August 15, 1902

Salamanca newspaper

JOSEPH PRICE

Aged Steamburg Veteran Passed Away on Monday.

Joseph Price, a retired farmer and one of the leading citizens of the town of Coldspring, died at his home in Steamburg on Monday, aged 77 years. The deceased was the son of Samuel and Elizabeth Cheney Price and was born in the town of Coldspring where practically his entire life was passed. Death was due to a general breaking down of the vital forces. He is survived by a wife, one daughter, Mrs. Armanda Crooks of Corydon, Pa., and one son, Elmer Price of New Castle, Pa. Mr. Price was a veteran of the civil war, a man who took an intelligent interest in public affairs and one who was most highly esteemed in the community in which he lived.

The funeral was held at 3 p.m. Wednesday. Rev. Thomas Berry of

The funeral was held at 3 p.m. Wednesday, Rev. Thomas Berry of Jamestown officiating. Burial was made in the Steamburg cemetery.