

possible. A number of stragglers from the rebel army, and some into our lines, and they pulled themselves up. There was no feeling in the ranks to take the oath. Some of these rebels retreating, on Wednesday, a terrible snow

1st in Dayton. ... up on the Cincinnati Railroad, on ... before midnight, ... Ohio regiment, ... Vallandigham to ... hatched Dayton at ... morning, and then ... to the residence ... and sought ad ... ne to an upper ... business, and on ... ey had orders to ... he refused to al ... he at the window ... his voice, "A ... he same time ... upper side win ... the storm that ... is supposed to ... the fire bells be ... friends. The ... into the house, ... into to make his ... led to the city ... is city before the ... s city about ... g, and the ...

the latter part on Sunday morning last. — Robert Lewis, Fireman, was instantly killed; Arthur Black, Second Engineer, was so badly injured that he died soon after; Jasper Crosby, First Engineer, and two deck hands named Charles Williams and William Smith, were severely scalded—the last two so seriously that it is thought they cannot possibly survive. "The disaster was caused by the crown sheet of the boiler giving way through defective iron.

DEATH OF LIEUT. JOHN C. GRISWOLD. — In the list of killed in the late bloody battle at Fredericksburg. We are pained to notice the name of 1st Lieut. John C. Griswold, of Co. F, 154th N. Y. V. Lieut. Griswold was an old resident of the town of Arkwright, in which he had held important positions as a town Meer, having been for many years a Justice of the Peace, and three times elected Supervisor, which position he held at the time of entering the service of his country. He was an upright and worthy citizen, and his death will be deeply felt in the community where he lived. His age was about 42. He leaves a family to mourn his loss.

THE 30 EXCLUSIVE — HEROIC DEATH OF COL. STEVENS. — He is nearly all the engagements of the 30th Regt. at Fredericksburg. He was the first to fall, in which is comprised the 30th Regt. (1861 N. Y.) Regiment, seems to have been pushed forward for the heavy work of the critical period of the campaign. The following extract from a letter written by the ... of the ...

animals procure. It is tired of life, shuffles out the help of a ph ... clergy, we want to ... graphs are new ... FC 5/13/63 — SCIENTIFIC AND ... TION. — The regular ... was held at Acaden ... evening last. An o ... meeting of the Asso ... adopted. A partial ... Geology of this As ... sented by the chair ... science. Resolutio ... ing the committee ... future meeting the p ... at the month of the ... the war of 1812; to ... tices of the early ... citizens of Fredonia; ... of ancient monumen ... exist within the limit ... dition to those already ... leon Cheney, in the ... the Thirteenth Annua ... trees of the N. Y. ... connection with the ... to prepare a history o ... Gas and its applicati ... posed. The committe ... instructed to report ... may be presented to ... the erection of the ... ready mentioned. T ... was instructed to pr ... Mechanical and Hort ... Fredonia and its imm ... The Corresponding ... nifications of interest an ... Eaton of Carroll, H ... Horace Burgess of ... Brown of Jamestown, ... H. H. Van Dyke of A ... Seeley of New York. ... upon the encouraging ... ciation and the impor ... a winter home patron ...

1863