Perry G. Burdick.

The death of Perry G. Burdick, of this village, occurred after a short illness Thursday morning, Oct. 4, 1906.
The funeral, Sunday, under the auspices of the Maccabees and I O O F, was largely attended. Rev. Hartley Cansfield of the M. E church officiated.
Perry G. Burdick, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Burdick of this village, was born in New York state Nov. 21, 1861, and came to Michigan with his parents when five years of age. The family came to Howell about 25 years ago. About twenty years ago he was married to Miss Addie Davis. The wife and two children, Cora aged 16 and William Henry aged 14, survive.
The family and parents have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. The aged mother especially is almost overcome with grief. Mr. Burdick was a faithful employee in the milk factory for eleven years, leaving there about a year ago.

Sick Headache Cured.

Sick headache is caused by derangement of the stomach and by indigestion. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets correct these disorders and effect a cure. By taking these tablets as soon as the first indication of the disease appears the attack may be warded off. For sale by all druggists.

A lazy liver leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation—weakens the whole system. Doan's Regulators (25 cents per box) correct the liver, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

Mrs. Haviland has been suffering from pneumonia since Monday of last week. Dr. Fred Sigler is in attendance

Edgar Votes has been sitting up nights of late with a bad swelling on his hand.

Dr. Brogan was called Sunday afternoon to attend Mrs. Fred Titmus who was quite seriously ill.

Jacob Odell has had a tin roof put on his house and barn. He has deeded his homestead to his nephew of the same name, who will care for him in the future as he is in rather poor health.

Although unable to attend herself, Mrs. J. T. Hoyt secured a fine program for the A. O. O. G. Arbor on Thursday evening of last week. Fred Vo'es entertained the companions with his fine selections of music on his Edison phonograph. A lunch was served.
On account of the continued illness of her husband Mrs. Hoyt resigned her office of Chief Gleaner. Eugene Acker, the Vice Chief, was elected in her place, and Henry Redinger was elected Vice Chief.

Cecil Stowe, of Howell high school, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here.

Lawrence McCarty is making a fine residence of the old house on the Enoch Smith farm in East White Oak.
