Christmas Doings.

Christmas eve proved an ideal winter night. The custom of placing lighted candles in the windows was quite universally carried out throughout the village and many residences were unusually attractive. Every merchant had a Christmas tree in front of his store, was lighted at night with tiny bulbs of many colors. In the lobby of the Citizens National Bank was a life sized Santa Claus sitting in a sleigh drawn by two reindeer. He carried a pack crammed full of toys. Christmas carols were sung on the Four Corners on Christmas Eve at 7:30. While it was very cold, the crowd seemed to enjoy the singing. A union service was held at the
