the best proof of friendly interest and regard, we aspire to make this an occasion of understand gratification. I must again thank you for this mark of esteem."

Our enterprising merchants, J. B. PUTNAM & Co., have opened columns again with a large notice to the public. Having seized upon a recent favore-able market to purchase their Goods, they can afford to sell at comparatively low prices, as usual.

At a meeting of Co. "E," 154th Regt. of N. Y. Volunteers, held at Lookout Valley, Tenn., April 4, 1864, the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—
Resolved, That the intelligence has reached us that WILSON J. SLAWSON, one of our members, has been stricken down by disease while a prisoner in the hands of the enemy; Resolved, That while we cheerfully submit to the will of Him who holds all human souls in His hands, we yet greatly deplore the loss of one so true and so noble as the deceased.
Resolved, That in his death we recognize the loss of a warm hearted companion, a brave and heroic soldier.
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the nearest relations of the deceased; and, also to the Fredonia Fredonia Advertiser and Westfield Advertiser, with a request for publication.

A NEW FROCK.—Our enterprising W. H. STEVENS Jr., well acquainted with the tastes and wants of the people, has just returned from New York with a choice selection of goods in the Ready made Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing departments. Having bought extensively while prices were ruling low temporarily, he is naturally enabled to enter competition with the cheapest at hand. His old customers should all be glad to learn that business will remain at the head of the Clothing Department.

Our friend KELLOGG of the Wholesale and Retail Boot and Shoe Store is delivering additions to his extensive and well stocked. He has stored on an order the latest styles that was ever introduced into the country, and probably that a large supply on hand, unless the rank of the army should be extraordinarily increased. Having contracted, while the prices were low, he is well prepared to compete with the best others, now in the country.

Fredonia Advertiser, April 22, 1864

At a meeting of Co. "E," 154th Regiment of N.Y. Volunteers, held at Lookout Valley, Tenn., April 4, 1864, the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:--

Whereas, The intelligence has reached us that MILTON J. SLAWSON, one of our members, has been stricken down by disease while a prisoner in the hands of the enemy, therefore,

Resolved, That while we cheerfully submit to the will of Him who holds all human destinies in his hands, we yet greatly deplore the loss of one so true and so noble as the deceased.

Resolved, That in his death we recognize the loss of a warm hearted companion, a zealous patriot and heroic soldier.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the nearest relations of the deceased; and, also to the Fredonia Censor, Fredonia Advertiser and Westfield Republican, with a request for publication.
