 more than any other cause, continued to protract the war, give aid and comfort to the rebels, crimson the land with blood, scourge us with remorseless taxation, and drag the country to the verge of ruin.

How Burnside Commenced Business.
 Tribune Army Correspondence.

Gen. Burnside rode out to the front yesterday, and was cheered in the camps of his old corps, the Ninth. When his promotion to the head of the army was first learned in that corps, the troops gave the most extravagant manifestations of joy, cheering themselves hoarse, singing, building bonfires, and dancing around them.

A young officer in one of the Rhode Island Batteries, while at Fitz John Porter's headquarters yesterday, remarked, "after this we may as well give up and acknowledge the independence of the rebels."

Half an hour later he was surprised by a summons to Burnside's headquarters. He admitted he made the remark, but stated that he did so under excitement, and said more than he meant. "You have now an opportunity to retract it," said Burnside; "but if I were not personally acquainted with your antecedents and your loyalty, you would have been instantly dismissed. Neither you nor any other officer, high or low, can utter such sentiments and remain in this army."

The offender made a full retraction and apology, and the reprimand, which was administered in the presence of a large number of officers, evidently had a wholesome effect.

Swindling the Government.

It has been discovered that for the past fifteen months the most gigantic frauds have been going on in New York, by means of forged bills on the Subsistence Department in White street. The facts is the case are that Salomon Kohnstam, broker, and G. B.
 Tracey, broker, have been in the habit of purchasing bills on the Subsistence Department in that city for half, and sometimes one fourth their apparent value. Parties were employed to hunt up contractors who had subsisted men, and some of the latter were led to sign bills for subsisting one thousand men, where they had really provided only for one hundred. As many as fifty persons are implicated in these frauds, and quite a number of them are already in Custody.— Kohnstam and Tracey were arrested on Tuesday afternoon and taken to Fort Lafayette.
 One of the runners confesses to having sold $100,000 worth of these bills, and another acknowledges a still larger sum, a very great deal of which was false and fraudulent. It is supposed the whole amount will foot up not far from $1,000,000. It will be found on investigation that the Subsistence Department is not the only department of the Government where swindling has been carried on. There is more robbing going on through the Transportation Department than any other. Railroads are getting credit for carrying hundreds and thousands of soldiers who never pass over the Railroads. Citizens who have a curiosity to see the Capital are sent to Washington at the expense of the Government, disguised in blue overcoats almost every day. This system of cheating the Government is carried on very extensively. Let a stop be put to it.—Alb. Knick.

WET NURSE WANTED IMMEDIATELY—With a fresh breast of milk, not over three or four weeks old. Inquire at this office.—Buffalo Express.

Our fellow citizen A. GIBBS, Esq., upon his daily rounds at our office for the news, discovered the above note in the Express of Monday, and suggested if the parties would make application to him, he would furnish at sight!
 Every body knows Esq. GIBBS, and Buffalo once furnished him with a barrel of crackers and a huge cheese! He now proposes to reciprocate. Call on him Mr. Express, by all means!

THE REMOVAL OF McCLELLAN.—With regard to the removal of Gen. McClellan, it is asserted by the friends of the President that he was the last man to consent to the same—that it was recommended at first by Gen. Halleck, and agreed to by at least five members of the Cabinet, and finally by Mr. Lincoln.

THE PROCLAMATION ABROAD.—We are permitted to make the following extract from a letter from our Consul-General at Frankfort-on-the-Main, in Germany, to a high official of our City, dated the 21st ult:

"The Emancipation Proclamation gives very general satisfaction. It has increased the value of American securities held here, and likewise made us hosts of friends."

When we consider that Frankfort is the chief financial centre of Germany, as New York is of our own country, the importance of the fact above stated cannot be over-estimated.—N. Y. Times.
