

DR. DWIGHT WASHINGTON DAY

1878 Dr. D.W.Day bought old Phillips residence on Barstow
& rebuilding it.

Aug. 1880 notice in paper to effect that in past 10 yrs
he has done business of $90,260.19 of which he has only been able to collect half. Has turned books
over to Geo. W.Kendall for collection.

Apr.16,1885 city mayor.

Oct.19,1898 lived at 615 Farwell.

Nov.20,1901 died while reading paper to Medical Assoc. at Laycock Hall. b. in NY. Surgeon in Civil War. Came
EC 1868.

Nov.21,1940 Mrs. Eliz. N.Day, widow of Dr. D.W. left
EC $200 to improve Forest Hill cemetery.

A brother of Dr. Henry L. Day, who was also in Civil War.

*Ref to news-papers on micro-film
at L.E. Phillips Memorial Library in Eau Claire*

DR. DWIGHT WASHINGTON DAY

1878 Dr. D.W. Day bought old Phillips residence on Barstow
& rebuilding it.

Aug. 1880 notice in paper to effect that in past 10 yrs
he has done business of $90,260.19 of which he has only been able to collect half. Has turned books
over to Geo. W. Kendall for collection.

Apr. 16, 1885 city mayor.

Oct. 19, 1898 lived at 615 Farwell.

Nov. 20, 1901 died while reading paper to Medical Assoc. at Laycock Hall. b. in NY. Surgeon in Civil War. Came
EC 1868.

Nov. 21, 1940 Mrs. Eliz. N. Day, widow of Dr. D.W. left

EC $200 to improve Forest Hill cemetery.

A brother of Dr. Henry L. Day, who was also in Civil War.

*ref to news papers on micro film
at L. E. Phillips Memorial Library East Orange*