

Treasury Department,

Second Auditor's Office,

July 23. 1868.

My dear Capt

The Affidavit came this morning. I went to the Chf. Clk of the Office and handed it (with the other paper enclosed) in to be acted upon. which will be when the final acct from the Ord. Dept and C.M.G. are produced.

Saw the ord officer. he will send you a blank. also procured a blank from the C.M.G., which please find enclosed.

Fill them out and forward to me and I will have the whole thing fixed out all right in a very short time.

Things here in the city are quint. Congress will adjourn the last of the week. I notice that Dr Van has some chance of a re-nomination. Hope he may succeed, for there is not a greater workman in the House than he although he does it in his usual quiet way. The men who make the most noise with their mouths are not always those who accomplish the largest amt.

of labor.

Walter hot.

Let me hear from you, if you have time & inclination.
Believe me

Yours Truly
W. A. Farley
