OBITUARY
Following is the obituary of A. L. Scute as it was published in last week's News-Journa; it having fall. ed to reach this olive in time for publication, last week:

Addison L. Bout was horn In I) ryden, 'Tompkins county, N. Y., Oofover ${ }^{2} 15,1833$. $\Pi_{0}$ attended school at Alfred Center, N. $Y_{1}$, and afterward engaged in the lumber bushiness at Weston's Mills, N. Y. He enlated In Company C, 154th RagImont N. Y. Volenteers, in August, 1862, and served untIl the close of the war.

After the war he returned to Potpile, N. Y., and went to farming. In 1878 while clearing his farm, lie was caught by a root of a tr is and his left knee was so badly crushed that it was necessary to amputate the limb. In 1894 he came to Nebraska and engaged In the dry goods business. In 1005 he went to South Dalsota and lived on a claim near Pierre. After proving up on it he retuned to Nebraska, but did not feel that he had men enough gi i the world, and in the spring of 1908 he went to Colorado, where, near Florence, he began to make a new home Here in June he was taken sick and has ever since been an InfralId.

He peacefully passed away Friday, May 28, 1010.

He was married In June 1859 to Juliette Withersee, who survives him. Five' children were born to this union, four of whom are still lvIng: Addison $W$. and I.eonard Scut at Portvilia, N. Y., Arthur L. Scute at Leigh, Nebraska, and Dis. Lulu T. Storch, at Fullerton.

$$
\begin{gathered}
\text { Courtesy of Nance County Historical Society } \\
\text { Poo. Boor } 333 \\
\text { Fullerton, Nebraska } 68638
\end{gathered}
$$

