A quiet home wedding was celebrated, Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, when Miss Mary B. Clark was united in marriage to Benjamin H. Irvine of Bradford, Pa., at the home of the bride's mother on Washington street, the Rev. I. H. Crocker of the M. E. church officiating. Only the members of the immediate families were present. The bride and groom left on the midnight flyer for Bradford, where they will reside. Many good wishes go with them.

Franklin Hicks died at his home on East Main St., Saturday. Services were held at the M. E. church, Monday afternoon, the Rev. I. H. Crocker officiating. Burial in Jefferson St. cemetery. Mr. Hicks had been a resident of this town for some forty years. He served in the war of the rebellion, enlisting as a private, Co. G, 154th N. Y. Vols., Sept. 24, 1862, for three years. He leaves a wife and four children.

Michael Hallinen is now on duty at the depot as day operator, Mr. Brockaway being transferred to the night trick, while Peter Flynn goes to Great Valley. Bert Cohen, formerly the day operator, is now clerk to the agent, I. N. Bradt, the large amount of business transacted by the company at this point making necessary the employment of a clerk.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Ellicottville Water Co., yesterday, H. F. Northrup was elected president; W. D. Walrath, vice president; C. A. Case, treasurer; Miss Mabel Northrup, secretary; H. F. Northrup, superintendent. Grant Smith will be
