A NOTABLE PROCLAMATION.—In our columns to-day, that sparkling pleasure to all eyes, the elegant and entertaining New York Mercury, proclaims its intentions for the New Year of 1863. It is a charming "guide, philosopher and friend" for everybody, and enables the mind.

"Formed by its own converse, happily to steer
From grave to gay, from lively to severe."

To do without the Mercury for a week would be like missing the face you love best for a year, and its army of subscribers for '63 is likely to outnumber that of the Union.

RETURNED HOME.—Amos Pettit, formerly Sattler of the 154th, has returned from his recent visit to Washington, where he went in search of his horses, and other property, which he had reason to believe had been put out of his reach, in a very mysterious manner, the particulars of which we gave two weeks ago. His recent investigation of this affair resulted in the finding of one of the horses, harness, and some other property. The whereabouts of Metcalf he could not learn, as he had traded off nearly everything, and skedaddled for parts unknown.

"Breaths there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said"

Wonder if it isn't about time I payed up for my paper? We hope not! If any of the Union's subscribers, who are in arrears, have asked themselves the question we hope they will answer, "Y—s— it is time I paid!" and act accordingly. Next week being Court week, presents a good opportunity for those living at a distance to send by their neighbors. We especially commend the first few lines of this paragraph to those subscribers who reside in the Western States—of which we have a large number. We want our pay from you Western "chaps," but the distance is too great for us to go after it. We rely solely upon your honor! Who will be the first to respond? We shall see!

The Boarders of the Western Hotel, Cortlandt street, presented, on New Year's Day, Mr. John R. Bowdler, the merchant's chief clerk, with a costly gold watch and chain, with an accompanying testimonial, handsomely framed, expressing their good wishes and appreciation of his services. New York Paper.

We are glad to notice the above mark of confidence and esteem manifested on the part of the guests of the Western towards a competent and faithful clerk. Mr. Bowdler has been connected with the Western many years, and by his gentlemanly deportment and obliging manners gained the good will not only of his employers, the Board, and the proprietors, but all those who have had occasion to carry at the Western. John Bowdler has received this mark of their esteem, and we are glad it was so gracefully bestowed.

pushing this matter upon the attention of Congress, and some definite plan will be submitted at an early day.

A NEW WAY TO SUPPRESS THE REBELLION.—Put Lincoln in as President of the Southern Confederacy, and it would finish the rebellion in thirty days.
