George Murdock.

At noon Saturday one of the oldest pioneers of Oceola died at his home in that township. He was over 80 years old and came to this county when it was a wilderness.

George W. Murdock was born in the state of New York in 1825 and in 1838 he came with his parents to the township of Oceola where he resided until his death.

He was married to Miss Ann E. Marsh when 22 years old and to this union four children were born. Edward Murdock who died several years ago. Wilson Murdock of Lansing, Adelbert Murdock of Hillsdale County and Mrs. Ida Burrows of Detroit.

The funeral was held from their home in Oceola Tuesday afternoon.

ing elected editor of the conservative paper at Chicago, with a salary of about $4,000. Howell gives her sons a good start on the road to fame.

Mrs. Richard Burdick.

Mrs. Richard Burdick died at her home in Howell Saturday evening after an illness of five months, brought on by a stroke of paralysis. Since Mrs. Burdick was stricken with paralysis she has been helpless.

Miss Betsey Austin was born in Farmersville, New York, November 4, 1829, married Richard Burdick October 1859, to which union three children were born, of which number only one is living.

She came to Michigan with her family in 1866 and 25 years ago they settled at Howell during which time she has made a large number of friends and acquaintances who are grieved to hear of her departure.

The deceased leaves a grief stricken husband and a daughter Mrs. Arlington Kirk and a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

The funeral was held Tuesday. Rev. Cansfield officiating.

Methodist Episcopal Church

The subject at the Methodist church next Sunday will be as follows:

In the morning the pastor will preach on the subject "The Touch of Faith"

In the evening the subject will be "Morality and Christianity a Comparison and a Contrast."

A hearty welcome is extended to these services. At the Epworth League meeting, Mr. Alfred Day will give a report of the recent Epworth League Convention.

Howell Boy Gets Big Boost

Erna White, who graduated from the high school here and the University of Michigan, had a large sized bouquet thrown at him at Mt. Pleasant last week. Mr. White was hired at an advanced salary to hold down the place of principal of the high school for another year, but Saturday night was elected Superintendent to take the place of the last years superintendent who accepted a position in the west.

School Notes.

Mr. Earl Woodruff favored us with a solo Monday morning in chapel.

About fifty-three of the smaller pupils of the Howell schools are expecting to carry flowers to decorate the soldiers graves, Thursday.

The school board have decided to have school, Friday, much to the disappointment of many of the pupils who were expecting to go to Lansing to see the president.

The high school Base Ball team expect to go to Owosso, Saturday.

Miss Cora Burdick and Miss Beale Kirk have been absent from school a few days on account of the illness and death of their grand mother Mrs. Richard Burdick.

Miss Mabel Montague went to Detroit, Saturday last.

Alumni Woke up After Several Years Of Inertia

Some of the members of the Howell high school alumni met at the school house last evening to consider plans for a meeting to be held commencement week. The assembled persons were of the opinion that if somebody would go ahead with the affair the rest would be willing, so committees were appointed and the various people belonging will be approached, and if the committees can see their way clear will complete the arrangements, and sort of a reception will be held in the ladies club rooms.

Detailed description of the steamers
Eastern States and Western States would be tedious. Possibly it may be abbreviated by saying that these new boats are not only the largest but the best on any fresh water in the world.
The finest hotel is not better in respect to furnishings. The rooms, sleeping comforts, ventilation and cuisine are altogether admirable on these truly palatial steamers.

Card of Thanks,

We take this means of expressing our heartfelt gratitude for the sympathy and helpfulness of our neighbors and numerous friends during the long illness of our loving, affectionate wife and mother, and for the silent, yet intensely expressive floral tokens of friendly regard.

Smash-up on the Ann Arbor.

A wild engine on the Ann Arbor railroad ran into the rear end of a freight train last night.

Both the fireman and engineer jumped, so were only slightly injured.
The caboose was badly smashed as the engine plowed its way right under the car throwing it to one side.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. G. W. Murdock and family wish to extend their sincere thanks to Rev.
Clark and the friends for the kindness and for the floral offerings during their late bereavement.
