Dear Brother

I got your letter this morning and was very glad to hear from you and to hear that you was well your letter found me as well as common it rather cold hear this morning our hours is rather cold you must know that it can not be very pleasant sleeping on the ground at this time of weather we are in campe in the same camp that we was when I rate to tip it is very sickley hear now there has ben I did in this regiment since we came hear

I think Marten and lib is getting a long very well sur tell them that they must name him after me and I will gio him a nice present when I git home what does the folks think of this more out ther I can tell you what the privets thinks of it they are sick of it I dont think it will close very soon

We dont git a nup to cate now fore they cant git bit heer for ~~sum~~ some of my men you did not rite very soon after you got my letter I looked for a letter from you for two or three days I want you to write as often as you can fore I dont have a very good chance to write I has sathe got them Stags yet he hant sed a word from hone in a good while you must write as soon as you git this
