Recently acquired from a local estate is an identified Civil War photo in cdv format of William Farlee, First Lieutenant and Adjutant of the 154th New York Volunteer Infantry. The Regiment otherwise known as the Cattaraugus Regiment was hard fought and controversially conspicuous for their participation at Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. The bust photo is identified in period ink on the front and has the photographers imprint, Moulton and Larkin Elmira New York. The cdv exhibits corner wear, slight soiling and a half inch tear off the top border. The back has some paper loss where perhaps the revenue stamp was removed. Farlee's photo also appears in the unit History THE HARDTACK REGIMENT. Shipping 2.00, checks and money orders, U.S. only, AN EBAY ASSISTED INVOICE WILL BE SENT AT AUCTION CONCLUSION. THANK YOU
