Court Martial they got was not so plain as the one I had before Col. C. Flint.

Well Darling I shall have to close and take this to the office. I hope you will get it this week though there is nothing in it of any consequence I dont know as I could write any thing of a "Dimeyance" if I should try.

But I am in an awful hurry. I got your letter I dont see how I can await till it comes.

Give my respects to "Ore" and your good Sister Maria and tell them I never thought to tell them to write to me but if they will I will answer it as soon as I can as soon as
