CLARENCE E. PETTENGILL - of Jefferson street, Olean, who was seriously injured December 2nd (1919), at the plant of the England Walton Company, died at the clinic hospital at 8:20 P.M.

He was born October 30th, 1881, in Ischua and lived on the homestead farm, buying cattle as his main occupation, until two years ago when he moved to Olean. But for the past year, he had been much interested in the oil fields and worked in nearby towns for the Appalachian Oil Company.

Through all his intense suffering, he was very patient and tried to keep up high spirits for the family's sake.

He was a member of the F. and A. M. of Franklinville.

Mr. Pettengill was married September 3rd, 1906, to Ethel R. Wildrick, who survives, as also do two children, Ralph E., age ten, and Maxine, age seven; his mother, Mary (Chamberlin) Pettengill; one brother, Willis O. Pettengill of Ischua; two sisters, Mrs. Eugene E. (Nora) Bacon of Olean, and Mrs. J. B. (Edna) Button of Croghan, N.Y.

The remains were taken on the 2:58 train to Franklinville, where they were laid to rest at Mt. Prospect cemetery.

The F. and A.M. had charge of the services at the grave. The bearers were Roy Barton, George Markham, E. M. Jackle, Howard Jackle, Herman Stanbough and Dr. E. H. Ackerman.

(Ralph E. Pettengill (b.1909-d.1966) married, first, Helen Stipple (b.1911 or 12-d.1933); second, Dorothy Witheral; third, Grace Hinkle, who died in 1967.

He had two children by Helen Stipple: Rita Pettengill, who married Robert Brennan, and Ralph.

Maxine Pettengill married Ralph Lewis.)

MRS. MATTIE PETTENGILL - forty-three years old, wife of Willis O. Pettengill and eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Morgan of Ischua, died Tuesday (September 21st, 1926) at nine-ten o'clock at her home, following a long illness.

She was born in this village (Ischua) and had lived here her entire life. She was married to Willis O. Pettengill on April 25th, 1908.

She is survived by two children: Stella and Oakley Pettengill of this village; two sisters, Mrs. Ira (Maria) Shipman and Mrs. Rufus (May) Swift of Abbots; and two brothers, Harry Morgan of Ischua and William Morgan of Canandaigua.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock at the home. The Rev. E. E. Evans, pastor of the First Baptist church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Maplehurst Cemetery.

She was a member of the First Baptist church of this village and also of the Ladies' Aid Society.

(Stella Blanche Pettengill married Dr. Alton W. Bottoms, a dentist, of Canton, N.C., and has two children: Alton Bruce and John Willis Bottoms.

Oakley Willis Pettengill married Sally Lewis Squire, a daughter of Daniel H., Jr. and Elizabeth Storck Blakeslee Squire of Franklinville, N.Y., and has three children: David Willis, Sue, and Roger Lewis Pettengill.

Willis O. Pettengill married, second, Grace Chamberlin, the widow of Charles W. Chamberlin of Ischua.)
