

what you have to do.

DO IT NOW.

BRIEFLY TOLD ITEMS.

It is reported that Mr. Bryan may retire from the cabinet early next March.

Governor-elect Whitman will announce names of military staff in a few days.

Coney Island train kills Susie Lindstrom, 11 years old, who throws her younger sister from rails.

Austrians have crossed the Kolubara river, threatening an attack on Belgrade from the south.

President Wilson, it was said, will try to get the Alexander ship purchase bill through congress during the short session.

Ypres, Soissons and Rheims are again under bombardment by the Germans.

Miss Rose Purpler of Newark is burned by acid hurled through a window while she slept.

Forest fires extend from end to end of Arkansas, causing losses amounting to many millions of dollars.

Mr. Garrison will require summonses for army officers and officials in congressional armament inquiry.

There is no disorder in Vera Cruz as American troops evacuate and General Arquilar's command takes possession of the city.

Ball increased to $25,000, W. D. Morgan, one-time bank cashier, accused of embezzlement, goes back to jail in Hartford, Conn.

President Wilson in message will urge aid of merchant marine.

Barnet Baff, who prosecuted the poultry trust in New York is assassinated.

Governor-elect Whitman and Republican leaders agree on extensive changes in election law.

The Ohio society prepares a notable homecoming for Ambassador Herrick and will hail him as Republican standard bearer in 1916.

Henry Siegel returns to New York city; efforts to escape jail by raising $2,000,000 for depositors may be balked by federal prosecution.

Governor Hunt of Arizona, believing that corporations defeated the abolition of capital punishment at the recent election, has invited the heads of 11 foreign corporations to witness the hanging of 11 men.

F. L. Hoffman, insurance expert, finds suicide is decreasing, indicating greater prosperity in United States.

A jury at White Plains, N. Y., upholds the $4,000,000 will of Mrs. Ruth Louise Bailey, contested by her sister.

President Wilson was in Williamsport, Pa., for Thanksgiving dinner.

THE MARCH TO THE SEA WITH THE 143th N. Y. V.

From the Diary of Lieut. Alex Bird.

Nov. 27th, marched at 7 a. m. and tore up track and burnt up bridge until noon, then marched until 11 p. m. before going into camp at David'sborough, after crossing the Ogechee river.

28, marched at 10 a. m. as guard to corps headqu's train camped at Spear station. Right wing of the regiment went on picket. Weather fine.

29th, marched at 7 a. m., passed through Bethany at 1 p. m., halted at Bostwick station and tore the track until dark.

30th, continued to tear up track and destroyed the R. R. bridge across the river. Ferried a lot of contrabands across the river. 4 p. m., marched up the river to Louisville and went into camp at 11 p. m. Marched 15 miles.

Dec. 1st, marched at 7 a. m. Regiment detailed as guard to pontoon train. Weather very warm: Got plenty of sweet potatoes and pork. Went into camp at 5 p. m. Made 18 miles.

2nd, marched at 6 a. m., southeast. Very foggy in the morning. Cleared off very warm. Crossed Dr. Johnson's plantation, a very wealthy planter. Foraging fine. Camped at 4 p. m. near Buckhead church.

3d, marched east. Took dinner near Millen. Went and saw the boiling spring and the stockade where the Yankee prisoners were kept. Afternoon marched as rear guard. Got into camp 11 p. m. Rained in the night.

4th, was detailed with my company to forage. Had three wagons. Struck to the right and crossed the R. R. Found a poor country. Followed the 17th corps about 5 miles from station No. 7 and struck out towards the 20th corps and found plenty of forage. Got 150 bushels of sweet potatoes with a good supply of hams, bacon, meal and sorgham, and struck the main road about dark. Found our division was behind, and we went into camp for the night.

5th, found the regiment when it came along about 8 a. m., and turned in our forage to the quartermaster. Country very poor today, mostly pine forests and swamps. Made 15 miles today.

6th, marched at 7 a. m. Roads very good in the forenoon, in the afternoon they were very poor and mostly corderoed. Camped 4 miles north of Turkey creek. Rained all night. Weather warm.

To be continued.

HOLY NAME OF MARY PARISH

Rev. Andrew T. Hartman, D. D., Pastor.

First Sunday of Advent.

The latest issue of the "Employees Magazine", a publication conducted by those employed in the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railway system, contains a very interesting article from the pen of M. J. Hallinan. The article bears the title, "The Boy of today; the Shipper of

EAST ASHFORD.

Mrs. Henry Hadley is very ill with blood poisoning in her hand.

Roberta Rice is ill with throat and ear trouble.

A. E. Bigelow had the misfortune to get his hand caught in his engine hurting the two middle fingers quite bad.

John Heidel and wife of Franklinville at Amos Weast's for Thanksgiving.

Herbert Dresser and wife at Irving Whitney's in Machias for Thanksgiving.

Will Skinner and wife and son of Bantavia spent the week-end at H. L. Dresser's.

David Upson goes to Olean this week Monday.

Hubert Hammond and wife spent Thanksgiving with their son Glenn and family at Delevan.

Joe Gibby and wife of Salamanca and Miss Edna Gibby of Buffalo visited at Charles Gibby's Thanksgiving.

Thomas Leonard was called to Springville Wednesday morning by the death of his sister Mrs. Myra Arnold; he also attended the funeral held at that place on Friday. He has the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of his sister.

Miss Ethel Mathewson home from Springville over Sunday.

Miss Blanche Canfield, who was expected home from Stockton to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, was prevented from coming by an attack of mumps.

Mrs. Julia Martin left Thursday evening for her home at Detroit, Mich., after several weeks visit.

A. M. Barnard is moving into the tenant house of Henry Hadley's, having rented the farm for the coming year.

Albert Woodruff spent last week in Buffalo.

Miss Amanda Upson in Springville Friday.

Harold Lindsley of Buffalo returned home Sunday evening after several days visit at C. M. Lindsley's.

Arthur Bay and wife (formerly Miss Pearl Starks) who have resided at Corfu, Wash., for the past two years, reached this place in time to eat Thanksgiving turkey with her mother, brother, and family.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will have a chicken pie supper at the home of A. B. Weast and wife, Friday evening, Dec. 4th. A welcome to all. Adults 20 cts., children 10 cents a plate.

Word was received here of the marriage of Mrs. Myrtle Lindale, formerly of this place to Joseph Nenetery, all of Buffalo.

Bert Hadley and family of Buffalo spent the week-end with his parents Henry Hadley and wife.

On Monday, Nov. 23rd, just at the midnight hour an angel came from heaven and carried Lee, the six year-old son of Jos. Folts and wife to the flowery Eden, where he will never know ought of sorrow nor pain. He will be sadly missed by all who knew him. The funeral services were held at the home Friday at 11 o'clock, the Rev. N. S. Methfessel of Springville officiating. Interment at Maplewood ceme-

REC. 21117

Ellicottville Post

1-e-n-r-e-v