

P. H. Reynolds was called to New York city last week by the Coe-Mortimer Co by whom he is employed, and a large increase of salary and increased territory was given him. Mr. Reynolds owes his success in the fertilizer business to a car of this superior quality bought of this company in the spring of 1881, and now with great demand he is covering 15 counties in this state and part of two in Pennsylvania.

A motor car was put on the Rochester division between Salamanca and Silver Lake Junction last week, to take the place of trains 815 and 816, but was found inadequate to take care of the traffic and the regular train was restored this morning.

John A. Johnston, a Civil War veteran, died at his home in Sugartown Monday at the age of 84 years. He had been ill about two weeks with grip from which he was recovering when he had a stroke of paralysis. The funeral will be held today.

The Jolly Fifteen club was entertained last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. A. J. Johnson. A very pleasant time is reported by all. The next hostess will be Mrs. Frank Bratt, who will entertain on May 10th.

Mrs. Sophia Perach, aged 76, died at the home of her daughter Mrs. A. J. Banks on Monday. Prayer at the home at 10 o'clock Thursday, with funeral at the First church at about 1 o'clock.

George and his wife are having their new home on Myrtle street enlarged.

The children brought in $30.00 in their Easter tithing eggs, 28 having filled the eggs with 10 dimes each. Their window fund just passes $350. The young people will make their returns a week from Sunday.

The funeral of Ruth Fenton took place last Friday.

A requiem high Mass was offered on Tuesday for the Rev. Dr. Heiter.

The C. M. B. A. will meet this evening at 8:30.

A month's mind requiem will be sung tomorrow at 8 for Genevieve Switzer.

There will be confessions for the first Friday tomorrow evening after May devotions which are held every evening at 7:30.

The Sacred Heart society Mass will be offered on Friday at 8 and Holy Communion will be given before the Mass. There will be devotions and Benediction at 7:30 p. m.

An anniversary Requiem will be sung on Saturday at 9 for the deceased members of the Timothy Kelly family.

Catechism classes on Saturday at 2:30 p. m. and confessions after May devotions.

Next Sunday will be the feast of the Patronage of St. Joseph and the Masses will be at 8 and 10:30 o'clock.

It will be general Communion day for the Rosary society. All children old enough to make their first Holy Communion are expected to be at the high Mass. The lesson appointed is the Ten Commandments. Rosary procession and Benediction at 7:30 p. m.

The clock fund has passed $400 and the clock will be ordered this month.

May 3, 1911
Elliotville Post