—COLLEGE SONGS—

No. 1

(Tune "Broadway Rose")

Within the dreamy hills of Allegany
 A valley sweet in calm retreat enfolds a golden Shrine
 Where Love and loyalty from old Assisi
 Is planted in your vale dear Allegany mine.
 Every beat of my heart is for you
 Bonaventure my home loyal and true,
 And with laurels we crown your dear name of renown—
 That reaches your spirit true blue.
 Alma Mater our milestone of love,
 God sends blessings to you from above;
 'Neath those brown robes of faith,
 Hearts of love ever wait—
 To bid welcome to all, Mater mine.
 Amidst the dreamy hills of Cattaraugus
 A peaceful vale, enfolden pale, wherein Loves' chalice dwells:
 Where loyalty and honor crown Old Bonas
 And send a sweet refrain in golden Vesper-bells.
 Silently, shadowly every chime
 Brings a mem'ry to me of the time,
 When I knelt at your bower where Assisi's sweet Flower
 Left its fragrance of love at your shrine.
 Bonaventure my hope and my home,
 I will love you wherever I roam:
 And when Times portals close
 Let me still hold your Rose,
 Allegany, sweet Mater-O-Mine.

(Wm. J. Tracy—19)

No. 2

Tune "Mother Machree"

I

Sure we love you Old Bonas our hearts still entwine
 Round your chalice of knowledge; we kneel at your shrine:
 May God keep us loyal where'er we may be
 To our old Alma Mater, St. Bonas Machree.

II

May we kiss in communion the front that enralls
 Nestled close in the bosom of green flowing walls,
 That mirror with the starlight God sends from above:
 May we drink from your foun'head, St. Bonas, your love.

III

You have builded eternal a spirit divine
 That has left its impression on sands of time.
 We crown you with laurels whose petals can't die,
 Till we meet you again old St. Bonas on high.

IV

Like children, in mem'ry, we play on the green
 Of the valley you blest with the glow of your sheen:
 We look with devotion upon the bright light,
 That is guiding us always dear old BROWN and WHITE.

(Wm. J. Tracy—19)
