

farmer near Ellicottville, N. Y. when the war cloud rolled up from the South and, Sept., 1861, he was enrolled as private of Co. I, 37th N. Y. V. I., and participated in the Seven Day's Fight, Fair Oaks, 2d Bull Run, Chancellorsville, Fredericksburg and Williamsburg. He was confined in the hospital at Ft. Washington one month on account of sickness. Was captured by the rebel cavalry at Malvern Hill and confined in Libby prison 3 months and Boll Isle 12 days. Once he was detailed to guard wagon train and at the end of his enlistment he was given his honorable discharge at New York City. James Bacon, son of second wife, was also a hero of Northern army. Com. Abers, although advanced in years, is still active and possessed of a keen mind. He is a member of Sherwood post, 508, and is spending the sunset days of life on a farm near Salamanca, N. Y.

GEORGE ANTHONY.

Son of Preceptor and Wealthy A. Winchester Anthony, was born on Aug. 11, 1837, in Mayville, N. Y., and was married in 1858 in Warren, Pa., to Olive Snyder, daughter of Isaac and Mary Sidmore Snyder. His second marriage to Nancy Davis, was Sept. 12, 1862, by whom he had four children, Annie, Emmie, Effie and Frank. He was a farmer when the war of the States began, and enlisted Jan. 4, 1862, in Attica, N. Y., in Co. A, 105th N. Y. V. I., 2d Div., 1st and 5th A. C. May, 1862, he was taken sick with typhoid fever at Manassas: sent to Washington, where he remained until discharged July 4, 1862. His father was assistant in the hospital and his mother came for him. and had it not been for her tender care the boy would not have lived. DeWitt C., in the navy, was on the monitor "Nahant" when it was blown up; and Frank Anthony, 105th N. Y. V. I., wounded in the foot and taken prisoner; his father was also in 105th N. Y. Com. Anthony is a member of the Howell post, and one of the truly respected men of his town, Delevan, N. Y. He is now unable to work.

HORATIO N. BERRY,

Is the son of Philemon and Christianna (Dickenson) Berry, and was born April 5, 1842, in Lorain Co., O., and was living in Parish, Oswego, N. Y., when the gloom of civil war settled over our fair land. He was enrolled as a private Aug. 22, 1862, in Co. II, 147th N. Y. V. I., and in time was promoted into the brigade band. Among his battles we mention Pollock's Mill Creek, Burnside's Mud Campaign, Chancellorsville, Wilderness, Piney Branch Church, Laurel Hill, Spottsylvania, Bethesda Church, Cold Harbor and before Petersburg, Gettysburg, Mine Run. In fall of 1863 was transferred to the brigade band, and served there until the war had closed. While in front of Petersburg he was detailed as orderly, and after he had served faithfully was discharged at Bailey's Cross Roads, June 19, 1865. May 27, 1866, he was happily united in marriage to Laura Kelly, daughter of George and Ann Kelly. Com. Berry's brother William was a member of Co. II, 147th N. Y. V. I. The Rust Post of Great Valley has enrolled our subject among its membership. He is also a member of the Baptist church and lives in Great Valley, N. Y. Music has been his specialty, there being no better band leader in the county.

THOMAS N. BLITON,

Son of Thomas N. and Sarah Chamberlain Bliton, was born in Warsaw, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Jan. 16, 1835. He was united in marriage Dec., 1857, at Ellicottville, N. Y., to Jane E. Bush, daughter of Samuel and Sally (Marvin) Bush. Four children have been the sunshine of their home; Sarah J., Nina M., Nellie J., and Reupert J. Com. Bliton was engaged as a farmer when the gloom of Civil war settled over our fair land. He was enrolled as a private of Co. D, 154th N. Y. V. I., 2d Brig., 2d Div., 11th A. C., Aug., 1862, at Machias, N. Y. He was the hero of battles of Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Chattanooga, Lookout Mt., Rocky Face Ridge, Reseca, Dallas, Kingston, Kenesaw Mt., New Hope Church, Marietta, Atlanta, March to the Sea and campaign in the Carolinas. In Oct., 1862, while at Thoroughfare Gap, he was detailed in the ambulance train, and in Oct., 1864 he was detailed as a forager. He was sick in the hospital in New York City at the McDugel. In Jan., 1863 he was given a 60 day furlough and came home for rest and recuperation, rejoining command in Mar., 1863 in Lookout Valley. His career was that of a true soldier, ever at his post of duty and serving faithfully until peace had come, when he was given his discharge June 11, 1865, at Bladensburg, Md., but from McDugal hospital, N. Y. City. His two brothers, Marvin, a sergeant, killed at Malvern Hill in 1862; and Henry of Co. G, 154th N. Y., see record. Com. Bliton is a member of the A. O. U. W., and of Howell post, 390, of Delevan, N. Y. He is now living on a large and fertile farm near Delevan.

CHARLES F. BROWN.

Saxton and Philla (Abbey) Brown were living in Randolph, N. Y. when a son came to hallow their home, Charles F., born Feb. 19, 1831, and he soon grew to a strong, vigorous manhood. July 2, 1859, at Conewango, N. Y., Nancy Caswell, the daughter of Joseph and Juliett (Cook) Caswell, became the devoted wife of our comrade. Six children were given to this union, Frank S., dec., Erie, DeWayne, Louis, Stephen and Carrie. Mrs. Brown was born Nov. 6,