

HILL, GEORGE, Sergeant, Co. G, 64th Ohio Volunteers. Chattanooga, November 25th, 1863. Musket ball entered left eye, destroying it, and emerged on right side of face, near angle of jaw, fracturing the superior maxilla. Vision of right eye impaired. Cumberland hospital. Discharged August 17th, 1864, and pensioned.

LSLEY, NATHANIEL, Private, Co. I, 35th Massachusetts, aged 27 years. Cold Harbor, June 5th, 1864. Fracture of frontal bone and loss of left eye. Field, Washington, and Portsmouth hospitals. Secondary hæmorrhage. Returned to duty October 13th, 1864; discharged June 9th, 1865, and pensioned.

Jesse, T. S., Private, Co. A, 29th Virginia Regiment. Fracture of spine of scapula and orbital process of frontal bone, right side; right eye involved. Richmond hospital; no result recorded.

JOHNSON, JOHN, Private, Co. H, 49th Ohio Volunteers, aged 19 years. Buzzard Roost, May 9th, 1864. Fracture of left temporal and destruction of left eye. Field, Louisville, Camp Dennison, and Columbus hospitals. Right eye impaired; vertigo. Discharged June 2d, 1865, and pensioned.

JONES, EDWIN R., Private, Co. E, 7th Illinois Volunteers, aged 23 years. Allatoona, October 5th, 1864. Fracture of outer edge of right supra-orbital ridge, with loss of eye, by conoidal ball. Field, Nashville, Jeffersonville, and Springfield hospitals. Removal of fragments. Returned to duty February 28th, 1865; discharged May 13th, 1865, and pensioned.

JOYCE, PATRICK, Private, Co. A., 115th New York Volunteers, aged 25 years. Petersburg, June 29th, 1865. Fracture of frontal bone at left orbital ridge, with loss of left eye. Field, Point Lookout, and Washington hospitals. Transferred to Veteran Reserve Corps February 25th, 1865; discharged June 28th, 1865, and pensioned.

Jacobs, John W., Private, Co. F, 54th North Carolina Regiment, aged 30 years. Gunshot wound of face. Missile destroyed the right eye and passed out at the angle of the superior maxilla, fracturing the bone. Fisher's Hill, Virginia, September 22d, 1864. Examined, to be retired, March 14th, 1865.

Jones, John, Private, Co. B, 3d South Carolina Battery. Missile entered the superior maxillary of left side about one and a half inches in front of the ear and passed out just back of the outer angle of right eye, destroying the globe of the right and the sight of the left eye. South Mountain, Maryland, September 14th, 1862. Loss of sensation in left cheek; difficulty in opening mouth. The pupil of left eye contracted and not sensible to light. Returned to duty December 13th, 1862.

KENYON, PARIS, Private, Co. B, 105th Illinois Volunteers. Atlanta, August, 1864. Fracture of left supra-orbital ridge and nasal bones; eye destroyed. Field hospital. Died August 16th, 1864.

KENYON, ELIAS W., Private, Co. A, 154th New York Volunteers, aged 34 years. Pine Knob, June 15th, 1864. Fracture of frontal bone and destruction of right eye. Field, Nashville, and Louisville hospitals. Vision of left eye impaired. Discharged December 28th, 1864, and pensioned.

KERR, MICHAEL, Private, Co. D, 7th Rhode Island Volunteers. Fredericksburg, December 13th, 1862. Fracture of frontal bone, with loss of left eye. Field and Washington hospitals. Vision of right eye very imperfect. Discharged from service February 5th, 1863, and pensioned.

KILES, JACOB B., Private, Co. F, 110th Ohio Volunteers, aged 20 years. Cold Harbor, June 3d, 1864. Loss of left eye. Field, Washington, York, and Philadelphia hospitals. Discharged June 14th, 1865, and pensioned.

KIMBERLIN, JOHN, Private, Co. E, 9th Illinois Volunteers, aged 20 years. Fort Donelson, February 15th, 1862. Loss of left eye. Cincinnati hospital. Discharged August 14th, 1862, and pensioned.

KUHN, OLIVER, Private, Co. L, 198th Pennsylvania Volunteers, aged 19 years. Hatcher's Run, March 29th, 1865. Fracture of portions of malar and sphenoid bones and destruction of right eye. Field, Washington, and Philadelphia hospitals. Discharged June 28th, 1865, and pensioned.

Killingsworth, P. D., Private, Co. I, 51st Georgia Regiment. Gunshot wound of face. Missile destroyed the right eye and fractured upper and lower jaw. Chancellorsville, Virginia, May 3d, 1863. Retired from service April, 1865. Can open the mouth but little and is unable to masticate.

KENYON, DAVID, Private, Co. C, 3d Maryland Volunteers. Gunshot wound of left side of face. Destruction of left eye and fracture of left superior maxillary bone. Antietam, Maryland, September 17th, 1862. Discharged April 16th, 1863, and pensioned.

KEMP, CHARLES, Private, Co. B, 11th Connecticut Volunteers. Gunshot fracture of superior malar bone; left eye destroyed. Antietam, Maryland, September 17th, 1862. Discharged February 6th, 1863. Sense of smell destroyed. He is a pensioner.

LEMON, MOSES W., Lieutenant, Co. I, 14th New York Heavy Artillery, aged 34 years. Washington, March 1st, 1865. Fracture of temporal bone with loss of left eye. Washington hospital. Discharged May 6th, 1865, and pensioned.

LINDSAY, JOSEPH, Private, Co. C, 72d Pennsylvania Volunteers, aged 27 years. Malvern Hill, July 1st, 1862. Fracture of temporal and loss of right eye. Baltimore hospital. Discharged November 16th, 1862, and pensioned.

LYNDE, JAMES H., Lieutenant, Co. I, 14th New York Heavy Artillery. Fort Steadman, February 25th, 1865. Fracture of frontal bone, with loss of right eye. Field and City Point hospitals. Discharged August 26th, 1865, and pensioned.

LEWIS, H. B., Private, Co. A, 121st New York Volunteers, aged 18 years. Gunshot wound of face, with loss of right eye. Ball entered middle of right eyebrow and exit through mouth. Chancellorsville, Virginia, May 3d, 1863. Returned to duty September 9th, 1863. Discharged and pensioned.

LOMAS, WILLIAM, Private, Co. H, 2d Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery, aged 30 years. Gunshot wound of face, left eye destroyed. Petersburg, Virginia, June 18th, 1864. Removal of several spiculæ of bone. The lower eyelid is drawn to a V shape and attached to the malar bone. Discharged May 16th, 1865. Not a pensioner.