JAMES HENRY BAILEY

Died at His Home in Breckenridge Last Monday Morning.

4/21/05 AR PG 1

James H. Bailey died at his home in Breckenridge about five o'clock Monday morning, April 11, after a brief illness, of less than a week, from a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Bailey was born in Hillsdale county, Michigan, April 1, 1840, and was married to Miss Melissa Cunningham, June 30, 1861.

In 1878 he moved his family to Gratiot county and for several years was fireman in the different mills, having worked in Peterman's mill, the Breckenridge grist mill and the planing mill, afterwards moving to Alma. Last fall he returned to Breckenridge and built a beautiful home in the south part of town.

To this union nine children were born, of whom seven survive him: Loren A. Bailey, Fred G. Bailey, Mrs. Hattie E. Becker, of Alma; Mrs. May M. Moore, Lon J. Bailey and Lena M. Bailey, of Alma, and Nora, all except Mrs. Becker and Miss Rena living in or near Breckenridge. Besides these he is survived by his wife and eleven grand-children also three brothers, Edwin, of Pittsford Michigan; Loren B., of Toledo, Ohio and Ely, of Hillsdale, who has been here a few days to assist in caring for him.

The funeral was held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Brent Harding officiating. Burial in Breckenridge cemetery.
