Long Illness Finally Claims Hardy Civil War Veteran Funeral Here Friday.

Alexander Bird, veteran of the Civil War and father of Surrogate A. A. Bird of Cattaraugus, died yesterday morning at the Soldiers' Home in Bath after an illness of some duration.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian church and of Ellicottville Lodge, F & A. M.

Mr. Bird was the first county superintendent of highways, which position he held in Cattaraugus County for a number of years. He was also town clerk of Ellicottville at one time and was commander of the Henry Van Aérnum G. A. R. Post here for a long period of years.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Ellen Bird he leaves two sons, Judge A. A. Bird Cattaraugus and John A. Bird of Bradford, Pa., and two daughters, Miss Jessie Bird and Mrs. Elizabeth Gregory of Bradford, Pa., One son, George Bird of East Otto who died five years ago.

Alexander Bird, born in Montgomery Co., July 21, 1842, enlisted in Co. G. 154th., N. Y. Vols., Aug 6, 1862, was promoted to corporal, sergeant, sergeant-major and first lieutenant and commanded a company as acting captain during the last nine months of the war. Mr. Bird fought at Chancellorsville and

"Red" Hinman Recovers
From Pneumonia

The Calumets were forced to postpone their game last week Thursday night with the Bradford Merchants due to the fact that "Red" Hinman, star pivot-lad was confined to his bed with pneumonia and that the blizzard which raged all day Thursday made a postponement logical. Hinman, is now back on his feet and apparently none the worse for his illness.

Friday night, with a patched-up line-up, the Calumets journeyed to Allegany and dropped a five-point contest to the hard-playing Green Suits. The game was a battle, however, all the way.

The Calumets will attempt to stage another home-game here Friday night in Ames Hall, when Mgr. Tim Stokes brings to Ellicottville, the flying Cuba Iroquois, which aggregation is anxious to wipe out a recent one point defeat at the hands of the Ellicottville court stars.

An interesting angle of the coming battle Friday night is the fact marched to the sea and was engaged at Savannah. He marched through the Carolina's to Raleigh and was present at General Johnston's surrender. He marched to Washington by way Richmond and was discharged at Elmira, N. Y. June 22, 1865.

Being wounded at Rocky Face Ridge he refused to go to the hospital, never asked for nor received a furlough and was absent from his company only six months on recruiting service by order of the war Department. In this capacity as well as in the "tented field" he was an able and efficient soldier. On his return from the army he was a blacksmith for twelve years; since then he has conducted a grocery and meat market. In the autumn of 1880 he made a tour of all his old battlefields.
From the field of Rocky Face Ridge where he was wounded he cut a hickory walking stick and formed a head for it with a grape shot that he picked up on the field of Resaca. Mr.
Bird was a Republican. He had three brothers in the Army: The aggregate number of battles fought by these four brothers was sixty-one and the sum total of service tendered was eleven years and five months.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence and 1:30 o'clock from the Presbyterian Church, Rev. O. C. Epperson officiating. Interment will be made in Sunset Hill cemetery.

TREASURY SURPLUS JUMPS TO $218,279,937.

Washington, Jan. 4th The treasury ended the first half of its fiscal year with a surplus of $218,279,937, com-recent one point defeat at the hands of the Ellicottville court stars.

An interesting angle of the coming battle Friday night is the fact that two former gridiron, diamond and court stars, and now High School Principals will face each other across the chalk-marks, namely: Principal Goewey of Ellicott-ville High School, who is staging a come-back after five years of active absence from the game and Prin.
"Chief" Witter of the Bolivar High School, who is the main cog in the Cuba machine. Chief Witter, who is well known to local sports fans, will have for his running-mate,
"Patsy" Klien, who is a whirlwind court performer.

The game Friday night ought to be interesting in every respect and a large crowd is expected to grace Ames Hall for the occasion.

A sparkling preliminary is also on Friday night's card.
