

as soon as said new buildings shall be completed; and they are hereby authorized to convey the same in such manner as a majority by resolution may direct.

S. 9. And it is further enacted, that said building commissioners shall each be allowed and pay the sum of three dollars per day for the time spent in the discharge of their duties in the business required by this act, which shall be a county charge, and audited by the board of supervisors, and paid in the same manner as other county charges, and such sums for disbursements and traveling expenses as said board shall deem just.

S. 10. And it is further enacted, that the county judge of Cattaraugus county shall fill any vacancy that may occur by the refusal to act, death or resignation of any of the building commissioners; and such newly appointed building commissioners shall give the security and take the oath of office required by this act.

S. 11. It is further enacted that when, in the opinion of said building commissioners and the district attorney, or a majority of them, the court house shall be so far completed as to be suitable for the holding of courts therein, the jail for the reception of prisoners, and the clerk's office for the safe keeping and deposit of records contained therein, they shall cause a certificate, under their hand, to be filed in the clerk's office of said county, a copy thereof to be served on the sheriff of the said county, and the said buildings shall in one week thereafter be and remain the court house, jail and clerk's office of said county, and thereafter the said place shall be the county seat of said county, and all public offices and records required to be there kept, shall be removed to and kept at said county seat.

S. 12. It is further enacted, that when said court house, jail and clerk's office shall be completed as herein pro-an opportunity of having them fixed up in good style. Give him a call."

"New Store. Adams and Blackmon have fixed up the store, formerly occupied by Doct. Stewart, in the neatest possible manner, and are now receiving a large stock of goods, such as Dry Goods, Groceries, Drugs and Medicines, etc. We are glad they are to keep drugs and medicines, for a little opposition in that direction was needed in this place. If they fall into a monopoly or combination, still another drug store will be needed. But we have faith they will not."

"Thanks. We are indebted to John Groat for a copy of that good old Democratic paper, the Standard, printed at Raleigh, N. C. John is in Sherman's army, and will probably soon be home, for the Standard says: "The great body of Gen. Sherman's army will take up its line of march in the course of a day or two, northward, to be mustered out, we presume at Washington City."

"A touch of civil or uncivil war at Waverly—There was quite a row between the Irish laborers on the A. & G. W. Railway and Deputy Sheriff Cooper, the other day at the village of Waverly. It appears that the paymaster of the road had arrived with quite a large amount of money ($4,000) to pay off the men, who had received no pay in a long time. The money was put into a safe, preparatory to paying, when Mr. Deputy Sheriff Cooper came along with "official papers" and seized the safe to lug off. The laborers pounced upon Mr. Deputy, hit him two or three licks over the head with a club, when he left the safe and ran for dear life. The laborers then took the safe to Zoar, or near there, and having procured the key and pay roll, paid themselves off—leaving a few hundred dollars in shin-plasters and doubtful bills for Mr. Cooper. They wanted their pay, that was all, yet it did not quite pay
