

It have been success-
all the nameless hor-
in its path !
that Gov. SEYMOUR, ulair storm which he is decided, if necessary, ilitary strength of the b, and that Regiments less now on their way in putting an end to
in New York.
at News-army has escaped into e is entrenched between ransport, and a battle
the Army of the Potopected.
combined land and na-
the City of Charleston
uch an attack was made,
town,
place in Third Avenue,
Monday last, on the occa-
ing made to enforce the Marshal's Office and severe set on fire and con-ere destroyed, and the ely handled. Some five or killed by the mob. The ress up to the hour of 3
Washington.
Cattaraugus Freeman.
N. D. C., July 12, 1863.
TH N. Y. VOL.
news has been received 154th N. Y. Vol. On the uly 1, the 2nd Division [to longed] of the 11th corps,
, and probably did not pargement.
TH N. Y. VOL.
uly 2, the 64th N. Y. Vol.
bout the day, fighting with ted bravery. The loss in erces could not have been less of their entire number in ed ! Three officers were Henry V. Fuller [Little Val-
Lieut. Alfred H. Lewis,
ford], Co. D, and Lieut.
[Owego], Co. H. The
R. R. Crowley, [Ran-
ent and Adjutant James M.
Lieut. Meservy, Co. D,
Lieut. Lincoln, Co. H.
this regiment were killed
e details I have been unable naccountable reason no ished for publication. So

January, 1863, was commissioned, by Gov. Seymour, as Captain, with rank from December 30, 1862.
Colonel D. G. BINGHAM on the 1st of January, 1863 (three vacant captaincies existing in the 64th N. Y. V.) wrote to Governor Seymour recommending Lieut. FULLER's promotion as Captain, saying that, he was "a young man of good education and intelligence; has served as Lieutenant since the organization of the regiment; acting at different times as 2nd and 1st Lieut., and commandant of company, and Adjutant; and has been constantly with his regiment. He has been in all the battles in which his regiment has been engaged, viz: (besides the Siege of Yorktown) Fair-Oaks, Gains-Mill, Peach-Orchard, Savage's-Station, White-Oaks-Swamp, Malvern-Hill, Antietam, and Fredericksburg, besides several skirmishes; and has, in all, displayed a gallantry and intrepidity deserving reward. For these and other minor considerations, which I might detail, I hope your Excellency will favorably consider this application."
To the above generous testimonial, which does honor to Col. Bingham as a commander an honest man, Hon. R. E. FENTON, the distinguished Representative of the District (whence the regiment came) in Congress,—the soldier's constant counsellor and friend, and in whose career, conduct and advancement, he has ever evinced the most earnest solicitude and pride,—wrote Governor Seymour that, "I know young FULLER, and it affords me pleasure to say, he is an accomplished young man, and a most deserving officer. In the service for more than fifteen months, he has, by his devotion and gallant acts, fairly earned this additional honor; and I beg to join in the request that your Excellency confer upon him a Captain's Commission. I know of no young man in whose promotion I feel a deeper interest."
It is due for me to say that, both the foregoing recommendations were penned, and presented to Governor Seymour by another warm personal friend of young FULLER's, without his solicitation or knowledge. The case was so strongly and earnestly written and personally prosecuted, as to arrest the attention and enlist the favor of the Governor, that he promptly conferred the Captaincy. It is no impropriety, now, to add, that, soon after (a vacancy then supposed to exist) the Governor decided to further promote young FULLER to a Lieut. Colonelcy.
To the battles already named, in which Captain FULLER participated, with the heroically renowned 64th regiment, there is to be added the three days battles of Chancellorsville, just two months preceding the battle of Gettysburg. In all the battles and skirmishes named,

during followers:
"If you fight against your country's foes,
Your country's fat shall pay your pains the hire;
If you do fight in safeguard of your wives,
Your wives shall welcome home the conquerors;
If you do free your children from the sword,
Your children's children quit it in your age.
Then, in the name of God, and all these rights,
Advance your standards, draw your willing swords:
For me, the ransom of my bold attempt
Shall be this cold corpse on the earth's cold face!"
JOHN MANLEY
Washington, D. C., July 10, 1863.
The 64th N. Y. at Gettysburg.
Correspondence of the Cattaraugus Freeman.
VERSAILLES, July 13, 1863.
While we mourn with those who mourn for the gallant dead of the 64th New York, and sympathize with the wounded in its half a score of battles, we feel that it is our duty to honor the courage and extol the bravery of this Regiment; therefore, in the name of the loyal men of Cattaraugus, we exultingly proclaim—
"Well done, thou good and faithful servants!"
The men of the 64th won laurels at Fair Oaks, and in the memorable Seven Days' Fight before Richmond; again at Antietam; again at Fredericksburg under Burnside; and still again at Fredericksburg under Hooker; and now at Gettysburgh they have placed a halo of glory about their laurels. It belongs to the famous Third Corps, which has never flinched although usually placed where hard fighting is expected.
Lieut. J. M. Pettit, of Versailles, the Adjutant of the Regiment, having returned home badly wounded, furnishes us with a partial list of the killed and wounded at Gettysburgh:
Col. Bingham and Major Bradly slightly wounded; Capt. Fuller and Lieuts. Babcock and Lewis killed; Capt. Crowley and Lieuts. Meseway, Lincoln, Soule and Pettit wounded; Corp. H. Darby and Cayton Gardner, of Co. A, killed; Serg't Darby, leg broke; Serg't Savage, right arm lost; Smith Reggles, severe; Boardsway, slightly wounded. Ad't Pettit's wound is a severe one, a minnie ball striking his neck near the spinal bone, passing behind the artery and along the left lower jaw came out at the cheek. The 64th went into the battle at Gettysburgh with 20 officers and 185 men, and came out with 10 officers and 84 men; the balance were killed or wounded—not one missing! At one time Gen. Lee massed 6000 men, determined to break General Meade's line of battle, and hurled that mass against the 3d Corps. Like a rock they resisted that attack. Gen. Meade ordered the 2d Corps to relieve the 3d. The 2d, by a military movement, allowed the 3d to pass through, and without stopping after they received Gen. Meade's order, advanced upon the enemy and drove them half a mile. With shot, shell and bayonet they drove the living rebels, while to call on A. B. RICE, Esq., proprietor of the Atlantic House. He sets an excellent table, will provide clean and comfortable beds, and always keeps his barn well supplied with hay and grain. See his advertisement in another column.

To LIQUOR DEALERS.—Hotel, saloon and grocery keepers, druggists, and all others who buy liquors to sell or for private use, are hereby referred to the card of Messrs. SWIFT & LINKS, 142 and 144 East Main Street, Buffalo. They are fast establishing a reputation for fair and liberal dealing, and their wines and liquors will, in all cases, be found to be just as they are recommended. Give them a call, or forward your orders.
No more puny children, decayed teeth, or yellow bread, if you will use HERRICK ALLEN'S Gold Medal Saleratus. There is nothing equal to it. It is far superior to soda with cream tartar. Bread or biscuit raised by it is more easily digested than by any other. Try one paper, and you will not fail to use it ever after. Have the Gold Medal or none.—Grocers and Druggists keep it.
For sale by L. A. Root, Ellicottville, and EAMES & Co., Little Valley.
PERSONAL.—Col. P. H. JONES, of the 154th New York, who was severely wounded in the hip at the battle of Chancellorsville, arrived in this village on Friday evening last.—We are glad to state that he has nearly recovered from the effects of his wound, and appears to be in excellent health and spirits. He authorizes us to contradict the story of his intended resignation, and says that he entertains no such purpose. He is much attached to the gallant Regiment which he commands, and his men regard him as a brave and accomplished officer.
A very large audience assembled at the Court House on Friday evening last to listen to the Rey. HIRAM EDDY, with whose long imprisonment at the South our readers are already familiar. His vivid sketches of Southern life and character, his account of the sufferings and deprivations of himself and companions, his denunciations of the system and evils of Slavery, and his eloquent vindication of the Government in its efforts to crush the Rebellion, all combined to make one of the most thrillingly interesting addresses to which we ever had the pleasure of listening. Mr. Eddy is a giant both in intellect and stature, and as an orator has but few equals in the country.
GONE BACK.—Our young friend Lieut. SILAS HUNTLEY, late of Company I, 37th New York, has accepted the position of Quartermaster of that Regiment which is now being re-

July 16, 1863

Respectfully Yours,
$1,000--WANTED an ac-
honest man in each cty in the State, to take orders by samples, for Chapm-Celebrated Perfumery and Toilet Articles.
To suitable Agents a salary of $500 per year as commission equal to $500 more will be guaranteed
For terms and samples of goods, address
THOS. F. CHAPMAN,
Chemist and Druggist,
831 Broadway, New York

The Great French Remedy !
MADAM BOIVIN'S CELEBRATED SILVER-CO-ED FEMALE PILLS.
The only certain and Safe Remedy for all Uterine structions, Monthly Difficulties Irregularities, and all other diseases to which the Woman, Wife and Mois peculiarly liable.
These Pills contain no deleterious ingredients, are safe and certain in their action. They will be f-to exert the happiest effect in all cases of Prolapsus U-in Leucorrhoea, or the Whites; they will be found easiest and most certain Cure that can be found.
on account of this certainty they should not be tr-by Pregnant Females (during the first three monthmiscariage is c-tain,) to be brought on, but as o-periods their use is perfectly safe.
N. B.—One Dollar enclosed to any authorized A-will ensure package of Pills by return of mail,
O. CROSBY, General Agent,
Fort Erie, C. W., Buffalo, N.
CAUTION.—Beware of Counterfeits, the genuine the signature of C. CROSBY, on the outside wrap-
For sale by all respectable Druggists.

The Confessions and Experience of Invalid.
Published for the benefit and as a warning and a tion to young men who suffer from Nervous Deb-Premature Decay, &c.; supplying at the same time means of Self-Cure. By one who has cured himsel-er being put to great expense through medical in-sation and quackery. By enclosing a post-paid addressed envelope, SINGLE COPIES may be had of the au-NATHANIEL MAYFAIR, Esq., Bedford, Kings
N. Y.

THE CONFESION AND EXPERIENCE
A NERVOUS YOUNG MAN.—Published as a ing and for the especial benefit of young men, and who suffer with NERVOUS DEBILITY, LOSS OF ME-PREMATURE DECAY, &c., &c., by one who has himself by simple means, after being put to gre-pense and inconvenience, through the use of wormedicine as prescribed by learned Doctors. Single may be had (free) of the author, C. A. LAMBERT Greenpoint Long Island, by enclosing an address
velope. Address CHARLES A. LAMBERT, G POINT, LONG ISLAND, New York.

FACTS FOR SOLDIERS.—Throughout the India Crimean Campaigns, the only medicines which themselves able to cure the worst cases of Dys-
Scurvy and Fever, were HOLLOWAY'S PILLS OINTMENT. Therefore let every Volunteer whe is supplied with them. Only 25 cents per pot

DIED: