

Fredonia
Censor

Jan. 27, 1886 (1)

FC 1/27/86

THE FREDONIA

Personal

C. Cushing and Miss Kate visit friends in Chicago this Humason enjoyed a pleasant Waterloo, with her brother-in-law, Rt. Rev. Bishop Wallis of Wis-

Mr. Bonetti will move to Wichita, and sells his surplus household goods at auction to-morrow, in the D. store.

Sam H. Stevens came Saturday to his parents and sisters, on his way to Florida. Mr. Stevens has been in the Secretary of State's office some time, but had to go out with Gen. Carr, when he was a very capable clerk. He has some business in Florida but has decided where he will permanently and Mrs. M. S. Woodford conclude a trip to Kalamazoo, Mich., to their daughter Mrs. Cora Dewing. Tom Perkins was in town over the day. He spent December with his family in Florida, and Miss B. there is now traveling for the High Water company.

Miss Sarah Kellogg had her hand to fall upon Delaware Avenue in also last week, and broke her leg, sprained her ankle, and was kept in bed for two weeks.

Remember the Quarterly meeting of the Normal Chapel this Tuesday evening.

Death of Capt. Joseph B. Fay.

Died in Chicago, Jan. 20, 1886, Capt. Joseph B. Fay, in his 69th year.

Capt. Fay was born in Brocton, May 17, 1817. His father, Dea. Elijah Fay, came from Marshfield, Mass., and settled in Portland in 1811. Dea. F. and wife came from Mass. in a wagon drawn by a yoke of oxen and horse, and were 41 days on the road. He brought the apple seeds with him from which he raised a large orchard. He was the first to introduce grape culture into the County.

Capt. Fay spent most of his life in the town, engaged in farming, in which he was quite successful. When the war of the rebellion broke out, he interested himself in the raising of troops, and in Aug. 1862 enlisted as a private. He was commissioned as captain of Co. E, which was joined to the 154th Reg. with Capt. Griswold's Company from Arkwright. He was captured in the battle of Gettysburg, July, 1 1863, and was taken to Libby prison, where he remained some ten months. He was exchanged and returned to his home in Tennessee. While on his way back to the sea. His confinement was very comfortable and he returned home

Sunday

The third of the Institute of the Profession of the Pre- held at the on Thursday and a number of prominent workers from New York were and the event attended by or

The first session evening. The which were in the choir of the a devotional by Martin of Dun address by Rever Creek, up of the Sun- said that grow growth of the so gradual the origin can not most prominent its early li- Raikes of the center, and F. But as the fu day school is in the scripture Jews of 4,000 up their child- sacred writing great tree branches to shelter / 11-

...w traveling for the High Watch any.

Sarah Kellogg had the misfortune to fall upon Delaware Avenue in last week, and broke her foot sprained her ankle. She was at home for treatment.

Remember the Quarterly Musical Normal Chapel this Tuesday evening.

invited, FL 1/27/86 p. 2 R. N. Y. & P. Ry Co. now sells single tickets for $2.00 good for any member of the family or firm, during the winter.

...all of Forestville, after filing his didn't get to be P. M. after all.
...app has it. "Many a slip."

...ttle girl in Leona school swallowed pencil this, Tuesday afternoon caused considerable alarm. It is hoped she will escape serious results. Better keep mouths for pencil holders.

...he social of the M. E. Church was held at the residence of Mr. P.
Alexander in Leona, Friday Evening last. Those wishing conveyances to meet at Mr. J. H. Lake's store at 7 o'clock, p. m., Should there be no conveyance, will meet in the church parlor. An oyster supper will be served.

...Quarterly Meeting Services at the Methodist Church, Fredonia, Jan.
31. Services commencing, Sat. 2 p.
m. Rev. S. K. J. Chebro, district superintendent, will have charge. A cordial welcome to all.

A. C. Leonard, pastor.

...Rev. Geo. H. Vibbert will, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., deliver a series of lectures, beginning next evening in the M. E. church at Fredonia. The lectures will continue on Wednesdays and evenings in the various subject to all the hardships trials connected with that horrible place of confinement. Through the interces-sions of a friend he was exchanged and rejoined his company in Tennessee, where the regiment was on the way with Sherman in their march to the sea. His debility caused by long confinement caused his resignation and return home, July 16, 1864.

In 1865 he was elected Supervisor of Portland and held the office two years.
In 1866 he was elected Member of Assembly, and re-elected in 1867. He was associated with Hon. G. Stiles, from this district, and between them there was a strong and enduring friendship.

In 1872 he sold his farm and moved to Topeka, Kansas. From there he went to Colorado, where he engaged in silver mining, and was the principal proprietor of the mine. His family remained at Topeka during this time.

Some two months ago he moved to Chicago, where he died last week. He had a severe attack of rheumatism a few months ago, which terminated fatally by attacking the heart.

The remains were brought from Chicago to Breton, where the funeral services were attended last Saturday, at the Baptist church. There was a large attendance, the G. A. R. Post participating in the solemn services. Rev. Mr.
Wilkins gave an appropriate discourse, and remarks were also made by T. S.
Moss, Esq. appreciative of the memory of this excellent former citizen whose death was so generally mourned.

Capt. Fay was twice married, 1st to Maria M. Sage, Oct. 5, 1837; 2d to Mrs. the Hayward, Mar. 15, 1843. His wife and three children survive, one daughter, Mrs. Frank, lives in Connecticut.
His remains were at Topeka, and were buried at Topeka. Also an identification of his remains.

But as the first day school is in the scriptures Jews of 4,000 up their childsacred writings great tree branches so shelter. Like stitutions it is folding, and traced the way down to their important of whi-tion of the is-in 1870. He-ence it exerts our civilizatiocountless dir-on church and of women in world, in vari-and moral c-Chautauqua catholicity of denominatiolook for the various char-suggested, ant delivery the closest a-

The next
Rev. N. J. I stalled past-at Jamestown
Pa. His
barren one Church for day School School was apart from part of it an gregational worship, the church at st-revised edition Jan. 2, 1900 will meet in the church par-n oyster supper will be served.

Quarterly Meeting Services at the Methodist Church, Fredonia, Jan.

Services commencing, Sat. 2 p.
Rev. S. K. J. Chesbro, district man, will have charge. A cordial to all.

A. O. LEONARD, pastor.

Rev. Geo. H. Vibbert will, under auspices of the W. C. T. U., deliver series of lectures, beginning next Fri-evening in the M. E. church at ton. The lectures will continue noons and evenings in the various ches of Brocton, Portland and west land, till Tuesday evening.

A series of meetings is now in press at Christian Chapel which will ably be continued for three or four ks.

During the meetings we will endeavor show what the people, worshipping in Christian Chapel, believe, and how their ing accords with the teaching of ible. All are invited, seats free.

Governor Hill has sent the nomiof Mark A. Cadwell of this vilfor Loan Commissioner, to the Senate. Mr. Cadwell is a gentle-of good character and ability, well fitted for the office, and we hope he be promptly confirmed. The office want, Mr. H. A. Fyles, the former missioner, having become a resident Dakota.

NORTH CAROLINA:—Our kind New beans hosts, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. ugh, are spending this winter in orth Carolina. Mr. Ebaugh writes: We are here in North Carolina, this inter, my wife and I and we like the imate better than N. O.
We are having here what these peo-

the Baptist church. There was a large attendance, the G. A. R. Post participating in the solemn services. Rev. Mr.
Wilkins gave an appropriate discourse,
and remarks were also made by T. S.
Moss, Esq. appreciative of the memory
of this excellent former citizen whose
death was so generally mourned.

Capt. Fay was twice married, 1st to Maria M. Sage, Oct. 8, 1837; 2d to Mary the Haywood, Mar. 15, 1843. His wife and three children survive, one daughter, Mrs. French, lives in Connecticut, Mrs. Bradshaw lives at Topeka, and Ransom also at Topeka. Also an adopted son, Albert, at Brocton. They were all present at the funeral.

Capt. Fay was an energetic and enterprising man, and highly esteemed by all who knew him for his probity of character, high toned patriotism and public spirit. He was for many years a member of the Baptist church in Brocton, and leaves a record that will long be held in remembrance by all who knew him.

Just Iss. — The following is a list of the Petit Jurors drawn on the 18th, to serve at the February term of the County Court, to be held on Monday, Feb. 1st 1886:

- Arkwright — Curtis Luce.
- Houch — John R. Davidson.
- Foster —
- Charlotte — Willard Luce, Alonzo
- Palmer, E. M. Chase, Silas Edson
- Chas. — William Cornell, Mar-
- Ellis
- Carroll — Frank E. Thayer
- Clymer — Nelson Shepard
- Ellis — Fred Bush.
- Cowley — C. D. Colburn, Cyrus
- Geo. —
- Geo. — Geo. Fritz
- Geo. — Wm. H. Scott.

FL 1/27/86 p. 3

the closest
The next
Rev. N. J. R. stalled pastor
at Jamestown
Pa. His su-barren one of Church for t
day School."
School was
apart" from part of it un-gregational
worship, th
church at st
it was not as teachers of t responsible arily the du of the churc etc., and see the church.

On Friday
of Lancaster the subject ence. Her the habit of jects, as an school work work were important the world two and a mature life was an int
the work port of the spread of world less of the bibl progress of
Rev. He
the churc
Sun-day work, in institution