Promotions.—Col. P. H. Foster, of the 154th, who has faithfully stood with his regiment in maliceance of the old flag through nearly three years of hard and constant campaigning, has secured a deserved recognition of his services in promotion to a Brigadier Generalship.

From a list of casualties to the Regiments recently transmitted by them to the War Advertiser, we copy the following respecting the Companies from this County:

Died—Sergt Charles T. Brown, Co. F. of complaints, at Springfield, Ga., Dec.
11, 1864. Japet D. Campbell, killed by accidental discharge of his own gun while firing at Springfield, Ga., Dec. 1.

WARTED on. Hatchinson's Island, near Savannah, Dec. 13, 1864—Corporal W. P.
Hight, Co. E; Private Delos Peck, Co. K.
