Mrs. Griswold.

I thought I would write a few lines to you and inform you that we have been in battle and I am sorry to say that that we lost almost half of our company killed wounded and missing with the rest Lieut. Griswold is missing he was wounded in the arm and bled pretty hard the rebs was so close on to us that we had to run for our sweet lives and I dont know if he got off from the field or not he might got off and went to the Hospital and we not know it if he did not he was taken prisoner if he was taken prisoner we may not here from him in a good while and if he is in enny hospitle we will here of it in a short time and I will let you know if we here from him in enny way. there has gone some Abelence to the Battle field after some of the wounded and he may come in with them I hope for the best the boys all feel downhearted to see so menny of our comrads gone but we have to look on the brst side and hope for the best for it may be our turn next Lieut Griswold was thought every thing of by the Company and he was a good Comander as I want over me he done justice to them all and they all liked him well and they feel bad not to see him in comand of the Company but I am in hopes that he will come out all wright yet I will have to close please excuse poor writing and bad spelling from your friend Homer A. I recd your letter last night and I am glad that can wright better news this time Lieut is all wright onely a wound in the right arm I think it was above the elbow and it did not hit the bone he was hit in the forepart of the battle while he was in the riffle pit it bled rather bad and it made him faint I was not with him when he was hit when we fell back to the riffle pits we got mixt up Dany Horton was in comxand of part of the Company and Lieut Griswold the other part so I did not see him when he fell ? after the battle he and the rest of the boys was taken priseners Saturday night about nine o clock and the next morning all that was able to walk they took to Richmond and them that was not able to walk they paroled wright there on the spot and sent them across the river but the Lieut had to go to Richmond there is 5 missing in our Company that we cant hear from I think probely they are killed but you do not know enny of them so I will not put there names down the rest of the boys that belong to our Company have been paroled and are to Anapolis and we heard from them last night they said that the Lieut was in the Hospital in Richmond and has not been paroled yet but he may be in a few days I hope so ennyway if he does you will get a letter from him I hope he will be exchange in a short time the boys that are in the Company are feeling first rait now to what they did I have not got enny more news to wright tell Casias to write to me and I will answer it give my rect to all enquiring friends the boys all sends there rect to you ifhear from the Lieut I will let you know it wright off I will close for this time so good by from your friend

Army Correspondence

Camp near Cornet Station, Va. } August 8th, 1862. }

Dear Mother, — As no doubt a word from the 154th N. Y. would be interesting to your readers, I take this my first opportunity since writing to you from Stafford C. H. We are now about one mile from Centret Station, on the line of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, in a fine camp in a grove of oaks, in sight of Gen Howard's, Steinwehr's and Bushbeck's headquarters. Gen. Howard commands the corps, Gen. Steinwehr our division, (2d) and Col. Bushbeck our brigade, (1st

We have been marching nearly every day since the 11th of June until the 1st of this month, when we came to our present camp. I am unable to give you a description of our march since leaving Stafford C. H.; suffice it to say we have been up to Gettysburg, Pa., and are now back within thirty miles from where we started. Our regiment was in the battle of Gettysburg, which, no doubt, was the greatest battle ever fought by the army of the Potomac, and its effects are to be seen upon the ranks of our once noble regiment. No braver or truer men are to be found than in the 154th, and old Catta-raugus may well be proud of the men she sent forth, for none have been more faithful to their country in this time of her greatest need. In trying to sustain the beloved flag of our Union, which traitor hands are trying to tear down. Shall they succeed in this their devilish work? Shall we permit them to tear down even one of the pillars of this monument of Liberty, which our fathers reared for us, and raise no hand of resistance? No, never! even though we fight ten years or longer, even though it take every man of the North, we say, let us defend it, and if this Union must be destroyed, let us be buried with it.

Of the three hundred and fifty men who went into battle, only seventeen came out; but luckily for us, Major Warner had about fifty men off with him on other duty, so we saved out of the battle about seventy men. A few have since returned to us, who were taken prisoners and escaped; among the latter are Capt. Cheney, Lieuts. Crosby, Mitchell and Church, and Sergeants Clark and Wellman of Co. B. Our regiment now only draws 119 rations, and we only stack 80 arms. The number killed was about fifteen, wounded, forty to fifty, and the rest of our missing are prisoners. But we shall have a regiment yet, as we are to have over four hundred of you who have been at home, in a few days, as we have officers and men from our regiment now in Elmira to receive you and escort you down to this land of Dixie. So come on all of you who pretended to love your country so much—you who were so patriotic in days gone by, when there was no fear of a draft. Come on you who have talked so loud, and were willing to do so much to preserve this Government, but who wanted to do it beneath some shady tower at home. Come on you were so willing to lay your lives upon the altar of your country, but who wished to have the altar a bed of roses with pillows of down. Come on you brave men, and we will show you where fighting is done.

Yesterday there was an exchange of prisoners who were taken at Chancellorville. Of these, we shall have about one hundred. How long we shall stay in this camp we have no means of knowing. We may move to-night, to-morrow, and may be not in a month. Truly it can be said that to-night the soldier knows not where he shall lay his head. He is like the wandering Arab who has no abiding place of his own. He knows not why he is placed here or there, but goes at the word of his commander as chess-men follow the wish of the player. But I must close for fear I weary your patience with the length of my letter.

Dear Father and Mother

I recd. that long letter to day that you have promised so long to me and was much pleased to hear from you and that you was all well and getting a long so well I see by your letter that butter is offle high we only have to pay 75 ct a pound for it it here but we have to cage it up nights or it will leave us we are having quite an excitement here at Ball play we played with 33 Mass Saturday 70 forms for the game they beat us too but our Colonel bet $200 that we could beat them in one week from that day and I think we can to.

Pa I thought that I had sent this letter untill to day so I will finish it now we are having fine weather warm and pleasent I am afraid that it is going to be a little to warm for comfort but we have got to get used to or die tiring out I am in hopes that we wont have to march much but I guess that we shall see an active campaign this summer but we can all tell better next fall.

Capt Griswold is verry sick with the infermations of the bowels but I am in hopes that he will get well Edson is cooking for the Comishend staff yet top cook I rec'd a letter to day from N_____ She said that Jony had got home tell him to write to me I have not got no more news to write this time Pa if you can I wish that you would send me a good shirt one that is fine and wont prick me these hot days send it by mail if you can and I guess you can give my love to all good by

Friend Cash

I now seat my self for the perpose of writing a few lines to for your Father.

he is on the gain now and I think that he is out of danger he has had a hard sickeness but he has had as good care as could be given a man here in this country Marve Skinner has taken care of him day times and then the boys have taken turnes seting up with him nights it is the rumer here in camp to day that we will march this week but I hope not untill the Capt is able to come home.

He has sent in his papers for a Discharge and expect them ever day I had rather he would have stayd with us but his health would not admit of it We are having verry warm and pleasant wether here now the trees are all leaved out and what rew apple trees thare is here are in rull bloom and it looks like sumer.

the Capt says that he has not heard from you in over two weeks but he says that he will proply be at home before he can get an answer from this but want you to understand that you must answer it all the same and write to me for I would like to hear from you often.

the Captains papers has just come while I have been writing and he says that he is coming home just as soon as he is able to come and that will be probely about two weeks from now

Cash you must take good care of the fair young damsels in that part of the state because I cant be up ~~th~~ tare I want you to write and tell me how all of the Girls get along and give them all my best sect I will close by wishing you good health and prosperity and hope to hear from you soon excuse all mistakes it he had spasms and had to be tied in bed last night he had a good night, but this morning as seven he had another. After each one he lost his speech, but in a little while it would return. He had perfect usage of his body and seemed as strong. This afternoon at 1:45 he had another light attack which took him from us forever. The doctors said he had strokes and it was better than if he had lingered because had he lived he would have been paralyzed and suffered terrible. The Cooks very nice just as

Dear Aunt Ad,
I wrote you a letter day before yesterday which you have probably received by now. You may be some surprised to hear from me again in such a short time. Yesterday morning about eleven o'clock Pa was sitting in his chair reading the paper when very suddenly he got purple and absolutely stiff. We had two doctors. At 12:30 he had another attack much worse than the first and after not live long. As soon as he got sick he had no more desire to live.

Well I will close now and let you know anything you would like - after

Dear Brother Eva

Just received this & am sending it to you as Eva requested one to I am very thankful that I did not have to suffer long the last letter I had from <sup>him</sup> he was feeling so well said he would enough so that he was able to pay his bills & pay my mother had his sister about 1000 dollars natural as if he were to wake up any moment. If it would not be too much trouble for you could you send this letter to Uncle John. I will write him a few words but do not feel able to write you much at this time. He died very peacefully. He seemed so strong it was some time before you could fully realize he was gone. He spoke so often of wanting to see you and Uncle John and wanted you both to come out here. That was why we always asked you for our letters to examine and see him because he seemed to think he would
