Sarah. you will think that I am in a trall "distress" to write to you. and I dont know but I do am. But Darling I must do something to keep me from being "hamsick". As I will writ to you and if you cant get time nor inclination to read it you can leave it up or do put it where no one else can find it. But I dont think there is any danger of any one reading it if they do not get hold of it. it is such poor writing.

Well Sarah

I think that a weak person to night will find me same where in the Army of the he gets killed in a fight & dont

1000	100	10	1	100	10	1
500	50	5	1	50	5	1
100	10	1	1	10	1	1
50	5	1	1	5	1	1
10	1	1	1	1	1	1
1	1	1	1	1	1	1

Patomac we are going to into the field now. We were presented with a new stand of Colors this evening at parade they are the nicest colors I ever saw they seem like those used in the Regular Army But I never saw any that looked as good as ours it bears the name of the 94th N.Y. Vt. Com.
Regt. With all the Battles that we have ever been engaged in that is ten. I have been in seven of them.

Sarah I shall have to hurry and finish this for we leave here at three o'clock to-morrow morning they say we are a going to join "Lookout" Brigade But I don't know where that is But it is in the Army of the Patomac soon rather I expect I am in hope I shall get a letter from you before I leave here But I don't much expect to we shall go before the mail comes in the morning. But if you have written I shall get it same time

Please excuse me Sarah for writing this awful poor letter and before I had got any from you But I am so lonesome I have got to write to you one and you are the only one I want to write to And my own folks. Father and Mother &c

I will write again
as soon as I get your letter.
No good night Darling
from yours. Add. Daddie
