

Cattaraugus Times, Sept. 23, 1920, courtesy of Judith (Rich) Lander, Chappaque, N.Y.
Justus Rich died September 20, 1920

the state.
Mr. Lovenguth gave a very impressive talk to all students and teachers last Monday on the appreciation of the beautiful new school building and placed the care and responsibility on each one present and concluded his talk with the slogan. "Each one help keep the new building beautiful."

There were 36 boys between the ages of 16 and 18 in this school district registered yesterday for Military Training as prescribed by the State Military Training Commission.

JUSTUS T. RICH

Justus T. Rich, one of Cattaraugus oldest citizens, died last Monday night in the Soldiers' hospital at Bath, N. Y. He had been in Bath but a few days when he was taken sick and removed to the hospital. Since the death of his wife nine years ago Mr. Rich made his home with his daughter, Mrs. C. Herbert Rich. He was born in Cattaraugus and always had his home in this village. He served as a soldier in the Civil War as a member of the 154th regiment N. Y. Volunteers and had many stories to relate of his experiences in his country's services. Soon after the close of the war he was married to Miss Henrietta Bullock. Of this union there survives two daughters. Mrs. Cora Fuller and Mrs. Essie Rich. One brother, Joshua Rich, also survives.

Funeral services in charge of his pastor, Rev. J. Brent Cook, assisted by Rev. James Bain were held in the Methodist church Thursday at 2 P. M. and interment took place in Liberty Park Cemetery, the local members of the G. A. R. officiating at the grave. Representatives of the Local Legion acted as escorts to the G. A. R., thus paying their tribute of respect with a large number of friends and neighbors to the departed.

MISS IRENE HERZOG

Miss Irene Herzog died at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. Herzog in this place Wednesday morning after an illness extending over five months during which time she was a great, although patient sufferer. Everything that could be done for her was done but it seemed a hopeless fight from the first when she returned home from her work in Akron, Ohio.

Miss Herzog was twenty-three be invited to pay their annual dues, and new members will join, it is hoped, for it is a privilege to belong to this organization either in war or peace time. Every good citizen of the United States should uphold the Red Cross by being, or becoming at once, a member.

EVAPORATOR TO OPEN HERE THE FIRST OF MONTH

Albee and Gilbert, proprietors of the Cattaraugus Evaporator will begin operations about October 1st. The building and machinery is being put in shape for the work. They will buy apples for cider, picked apples and also in bulk for evaporating. Several men and women will be employed. While the outlook for very attractive prices for apples is not the best, they hope for a successful season.

RECEPTION FOR PASTOR AND HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY

A reception will be given Rev. J. Brent Cook and the High School Faculty Tuesday evening, Sept. 28, at 8:30 at the M. E. Church parlors.

A cordial invitation is extended to all.

NESTLE'S FOOD CO. TO HOLD MEETING

The Nestle's Food Co. request a meeting of all their patrons, Saturday September 25, at 2:00 p. m. in Grange Hall, Cattaraugus, N. Y. Officials of the Nestle's Co. will be present.

W. F. Andrews Has Been Nominated for State Senate
W. F. Andrews, formerly of Cattaraugus, now of Bennington County, Vermont, has been nominated for state senate on the Republican ticket.

DIG BLIGHTED POTATOES AFTER VINES ARE DEAD

Late blight has appeared in potato fields throughout the greater part of the state and some growers, being concerned lest the tubers rot, are planning to dig them as soon as possible. To dig the potatoes early only increases the chances of their becoming infected and later decay- ing, according to the state college at Ithaca. There is less likelihood of

Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church ended last Monday afternoon at Warren, Pa., with the reading of the appointment sby the presiding Bishop. There were few changes made at this conference. Rev. Cook was returned to Cattaraugus and Rev. H. A. Ellis was re-appointed to the District. The appointments for the District are as follows:

Jamestown District

- Ashville—W. E. Bassett.
- Bemus Point—C. S. Robertson.
- Busti and Lakewood—C. E McKinley.
- Cattaraugus—J. B. Cook.
- Cherry Creek—Albert Marriott.
- Clarendon—K. T. JaQuay.
- Clymer—J. K. Whippo.
- Dayton—To be supplied.
- East Randolph—H. H. Clare.
- Ellington—W. P. Lowthian.
- Falconer—H. L. Dunlavy.
- Frewsburg—C. O. Brainard.
- Garland—To be supplied.
- Hamlet—To be supplied.
- Jamestown—Brooklyn Heights, W. A. Thornton; Buffalo street, L. S. Cass; Camp street, Corolyn Grout; First, T. R. Courtice; Italian Mission, Pietro Campo.
- Kellettville—E. D. Thompson.
- Kinzua—E. W. Chittester.
- Lander—F. A. Wimer.
- Leon—C. L. Pierce.
- Little Valley—I. E. Rossell.
- Lottsville—Ruth Sjoberg.
- Panama—B. H. Morey.
- Perrysburg—W. L. Updegraph.
- Randolph—W. H. Downing.
- Russell—P. F. Haines.
- South Dayton—C. C. Campbell.
- Sugar Grove—G. W. Strothard.
- Tidioutse—G. C. McDowell.
- Tionesta—J. E. Ailgood.
- Warren—Epworth, R. A. Thompson; First, L. L. Swisher; Grace, J. A. McCamey.
- Watts Flatts—A. L. Pardee.
- West Hichory—E. W. Springer.
- Youngsville—J. A. Lyons.
- C. C. Merrill—Chaplain in U. S. A.
- I. C. Lackey—Soldier.
- Rev. E. D. Hulse moves from Sugar Grove to Chautauqua, Erie district.
- Rev. D. R. Dunn goes from South Dayton to Croton Avenue church, New Castle.
- R. J. Montgomery goes back to Tenth Street, Erie, Pa.
- J. R. Rich returns to Linesville and Harmonsburg, Meadville District.
- Dr. Horace M. Conaway on account of poor health, retired from active much has been or late In t meetin in all since 1916, fough there with : so high The what the n ober. help there that mem mark blenc mem shar clear mea the grov C the imr it org an equ ed oth on op lo: fit D fo b: t: b: s: t: t: ar Grove to Chautauqua, Erie district. Rev. D. R. Dunn goes from South Dayton to Croton Avenue church, New Castle. R. J. Montgomery goes back to Tenth Street, Erie, Pa. J. R. Rich returns to Linesville and Harmonsburg, Meadville District. Dr. Horace M. Conaway on account of poor health, retired from active