Died on Sat. morning, Nov. 27, 1886, Mrs. Lucy Ann Benedict, age 84 years, 7 months and 26 days. Deceased was born in Hampton, Washington Co., N.Y., and came west with her husband and children and settled in Ill. about 22 years ago. For 12 years she and her husband, who survives her, resided with her son D.C. Benedict, where she died. She suffered a long time with neuralgia of the head, which caused her death. The funeral was held at her late residence on Mon. afternoon, Nov. 29, by the Rev. E.S. Steele, of the M.E. church of Gridley, after which she was laid to rest in the Gridley cemetery. Grandpa and Grandma Benedict have been married for over 60 years.

Prominent businessman expires March 31

Lloyd DeForris Benedict, 89, of Gridley, a former Chicago chemist and a 30 year director of the State Bank of Gridley, died at 8:17 a.m. Wednesday, March 31, 1982 at Meadows Mennonite Home.

His funeral was held at 1:30 p.m. Friday at First United church of Gridley Congregational building, Rev. Roger Ricketts officiated. Burial was in Gridley cemetery.

Visitation was held from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at Froelich Memorial home and one hour before the service at the church.

Pallbearers were: Steward Ollin, Edward Diggle, David Benedict, Lloyd D. Benedict, T. J. Rich, Randy Rich, and John Diggle.

He was born July 3, 1892, at Gridley, a son of Henry D. and Mary Hershe Benedict. He married Gladys Anderson on April 7, 1917, at Chicago. She died Aug. 29, 1972. He married H. Elizabeth Freed on May 6, 1974. She survives.

Also surviving are a stepdaughter, Mary Rich, Gridley; two brothers, McKinley and Tracey H. both of Gridley; and three step-grandchildren.

Three sisters preceded him in death.

Mr. Benedict was owner and chairman of the board of Plunkett Chemical Co., Chicago, for 20 years.

He graduated from Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, in 1914 and was a member of IWU's Presidents and Century clubs.

In 1919 and 1920 he was commissioned to construct soap factories in Cuba. He operated commercial analytical chemistry laboratories in Chicago and was senior chemist for Armour Co.

He was vice president of American Home Products Co., Chicago, and a member of the board of the federal Pure Food and Drug Administration for 20 years.

He was a professor of chemistry and math at the University of Chicago, where he received an honorary doctorate in 1940.

He was a member of First United church of Gridley, Gridley Masonic Lodge and Bloomington Consistory. He was a 32nd Degree Mason.

Memorials may be made to the church building fund or Meadows Mennonite home.

Conduct military rites Friday for Mac Benedict, 90

The funeral of H. McKinley Benedict, 90, of Gridley, was held at 2 p.m. Friday at Froelich Memorial Home, Gridley, Rev. George Classen officiated.

Burial was in Gridley cemetery, where the Gridley American Legion conducted military rites.

Visitation was held one hour before the service Friday at the memorial home.

He died at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 8, 1987 at Mennonite hospital, Bloomington.

Lloyd Danny Benedict, Ed Diggle, John Diggle, Denzel Deavers, Raymond (Rudy) Deavers, and Gary Hermann were pallbearers.

He was born Nov. 7, 1896, in Waldo Township, near Gridley, a son of Henry D. and Mary Hershe Benedict. He married Lena A. Flesher on Nov. 22, 1921, in Gridley. She died March 11, 1984.

Survivors include one daughter, Zelda Ries, Morton; one son, Dave, Morton; two grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Three brothers and two sisters preceded him in death.

He was a member of the First United church of Gridley, Gridley Masonic Lodge AF&AM, and was a former grand lecturer and district deputy grand master of the Grand Lodge of Illinois.

He was also a member of the Bloomington Consistory, the Peoria Academia Science Botany organization and the Buzzard's Roost Pinochle club.

Mr. Benedict was a botany consultant to the Botany Department at Illinois State university.

He was a rural mail carrier around Gridley for 36 years.

Memorials may be made to the Shriners' Crippled Children's hospital.
