

ys the Louisville Jour-MAN'S army is invincible. ousand Fourth-of-July ington were barding in

Post's South Carolina attack on Charleston diately, yet it will not be sa preparations are being r success certain.
h, Gov. JOHNSON, of Ten-ms of the officers in com-hich should have released not above suspicion. (A Gen. BULL. "I'll won't utradict," said Gov. J.

ton correspondents of the ossible for the following:
ALL PATIENTS TO THE CON-ges of the Small Pox in the Contraband Camp are f deaths. These are from
y. Medical Attendance is be obtained. The poor left comfortable homes to edom are dying like rotten perfectly fed, and destitute most of every necessity of y to escape the horrors of steal away from their quar-loathsome disease in every he city. The Small Pox for white patients is even crowded in two small rooms y, in the midst of a morass, and one female attendant

ALLAN STRANDED?—Because and I money opined in the ny came in special request ount of its position and was oney, as all the inhabitants called Nesterlings; and soon eople skilled in coinage were to bring the coin to perfeccalled a string from easth of their deaths to Colds.— the disease may appear to be may be traced to suppressed cold. It appears as long vomproducts of colds. In short, of the fingers of half the dis-annuality for as they are con-spiration, and as five-eighths er of the body escapes thro-pores are closed, that pros necessarily follows. Keep Colds and Coughs, the great case, or if contracted break tely, by a steady use of And-roide's Balm. Sold by all ts, and a six-penny bottle.

[roy. Nails have advanced ket, and from five dollars per rt of the market, and the h of the market, and the

So, not for the Union ye bachelors!

BUSINESS CHANGE—FARMER'S EXCHANGE.
—This establishment has undergone a "radical" change quite recently—Mr. KNIGHT, having disposed of his interest to Mr. BOSWORTH, going out. Our young friend CHARLEY GIRBS, who has heretofore presided over the 'calico department,' is also out, having been superceded by Mr. FRED FULLER, an obliging and gentlemanly young man, who understands his 'biz.'— Bosworth asserts—and we think truly, too—that they are now a full team, with a dog to boot, and that when "FRED'S" popularity becomes known the 'Exchange' will be 'Fuller' of customers than ever.

FUNNY.—When Capt. NELSON, of the 15th, came home on a furlough a couple of weeks since, he brought with him a young contraband, and left him at his father's, in Great Valley. But Cattaragus winters proved too congealing to his Southern blood: so one night this week he was missing. He was seen, however, at the Railroad station by one who knew him, who asked the negro where he was bound?
"Goin' down to do 'Federacy," said he, "to hire out, I guess, to Stone's Jackson." He thought Stone's Jackson next to Jeff. Davis; and both of them he manifested a good deal of respect for. So he has gone, refusing to accept of the freedom and ease proffered to him by the government. He couldn't see it!—Cult. Repub.

Since the above was put in type, we understand that the young contraband has been bro't back to camp, and is now enjoying the hospitality of our friend W. J. NELSON.

A SAD AFFAIR.—We have been informed of a sad affair which transpired a short time ago, in Oregon, between HORACE HOWE, formerly of Little Valley, and a Land Agent.
The particulars, as we understand them, are these: A difficulty occurred between Mr. Howe and a Land Agent, the latter accusing the former of setting fire to the prairie. During the altercation, the Land Agent drew a pistol and shot Mr. H. through the lungs, the wound, however, not being fatal, as at last accounts he was in a fair way of recovery. Subsequent to this, Horace Howe, Jr., exasperated and frantic beyond self-control, at the shooting of his father, called upon the said Land Agent and requested a private interview, which was granted. While the parties were alone, young Howe drew a pistol and shot the Land Agent dead.
Young Howe is now confined in prison, awaiting the result of this sad occurrence.

Mr. Howe was for many years a prominent resident of Little Valley, and has many warm predicted on the 10th of his death time."

AWKWARD FOR BLAIR.—About 1,200 fraudulent votes for Frank P. Blair have been discovered at St. Louis; and his majority being only 153, the result leaves him far in the rear, and affords a good "look" for his competitor for the Congressional seat, Mr. Knox.

A VERY SENSIBLE PROCEEDING.—General HAYNAU, the woman-whipper, whose name is wedded with undying infamy for his atrocitie during the Hungarian revolution, and who was treated to such a splendid castigation, in London, by Barclay & Perkins' brewers, recently shot himself dead at Cassel.

SIMON STEVENS, Fremont's gun speculato friend, who at first refused to inform the V Week Investigating Committee, in New Yor the amount of money received by himself an company for storage of goods in bonded war-houses during the last year, has at last yielded on compulsion, and stated that the amount profits received were $60,000.

DAY.—Some of the mercantile firms, says a Y. paper, are inquiring how, in the future, th country is to make her exchanges and pay h foreign debts, if the world, while we are settl our domestic troubles, succeeds in supplyi itself with cotton?

MR. COX, in the House of Rep entatives the other day, "Repeat the confision act, the emancipation proclamation, other unconstitutional measures—withdraw negro entirely—and a conscription bill will be necessary to reinvigorate the country."

In fact, the volunteers poured into the h of the government faster than it could h them. The volunteers were more eager serve than the government to accept the Yet it is such a people that are to be subje to a forcible conscription.

A BRIGADE OF HONOR.—Gen. Rosecrans h sued an order, with the approval of the Wa partment, creating a Brigade of Honor in th partment of the Cumberland. Three men each company of every regiment in active s in his army are to be selected by the men of own companies, making thirty men from eac iment, with one captain and one Lieutenant. qualifications necessary to insure a place i Brigade of Honor, are bodily strength, acti daring spirit—willing at all times to take in his hand and meet an emergency—one w always, heretofore, obeyed orders and been most in the strife of battle. These men, aft ing been detached by their own companies, be put into a brigade and elect their own off They are to be mounted on the best and horses in the service, and armed with revol