

AT $1.75,

are worth $2.50.

GLOVES

AT $1.00,

sowhere at $1.50.

es and Tips

half millinery store
price, in the

w shades

- Raspberry,
- shed Strawberry,
- Electrique Blue,
- Wine,
- Flame Red
- Terre Cotta,
- lack, Pink & Old Gold.

Fond du Lac, Wisc., Wed., May 2, 1883, p. 4
The Daily Commonweath

feature of the evening's entertainment was the appearance of the celebrated violiniste Miss Zeline Mantey, who was heartily received both on account of the superior rendition of the violin obligato, and from the fact that female artistes in her line are not numerous. Mr. Joseph Harrison, pianist and accompanist, is a gentleman most proficient in his line, and executes with good taste.

While an entertainment, purely concert, is not received by everyone with that enthusiasm which is characteristic of other grades of performances, it is nevertheless true that the Litta concert was well received, and the management are entitled to some degree of credit at least in trying to please a public so numerous in taste and opinion.

In this connection, it might be well to state, the manager of the Opera House desires to thank his patrons for the appreciation they made manifest on this occasion, and that at some future day he will give them something just as good if not better, if it be in his power.

RECEIVED HIS DISCHARGE.

John M. Henry, whose serious illness has already been announced, died this morning at 2 o'clock at his residence on Arndt street, aged 55 years. He was one of the oldest printers in the city, and for the past three years has been foreman of The Journal office. He leaves a wife and two children. Mr. Henry has resided in this city about 15 years, and formerly lived in Gowanda, Cataaugus county, N. Y. From that county he enlisted in Company I, of the 154th New York Regiment, being afterwards transferred to Company K. He was taken prisoner by the Rebels and confined for twenty months in the famous Libby prison, being there at the same time as Capt. Milton Ewen, of this city. Mr. Henry was one of those who assisted in digging the tunnel out of the prison carrying off the dirt on plates.

The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

AMUSEMENTS.

The following are the announcements for the Grand Opera House, with more to follow at an early day:

- Tuesday, May 1, Litta Grand Concert Company.
- Wednesday evening, May 2, Charlotte Thompson
- Thursday evening, May 3, Kiralfry's Black Crook.
- Saturday evening, May 5, M'le Miska the Russian beauty.

10 O'CLOCK THURSDAY AFTERNOON, WITH ENTERTAINMENT AT RIENZI.

The Oshkosh Northwestern says of the Black Crook, which has been played there two nights this week, "There was nothing bawdy, and no vulgarity of action according to the license granted in plays of this character."

The long anticipated Sawyer-Griffin wedding will occur this evening. About one hundred and fifty guests have been invited to the reception from 8 to 10 o'clock, but only a very few to witness the ceremony at 7 o'clock.

Capt. S. L. Brasted mailed his reports of the inspection of the Fond du Lac Guards to-day. Besides the muster roll sent to the adjutant general, a report of property on hand was sent to the quartermaster general.

Ready mixed paints of any shade can be had at The Huber Brothers at the lowest prices.

Louis Adams, the little son of Maj. Kelsey Adams, was knocked senseless at the First street school house, Tuesday. He was on top of the fence, and in attempting to step on to a post, missed his footing and fell. He was revived after an hour, and is now all right except a little lameness.

The saloon keepers are beginning to file their treasurer's receipts for license money with the city clerk. The licenses cannot be issued until the Council has approved each applicant's bond. As the old licenses expired on Monday, every saloon keeper in the city is selling liquor without a license.

About a dozen men are now employed on the new court house and considerable work is being done. The "skew bricks" or curved silling for the brick arches have arrived, after having been waited for several weeks. The iron stairways are also being put in.

The bill boards are being covered to-day with advertisements of M'le Miska, the celebrated Russian actress who will appear at the Grand Opera House next Saturday, as "Leone, the Crowned Child." This is the first American tour of this famous artiste, and she has won high encomiums all over the country.

The civil suit of Rose Clark against James E. Clark, for trespass, came up in Justice Brasted's court yesterday and was continued. The complainant sues her son for entering her premises and cutting down trees, while the defendant claims he is jointly in possession of the premises.

the city.

Special Co
EMPIRE
is done, a warm we
We hes
the failu
neglected
fall find
weather
Still ther rectly an friends.

At qua
last Sund
livered o
large an
Mrs. S. R
the singi
at the or

Dr. T
wishes to numerou
Hotel on urday, M
less a pe
ful pract
dox Qual

The ag
are gettin
ly severa
in this to

A few
planted
"Prof.
he will r

The w
Avenue
think it
he labors
peated th

Why is an explo
tending
meeting?

with dy
dimeanig
"Three
pair. Th
are three
same roo

Mrs. O
Nebraska

It is rej
of Eden,
the comi

Ice wa
freezing
flowers b

W. H.
his north
tract of v
uated tw
dolph, on a half n
county, V

per acre.
better th
Kansas di
pers. Mr

to their v