

Local and Miscellaneous.

ELLICOTTVILLE, FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1863.

EDITOR CATTARAUGUS UNION.—The estimable and benevolent lady to whom the following lines are addressed is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and also of the St. Louis Home Mission. Her name, as ordinarily written, comprises just fourteen letters, and the same number of lines in the poetic legitimate length of a Sonnet. I address this one to her. A critical reader, if at all acquainted with the self-imposed Christian duties of a Home Missionary, will at once appreciate its full meaning. It may lack elegance of expression and the true polish of poetry, but it at least has the merit of being inspired by truthful sentiment and grateful feeling:—

SONNET.—TO MRS. —

Faithfully still thy self set task pursuing—
Relieving body's sickness, mind's distress,
And sadden'd souls with scripture truths imbuing,
Nor shunning where such souls thou canst improve—
Causing them Hope with Faith, and good works doing:
Ever in quest of gospel holiness,
So dost thou garner treasures up in Heaven,
Fiducia! thy sweet baptismal name
Most justly at the font to thee was given.
As in thy daily walks thou prove'st to fame,
Lady, I pray that thou may'st long pursue
Thy mission marked with loving kindness true—
Blessing thyself, whilst blessing others, too,
Yielding at last thy Heaven-harvest due.
St. Louis, Mo., March 10th, 1863. L. F. T.

LIGHT! LIGHT! LIGHT!—Read the advertisement of TISDEL & NASH, in another column.

RESIGNED.—Capt. JACK. NELSON, of the 154th Regiment, arrived home a few days ago, having resigned his position.

SOUTHERN HOTEL.—In another column will be found the Card of this popular Hotel, which has recently changed landlords. Those visiting Buffalo cannot find a more convenient and comfortable stopping-place.

THE OLD "LORILLARD" TOBACCO ESTABLISHMENT.—We invite the attention of the public to the advertisement of PETER LORILLARD which will be found in another column. This establishment is as ancient as "the weed" itself, and needs no other notice than the more announcement that it "still lives."

DEFICIENCY IN CATTARAUGUS.—By a statement read in debate in the Senate a few days ago, on the bill to promote re-enlistment of volunteers in the service of the United States,

Gov. Parker, of New Jersey.

While the bill to provide for a loan of one million dollars for the defence of New Jersey was under discussion in the Senate, Mr. Randolph, a leading Democrat, spoke as follows:

"He said the present bill was but a supplement to an existing law, under which Gov. Olden worked. If necessity existed then for such an amount, it surely does now that the exigencies are greater. It is enough to say, however, that without the passage of this supplement, we are in danger of having the State without funds before we meet again.

If there be any idea that any portion of this money is intended to do aught else than assist the State in maintaining the power of the General Government, in the future as in the past, let that idea be dispelled. The present worthy incumbent of the gubernatorial chair means not only to sustain the General Government, but to put down all appeal to other than legal means for real or imaginary evils. We proclaim ourselves a law-abiding people. Upon that idea the present party came into power, and upon it they expect to retain their supremacy. Our courts are open, and will redress grievances—our ballot-boxes are our remedy, and they will prove effective. Let no man dream of any purpose on the part of the Executive of this State—or of any true patriot—to seek remedies outside of the law. As long as laws are upon the statute book, or those of the General Government exist, they must be obeyed. This is the only true course; the only one to safety and Union. We must stand by the Constitution and the laws, and they will stand by us—of whatever faith.

Mr. Buckley said he would cheerfully vote for the bill, after the statements made by Mr. Randolph, believing the Governor should be provided with means for sustaining our volunteers. Although differing politically with the present Governor, he had unbounded confidence that he (the Governor) would do no act to disgrace himself or the State over which he presides, and he should with pleasure record his vote in favor of providing the Executive with the amount named in the bill, that he might not be embarrassed in providing for our volunteers. The bill was then passed—18 to 9.

Small Pox has already sacrificed some of our best and bravest troops. Consult, listen to the voice of reason, supply yourselves with HOLLOWAY'S PILES & OINTMENT. The pills purify the blood and strengthen the stomach, while the ointment removes all pain and prevents pit marks. Only 25 cents per box or pot. —$31

IRVINE HALL.

ELLICOTTVILLE, CATT. CO., N. Y.

"Earl

W. A.

NEW

FC

Win

"Fal

ELI

Are just r

of Goo

STAP

OR

H

Croch

Rea

H