

H. Brooks, a topographical artist, residing in the Rooms recently fitted up by JOHNSON, is now prepared to furnish Cartes de Visites, &c., executed in a manner not to be excelled in Western New York. Mr. B.'s skill as an Artist cannot be questioned, as a look at his specimens will show. His Gallery, which is one of the most complete to be found in the country, will amply repay the visitor for a call. Mr. B. has located here permanently, and deserves the patronage of all. See his advertisement in another column.

DRAFTED.—The freaks of the draft were curious in Pennsylvania. All the males in some families were drawn. An Ex-County Judge (Hon. Sheldon Marvin) obtained a prize, and in Girard, Doct. Jas. L. Thayer, the popular clown of Thayer, Noyes & Co.'s Circus, was also fortunate (!) enough to obtain a prize.—Mr. Fayette Clarke, son of the late Staley N. Clarke, of this village, was honored with the same flattering compliment! Mr. Clarke, we understand, has succeeded in obtaining a substitute—price, $100. Cheap. Dr. Jim Thayer has also obtained a substitute—price, $350.—Offers for substitutes ranged from $100 to $1000, but takers were scarce. Look out for breakers and rebel bayonets, boys!

UNADULTERATED MEANNESS.—A short time ago we published the marriage of Capt. JACK NELSON, of the 154th Regiment, which took place a few days previous to his departure. We have since been informed by a relative of Capt. NELSON that he (the Captain,) handed to Deacon _____ $2, and requested him to furnish the Union and Freeman offices with a notice of his marriage, and at the same time give each of them a dollar. This sanctimonious "Deacon" done neither, but pocketed the $2, and it was by mere accident that the notice appeared in our columns at all. The man who will evade a soldier who is abroad fighting for our country—and upon such an occasion, too—would hurl a Jeff. Davis, would pick the spears of dead soldiers upon the battle field, and then, though not least, would slander his own Mother. Pass on, "DEACON," you are welcome to your dollar; you can consider it cancelled, and return this as a receipt, to show that the same dollar has been returned.

Wool, Gaiter, Button and Cash wanted on order at the Union Office.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Board of Supervisors of the County of Cattaraugus, at its annual meeting in November next, to erect a new Town out of parts of the Towns of Great Valley and Carrollton, such new Town to comprise all that portion of the said Town as known as township number two, sixth range in the Holland Land Company's survey, and to be bounded North by Township number three, and South by Township number one. Dated Sept. 10, 1862.
