BONADIEU

DEDICATION

REV. MALACHY A. WALL, O. F. M.

It is with pleasure and appreciation that the editors and staff dedicate the 1959 Bonadieu to Reverend Malachy A. Wall, O.F.M.

Being for the past two years a vigorous and unrelentless champion of centennial events and symposia, Father Malachy has become known to us as a full-embodiment of the summation of one hundred years of Franciscan service to the glory of God and the education of collegians, serving the same young men and women who have walked these grounds and lived the spirit he displays, both as a Bonaventure Man and as a religious of the Friars Minor.

It is perhaps rare to dedicate a university annual to a younger man, to one, who in comparison to a hundred and one years of students, is a recent graduate. But in this first year of our alma mater's second century, it is fitting and wise that this dedication be made to one who embodies, fully, Franciscan ideals and a distinct spirit of university progress and development for another century of service. Serving God and country in a full spirit of holiness and learning for as long as Divine Providence allows the men of the Umbrian Francis to trod the paths and chapel aisles of St. Bonaventure University.

IN MEMORIAM

A foremost American Franciscan scholar, educator and biblical authority, Very Reverend Thomas Plassman, O.F.M., rector of Christ the King Seminary, St. Bonaventure University, died Friday, February 13, 1959.

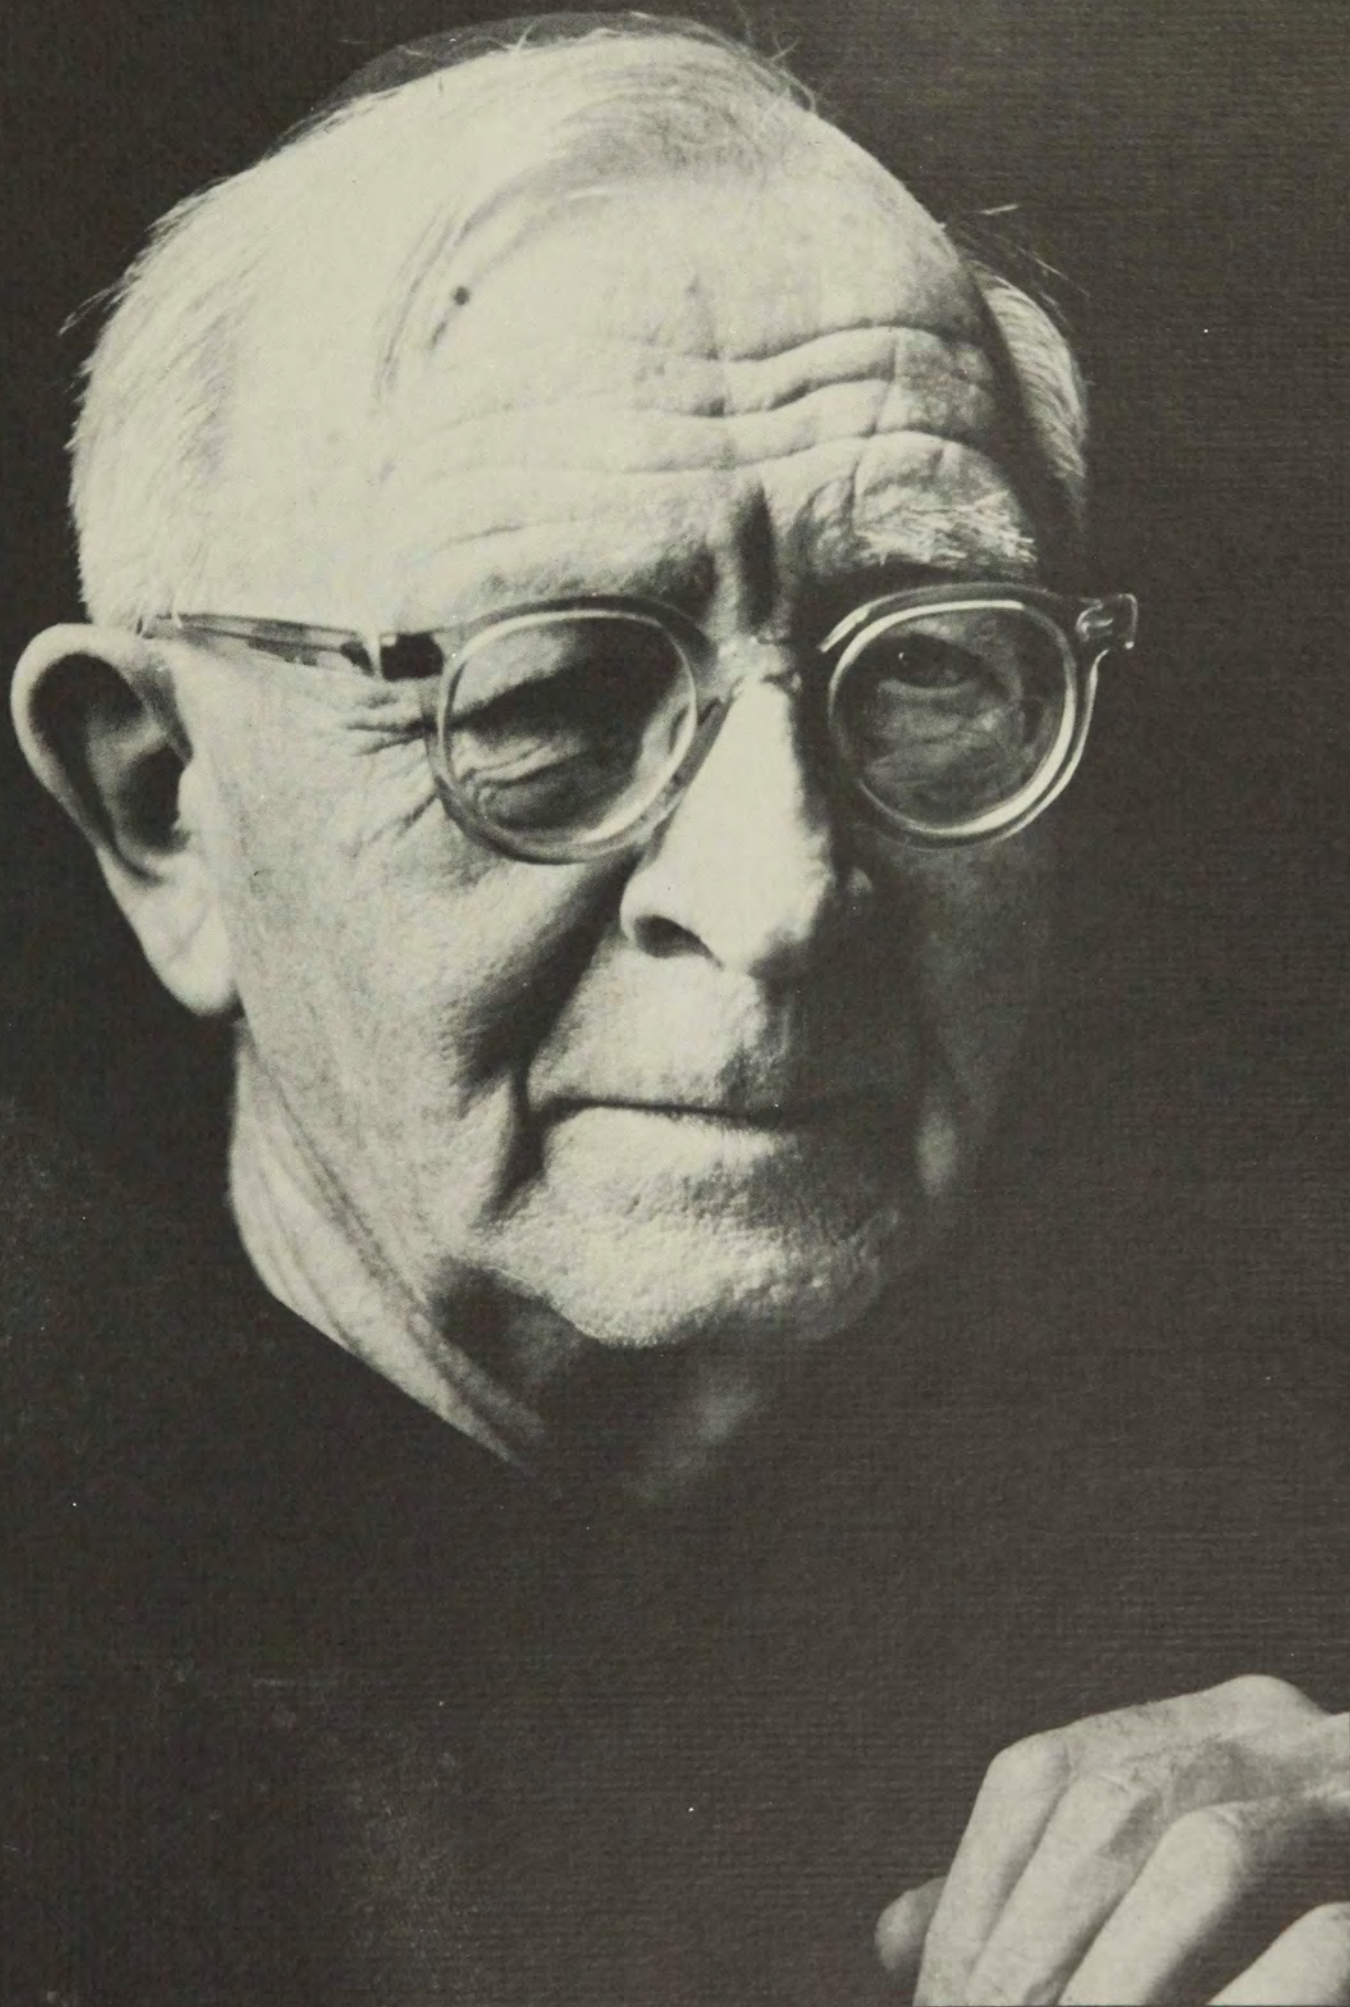

Known to thousands as "Father Tom", the German-born Franciscan Friar had been on the faculty of St. Bonaventure University for over 45 years, first as a professor, then 29 years as its president; and more recently, since 1952, as Rector of Christ the King Seminary.

Born Bernard Plassman, March 19, 1879, in Westphalia, Germany, he came to America at the age of fifteen and took his B.A. and M.A. degrees at Quincy College, Illinois, entering the Franciscan Order in September 1898. His theological studies were in Washington, D.C. The priesthood by Archbishop Diomedo Falconio, O.F.M. (later Cardinal), who had been the second president of St. Bonaventure University. Father Thomas became its eleventh president in 1920.

In accordance with the exhortation of St. Francis, Father Tom became known, in a reverent sense, as "God's Pickpocket", because he begged from alumni, friends, strangers, and all denominations, to achieve the goal he had visualized for St. Bonaventure University.

On October 7, 1958, as a "Living Memorial" to Father Thomas, St. Bonaventure University marked the beginning of its second century of Franciscan service to education by naming its new million dollar arts building for the Franciscan Friar who had guided the institution through its most ambitious construction program during his 29 years as president. In the presence of the Apostolic Delegate to the United States, the building was named "Father Thomas Plassman Hall" in honor of the legendary friar who, "revered and beloved by all, spent 40 years making people feel at home at St. Bonaventure."

Gal. 6, 14: But as for me, God forbid that I should glory, save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through Whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. Ps. 141, 2: I cried to the Lord with my voice: With my voice I made supplication to the Lord.

—Introit: Mass of St. Francis

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Commencement 1959

My dear Graduates:

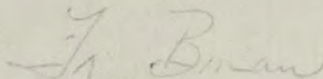

You have seen the erection of our new Liberal Arts Building, in tribute to "Father Tom," designated Plassmann Hall. It is another shrine of Catholic learning - another memorial to our Franciscan dedication in higher education to Almighty God.

Our joy at this time of Commencement in you - our new Alumni and Alumnae - far surpasses our sentiments of achievement in the completion of our new building. In your lives of holiness and learning, not in the bricks and mortar, is found the real measure of our success. Our joy anticipates your contributions to the professions of your choice, to our Country and to God.

On Commencement Day you will receive your degree, the fruit of your own efforts and of many seen and unseen sacrifices. We unite with your parents and teachers in warm and happy congratulations to you.

In bidding you adieu, it is our hope and prayer that you will cherish and perpetuate the knowledge and love you have acquired at your Alma Mater. May your future hold days of success and happiness to the glory of Our Lord and Savior.

Sincerely yours in Christ and
St. Bonaventure,

IN MEMORIAM

Rev. Alan Glynn, O.F.M.
Born May 16, 1921
Received August 12, 1940
Professed August 13, 1941
Ordained June 14, 1947
Died November 5, 1958

The Editors and Staff of the 1959 Bon-adieu wish to express their sorrow, and that of the Senior Class, for the untimely death of a man whose unceasing labors in behalf of our University can never be forgotten as long as our school stands.

“We have loved him during life; let us not abandon him until we have conducted him by our prayers into the eternal tabernacles.”

(St. Ambrose)

SENIORS

This is the fruit of all sciences, that in all, faith may be strengthened, God may be honored, character may be formed, and consolation may be derived from union of the soul with God, a union which takes place through charity — a charity without which all knowledge is in vain.

CLASS HISTORY

A history cannot be written in four short years. This is only the beginning of a story of men and women brought together at a small school nestled in the foothills of the Alleghenies.

Although it has been four years, it seems like only yesterday when we began to explore the true meaning of a Catholic college education and the Bonaventure spirit. At that time perhaps we had the Bonaventure spirit through following the basketball standings in the sports pages, through a favorite uncle who was himself a Bonaventure Man, or through a man from our hometown who wore a brown robe and spoke highly of the school.

But we had to find out for ourselves. We wanted to prepare for our later lives after first having found out just what the real meaning of that life is. We sought a knowledge of our Creator, our fellow man, and ourselves.

We came from all over the country — from the sidewalks of New York, from a small mid-western town, or from two years overseas through the courtesy of Uncle Sam. But we had one thing in common: our determination to become Bonaventure Men and Women.

This dream seemed very far away that first day when we stepped off the train, being very careful to show off the Bonaventure sticker on our luggage. The dream kept getting further and further away when rules taught us that the ties of mama's apron strings were irrevocably severed. Physical hazing was enforced that year and we banded together to hate the sophomore class.

Revenge was ours, however, when covered with mud, we won the Frosh-Soph contest. We had the pleasure of having the last Frosh Day and Senator Jim Luke became the particular target for pent up feelings. After it was all over, we found out that the sophomores weren't such bad guys after all — we were accepted.

The last Bonaventure homecoming was held during our freshman year; we felt we had come home, and Bonaventure was that new home. We went to the polls for the first time as university students and elected Pat Reddy our class president.

Our freshman year was not all happiness, however, as Rev. Anselm Krieger, O.F.M., gentleman and athlete, died. Happenings such as this served to bring us back to the reality of attaching a purpose to our lives.

Life also took on a rather sober meaning twice a year when we tried to cram a semester's material into our heads the night before the finals. We cursed ourselves for neglecting the day-to-day study, resolved to do better next time, and invariably made the same mistake again.

As much as we liked St. Bonas, we were anxious to get home for summer vacation. When we got there, things were somehow different. The Franciscan magic had begun to weave a spell over us, and we liked it.

When we came back to Bonas in the fall, we were big men on campus. We were great and we knew it. We were sophomores; we acted the part. Injustices given us the previous year were remembered, improved upon, and put into action whenever we spied an innocent frosh.

We initiated a highly successful dance called the Weasel Hop. Three of our men — Harvey Salmastrelli, Jay Murtha, and Pat Reddy — were selected to wear the blue senatorial jacket with a big "59" on it.

The high point of our sophomore year was the selection of our basketball team to the National Invitation Tournament. We packed our bags and headed for the bright lights of the big city.

After the initial thrill of being an upper-classman had worn off, we settled down to do some serious thinking. We began to realize the confidence and respect a simple brown robe could engender.

Our junior year began in a blaze of excitement with the opening of the centennial year. We felt humble because the university was giving her best to us as she had to countless others for the past century. Francis Cardinal Spellman came to help us open the centenary on October 4. Sixteen bishops and the governor of New York State were on hand to wish us well.

Plans were announced for a new Liberal Arts building, and we watched the progress on the building while we moaned that we would graduate a few months too soon to attend classes in it.

Centennial events followed each other in rapid succession during that year. We had the opportunity in participating in numerous symposia. We began to suspect that our education still had a very long way to go.

Filled with the Christmas spirit, we had the annual kids' Christmas party for the underprivileged children of the area. Our appreciation of the beauties of Cattaraugus County winters became somewhat weakened within the next few months as a flu epidemic hit campus. We sniffled and sneezed our way through the January finals while the infirmary did a booming business.

Things got better in March, however, when we accepted a bid to the N.I.T. for the second year in a row. Our winning streak in the Armory had been advanced to an amazing 77 games. We also had the satisfaction of taking two games apiece from our Little Three rivals Niagara and Canisius.

Determined not to be outdone in anything, we brought the sounds of the Duke, Duke Ellington, to the Armory for our prom. We all climbed the Stairway to the Stars and indeed had stars in our eyes for the next few weeks whenever we thought of that night. A special feature of our prom was the Ring ceremony during which we were presented our class rings by our dates.

Politics came to our attention again as we cast our ballots for our officers for the last time. We elected Ernie D'Aristotle, who had previously been named junior of the year, to his third term as class president. Dave Krahe, Ed Karl, and Tom Doddridge were picked to fill out the roster.

We chose Sal Guarnaccia, Howie Dowdall, Bill Condy and Joe Guinta to represent us in the senate. The entire student body voted to elect Sal senate president, the first veteran in a decade to achieve that distinction.

During the summer, some of us were treated to a luxurious vacation at Fort Sill. Keeping one eye on the tarantulas and other such enemies, we were sure that we had become soldiers in the best Minute Man traditions.

When we came back to Bonas, we were on the final step toward our bachelor's degrees. By now, Bonaventure had become a second home to us and we thought with some regret that we would be leaving it soon. But that didn't stop us from living the last year to the hilt.

A note of sadness touched our return, however, when we discovered that Griff's Super Atomic Derby Duo were not on hand to greet us. An era had passed — the machine age was here at last.

Horses might have been on the way out, but the coeds were on the way in with the establishment of the first women's dorm at Bonas. Part of St. Elizabeth Academy was rechristened St. Elizabeth Hall, and the coeds moved in hoping that this would encourage more girls to come to Bonaventure.

The Apostolic Delegate to the United States graced our campus to help us inaugurate Bonaventure's second century. We watched progress on the new Liberal Arts Building out of the corner of our eye and speculated to ourselves that it would be a fine place for our children to receive a higher education.

Pope Pius XII died during October of our senior year and for the first time in our lives, we knew the emptiness of not having a supreme leader of our Church, even if only for a few days.

The Pope's death almost put a damper on our plans for the best Fall Festival ever. True to our tradition of doing things on a grand scale, we planned an entirely new approach to one of the fall's leading social events. Our Festival was built around the appearance of the Crew Cuts. Although the weather left something to be desired, our Festival was a great financial success.

We saw the Hand of God touch another of His priests that year with the sudden death of Rev. Alan Glynn, O.F.M. We did the best we could by the energetic young Friar — and wished we could have done more.

The Dramatics Club which had been rejuvenated in our junior year was officially named the Garret Theatre Players and its first production under the new name was the musical Girl Crazy. Seniors Dick Sroka and Gail Kennedy had the leading roles, and the show proved very successful.

The year wore on . . . more floor parties at Christmastime . . . more basketball victories . . . more exams and midnight oil . . . another prom . . . a better understanding of why we were chosen by a Power higher than ourselves to be Bonaventure Men and Women.

The days were not always easy; we griped about tests, and our roommate, and our failures each in its turn.

We realized that it was time for us to leave; another class was coming to take our place as seniors. We asked ourselves again our original questions of the meaning of our education and the Bonaventure spirit.

Like Socrates so many years ago, we realized that our strength and wisdom lay in realizing what we did not know. We had finished our four years at Bonaventure, but we knew our education had only just begun, and it would continue throughout our lives in whatever walk of life we should choose.

And the thing which would make our education grow? That was this Bonaventure spirit — the social ability to meet men on equal terms and get along with them; the educational ability to use our natural curiosity to learn more about the many things of which we are ignorant; the spiritual ability to attach a deeper meaning to successes and failures, the pleasures and disappointments which we met and would continue to meet in everyday living.

Bonaventure had given us everything she knew how to give, and we left hoping that someday, in some way, we would be able to repay her.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Since nature avails naught and human endeavor but little, little should be attributed to inquiry, but much to unction; little to the tongue, but very much to interior joy; little to the spoken or written word, but everything to the Gift of God.

SPW

“St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—St. Bonaventure University currently marking 100 years of Franciscan service in the field of higher education in a year-long observance, will formally inaugurate its second century of service at rededication services on Oct. 7th., 1958.

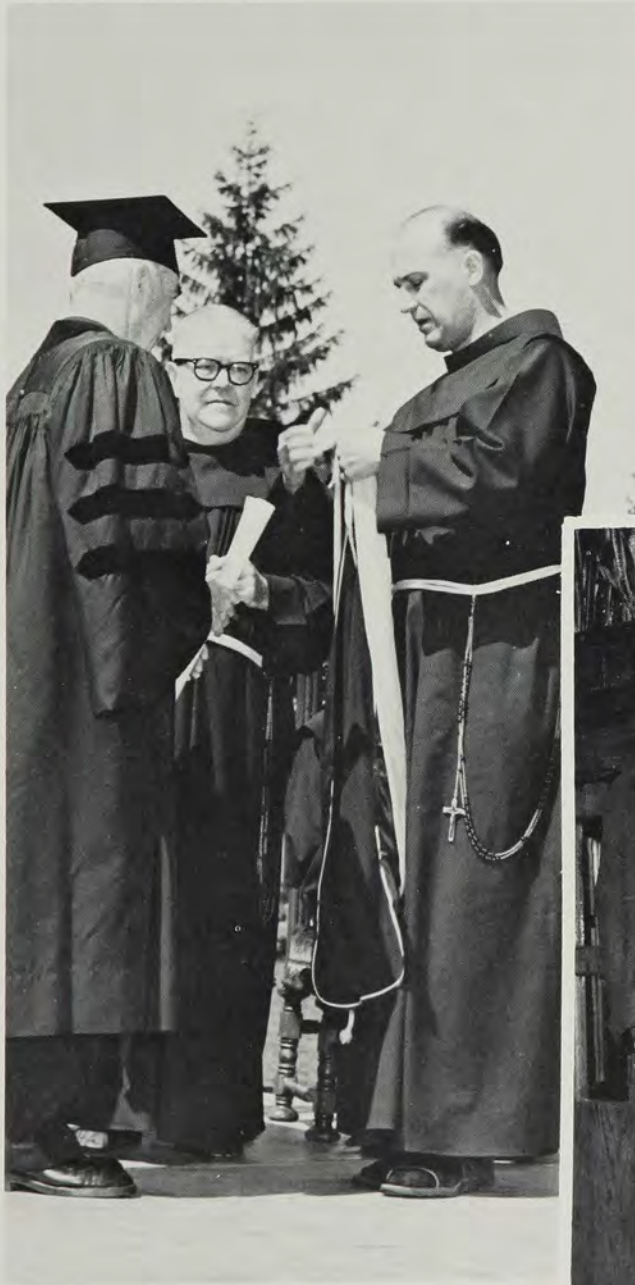

Presiding at the day-long program will be the Most Rev. Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the United States. Highlights of the October 7th. event will include a Mass of Rededication and the laying and blessing of the cornerstone of the three-story Arts Building presently being constructed.”

“St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—St. Bonaventure University has awarded its 25th. annual Catholic Action Medal to Paul V. Murray, co-founder and current president of Mexico City, College, Mexico, in recognition of his work as an ‘outstanding layman’ in Latin American relations.”

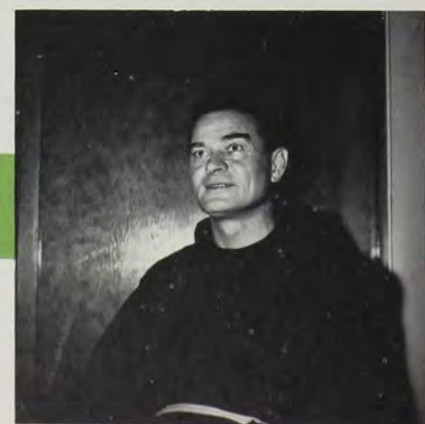

“St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—Speaking at a special Academic centennial convocation for the Business Symposium was John B. O’Connor, President, Dresser Industries, Inc. During the morning convocation, the university conferred the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Commercial Science on Mr. O’Connor, as he called for greater investment abroad.”

“St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—“Tradition and Controversy in the Arts’ will be the general theme of a two-day symposium which begins Wednesday, Sept. 24th., at St. Bonaventure University.

Sponsored by the university’s arts division, the sessions will be devoted to discussions of the theme in the fields of philosophy, poetry, prose, arts, archaeology and music. Speakers include: Dr. Anthony Nemetz, of Ohio State University; Dr. William Albright of Johns Hopkins University; Rev. Thomas Mc Avoy, C.S.C., Notre Dame University; and Dr. Howard Hanson, University of Rochester.”

“St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—Brig. General S.L.A. Marshall, USAR, chief editorial writer for the Detroit News, will speak at St. Bonaventure University, Thursday, May 8th., 1958. General Marshall’s talk at a 6:00 P.M. banquet in Hickey Memorial Dining Hall will conclude a day-long military program sponsored by the university’s Reserve Officers Training Corp in connection with the centennial observance of St. Bonaventure.”

100 years shared by town and university, Olean's contribution to the Centennial celebration, St. Bonaventure Appreciation Week, Sept. 29th., through Oct. 6th.

"St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—Mrs. John J. McGraw, widow of the former N.Y. Giants immortal, will attend exercises Saturday, Oct. 11th., when St. Bonaventure University dedicates a new athletic field named for her husband and Hugh Jennings, who also became a baseball immortal. Also attending the brief dedication exercise will be Mrs. Grace McWilliams of Scranton, Pa., niece of Jennings."

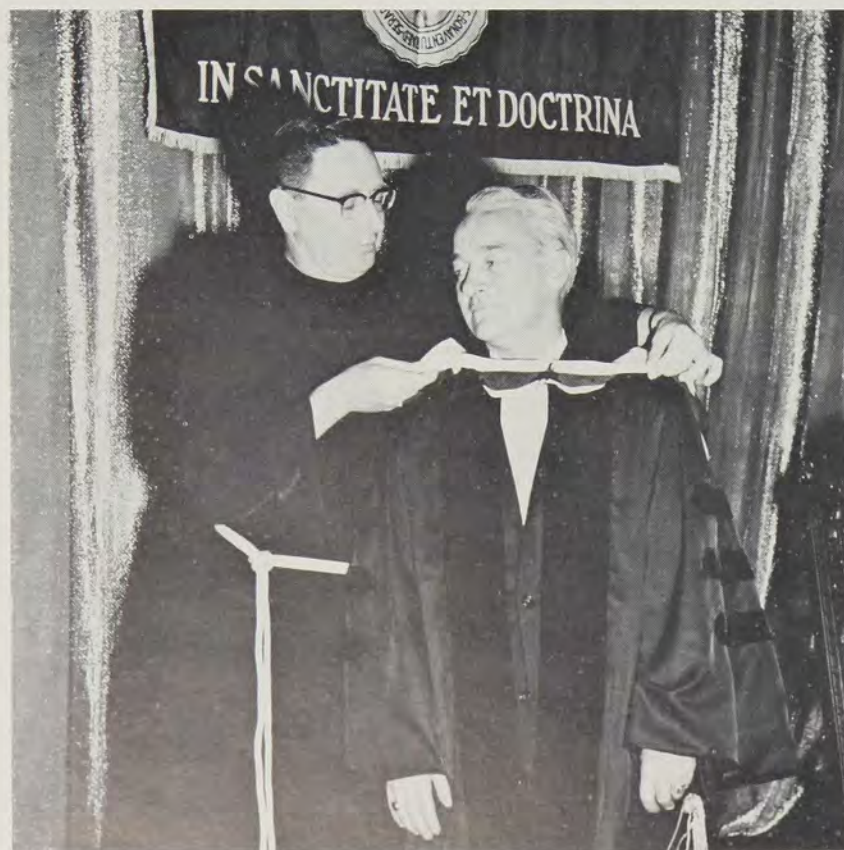

“St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—The Education Symposium, attended by former university president. Very Rev. Thomas Plassman, O.F.M., brought representatives from the Dominion of Canada and Mexico to participate in the Centennial activity.”

“St. Bonaventure, N. Y.—Rev. Conon Mitchell, O. F.M., assisted by Rev. Malachy Wall, O.F.M., Rev. Gervase White, O.F.M. and Rev. Neil Mac Donald, O.F.M., celebrated the Solemn Requiem for the repose of the soul of Pope Pius XII. The Mass, an academic convocation, was celebrated during the university’s period of mourning for His Holiness, of happy memory.”

“St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—The Third Order of St. Francis Annual National Youth Congress will be held at St. Bonaventure University August 18 to 22, 1958. The congress will be dedicated to the theme: Franciscan Response to the Message of Lourdes.”

“St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—Some 1400 high school publication staffs and their advisers from four states will gather May 15, 1958, on the St. Bonaventure University campus to participate in the 11th. Annual High School Press Day.

Principal speaker at the luncheon in the university dining hall will be Jim Bishop, author of “The Day Christ Died.” Prior to his talk, St. Bonaventure University will confer the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters on Mr. Bishop at a special centennial academic convocation in Butler Memorial Gymnasium.”

“St. Bonaventure, N.Y.—Mother’s Day, 1958, introduced more parents and visitors to the campus, as the university’s annual Parents’ Day was again held. Very Rev. Brian Lhota, O.F.M., President, assisted by Rev. Cornelius Welch, O.F.M., Dean, and Rev. Remigius Goudreau, O.F.M., broke ground for the new Liberal Arts Building, later named Plassman Hall.”

With the close of our first hundred years came the opening of a program of development for the years ahead. The Very Rev. Bishop Mark Gannon laid the cornerstone for the new Arts Building, Plassman Hall, on the day which saw the closing of the Centennial celebration, and the inauguration of our second century.

Plassman Hall is part of an overall planned program of growth into the second century of Bonaventure life. Scheduled for completion by June, 1959, it is the first born of a changing campus.

- 3) To continue construction, and initiate new construction, to provide the buildings of study, residence and recreation to stand in the new century beside those of the old.

THE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

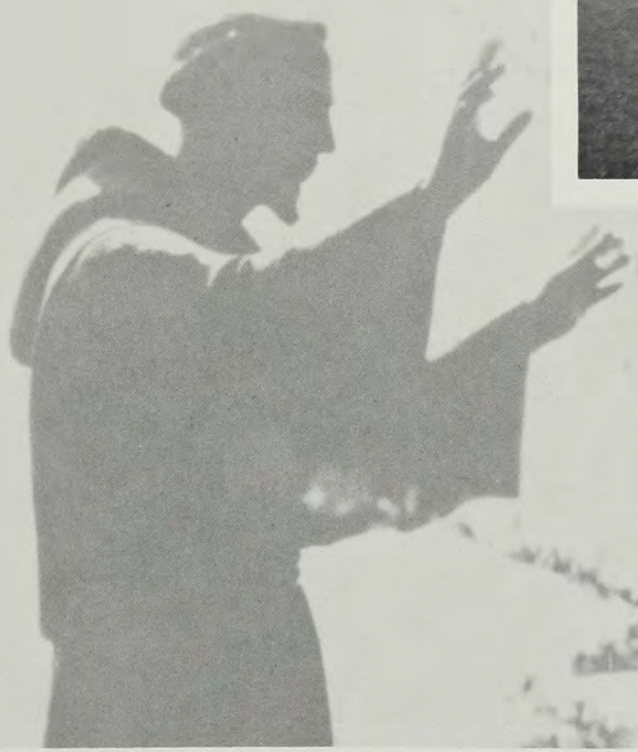

- 1) To maintain, attract and build an outstanding faculty, in the tradition of St. Bonaventure, a faculty of dedicated men for a new century of growth.

- 2) To replace and increase facilities and equipment, to provide for student aid and assistance in research. To repeat, in increased size and scope, the first century of activity.

COACH

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

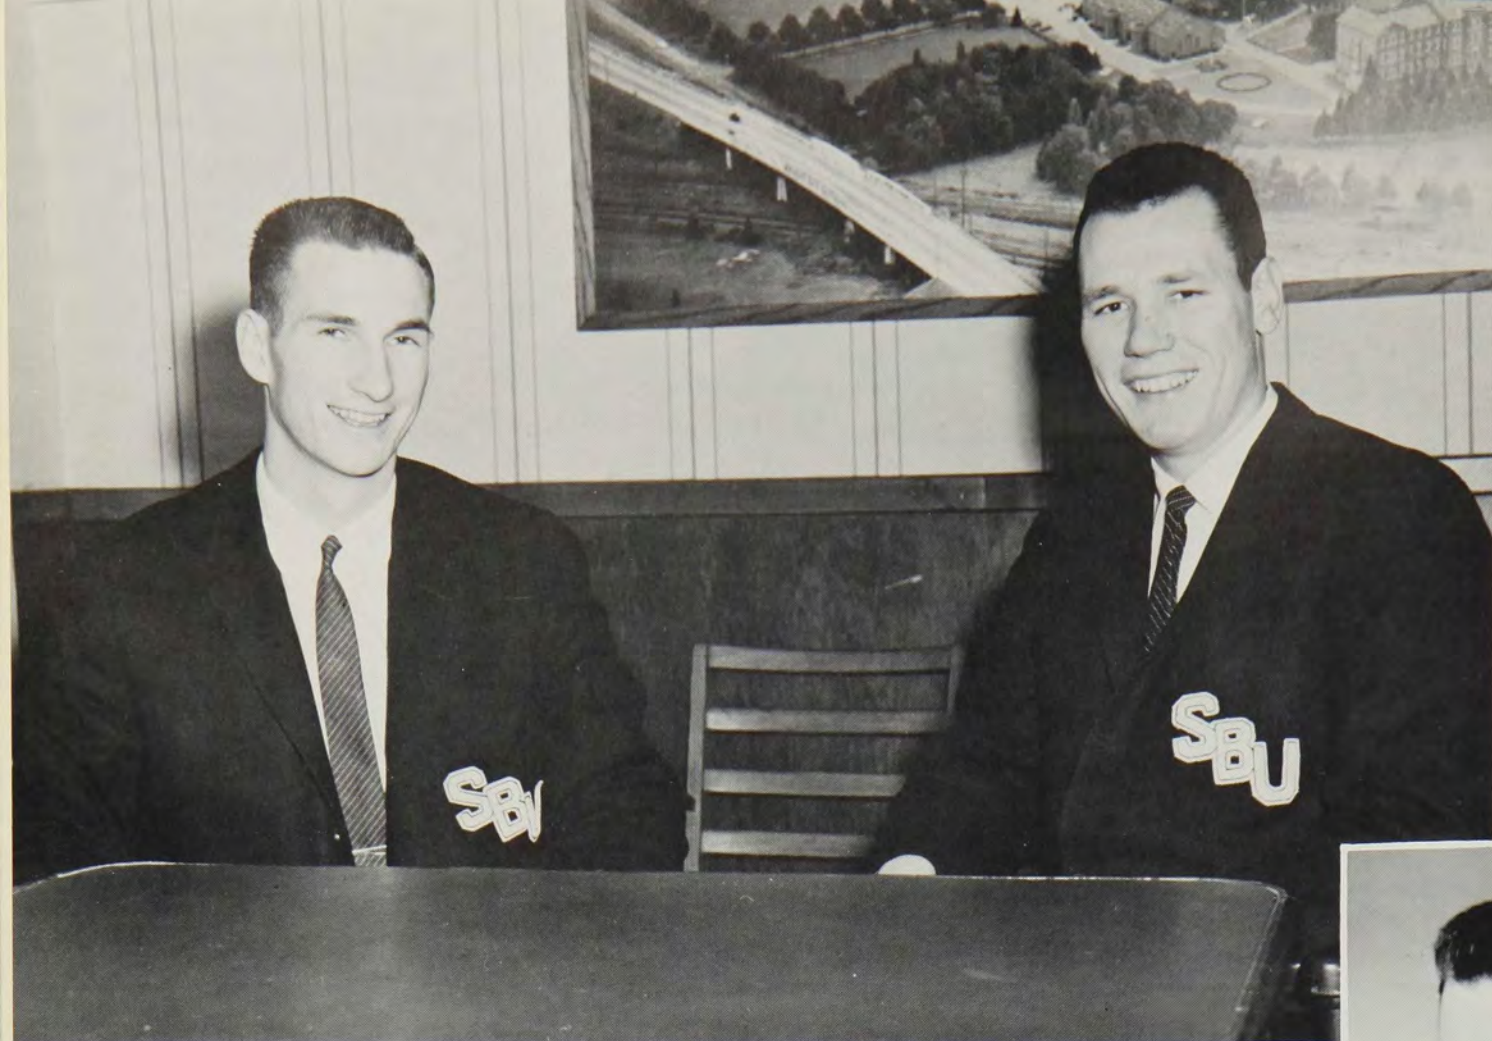

When the announcement was published that Basketball Coach Eddie Donovan, Class of 1950, had been appointed as the new Athletic Director, the Very Reverend Brian Lhota, O.F.M., university president, said, "The university is proud that one of its own sons has accepted this position. We are confident that he will be as successful and an competent in this new and additional post as he has been in his previous duties."

Coach Donovan's appointment marks the first time in the 100-year history of the school that a lay person has held the position. He succeeds the Rev. Walter Fox, O.F.M., who relinquished the position for reasons of health early in December.

Coach Donovan brings a fine athletic record to his additional position including work as high school mentor, a fine college coach, and as a tremendous organizer of athletics in general. The staff of this yearbook on behalf of the Senior Class wish to extend best wishes to Coach Donovan for a very successful future.

BONAS IN N. I. T.

A fine field of twelve teams competed in this year's National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden. The third seeded Bonnies with probably the best team in Bonaventure history fell foe to a five-man powerhouse, namely St. Johns of Brooklyn. As basketball season closes for another year, a note of congratulations should be extended to Coach Eddie Donovan and the Ball Club for a fine season of 20 wins against 3 defeats. Next year, as the fabulous five of Don Newhook, Lee Fitzpatrick, Ken Fairfield, Mike Cavaliere, and Mike Schrauth leave the squad, we hope that this year's Bona Yearlings can bolster the power and bring home a fine season and a National Championship.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We, the editors and staff of the 1959 Bonadieu, are more than fully aware of the fact that by ourselves, this yearbook would never have reached your hands. Its presence is more than overwhelming evidence of the fullest, the heartiest cooperation on the part of many, many people. However, to the following, we owe all our thanks, all the patience we have left after a year of work, all our remaining sanity:

TO:

Father Crispin Maguire, O.F.M. and Father Senen Sanfratello, O.F.M., our moderators, for their trust and confidence in us, their guidance, their continued help.

Father Malachy Wall, O.F.M. and Bob Conroy of the Alumni Office, for the many times we invaded their privacy to ransack their files of pictures.

The Office of Publicity and its staff for their cooperation in enabling us to put out the section on Special Events.

Doug Wright for those extra pictures which became so essential to the make-up for the yearbook. Mr. Jim McWilliams of the Hurley Company, our publisher, for his professional advice and reassurance.

The Freshman Class for their help in filing, measuring pages and running errands for the editors. Mr. Ben Beaulieu for his contributions of art work in the Athletics Section.

Mr. LeRoy Brock, Annual Manager of the Hurley Company for his never-ending patience and help. The Bookstore for their generosity in packaging the shipments of the book.

Varden Studios for their professional photography and rapid, secure service.

Sylvia Salvadori for her graciousness and skill in writing the history of the Class of 1959.

The Bonaventure for their open file of pictures and their journalistic advice.

The New York Daily News and The Olean Times-Herald for supplying much needed photographs.

Fr. Eligius Buytaert, O.F.M. for his work of scholarship in providing us with the quotations.

To the entire staff of the Bonadieu, without whom this yearbook would never have been a reality.

To everyone, friars, professors, students, classmates, alumni, professional people, businessmen, parents, friends, our thanks for your help confidence and guidance — and especially, thanks for a wonderful year of memories.

R. Millett

WE, THE WOMEN

How do OTHER people handle problems of everyday living like YOU have? How do OTHER people have a charming personality even with seemingly insurmountable obstacles in the way? Ruth Millett has the answers to MANY things . . . in her daily column, "WE THE WOMEN," which appears each day in your Family Newspaper, the TIMES HERALD

Gil Stinger

GENERALLY SPEAKING

There's a man in town who reports human interest stories . . . facts, fantasies . . . THINGS to come . . . events of the past, Somehow, he packs PAGES of information into a single column! He's EVERYBODY'S friend . . . GIL STINGER! He calls it "Generally Speaking" . . . but he comes to the "point" of the topic swiftly. Be sure to read his column DAILY.

D. Kilgallen

VOICE OF BROADWAY

Gossip on the party line or across the picket fence has NOT gone out of date. It probably never will. It's all a part of our way of life. And, there are choice bits of information classified as Gossip, under the heading of "VOICE OF BROADWAY" . . . daily in the Times Herald. Dorothy Kilgallen is your Gossip Reporter, and she always has some choice topics to fill you in on.

M. Abdo

LOCAL NOTES

Mike Abdo, sports editor . . . St. Bonaventure sports activities, the New York-Pennsylvania baseball league, golf action at various clubs in a five county area, bowling, and complete coverage of all high school sporting events are handled under the guidance of the Times Herald's sports editor. A column, Local Notes, keeps readers posted on what's doing in this area.

V. Riesel

INSIDE LABOR

How are things going for labor movements and for labor leaders? Victor Riesel reports the INSIDE STORY . . . daily, in the TIMES Herald! Victor Riesel almost certainly has a "sixth sense," in digging out and bringing to light the innermost thoughts and movements of labor . . . good or bad. Let it be to your OWN judgement.

Dr. Brady

YOUR HEALTH AND YOU

Did you know that lack of teeth can cause stomach trouble? . . . You gain vitality by losing weight? . . . A youth in good physical condition is far less likely to "try" harmful stimulants? Read about these and many other interesting health facts in Doctor Brady's daily newspaper column, "YOUR HEALTH AND YOU." You'll find it well worth your time.

J. Bishop

JIM BISHOP, REPORTER

Has the ability to attract the scanning eye . . . and hold you to his story to the end! He has a way of telling the facts that is so human, you will have the very real feeling that you are actually THERE! Check the facts of JIM BISHOP, REPORTER . . . appearing THREE TIMES WEEKLY on the Editorial Page.

J. Armstrong

AROUND THE WORLD

The column Around the World appears three times a week in the Times Herald and is devoted to discussion of timely international situations in which the United States finds itself often concerned. It does not treat of domestic matters at any time. The author of the column has been a lecturer on international affairs for many years and is a former professor of political science in a university.

A. Van Buren

DEAR ABBY

People are raving about Dear Abby. She's one of the most colorful columnists in the papers today. She has a brilliant slant on everyday problems and readers have come to think of Abigail Van Buren as a confidante on whom they may rely.

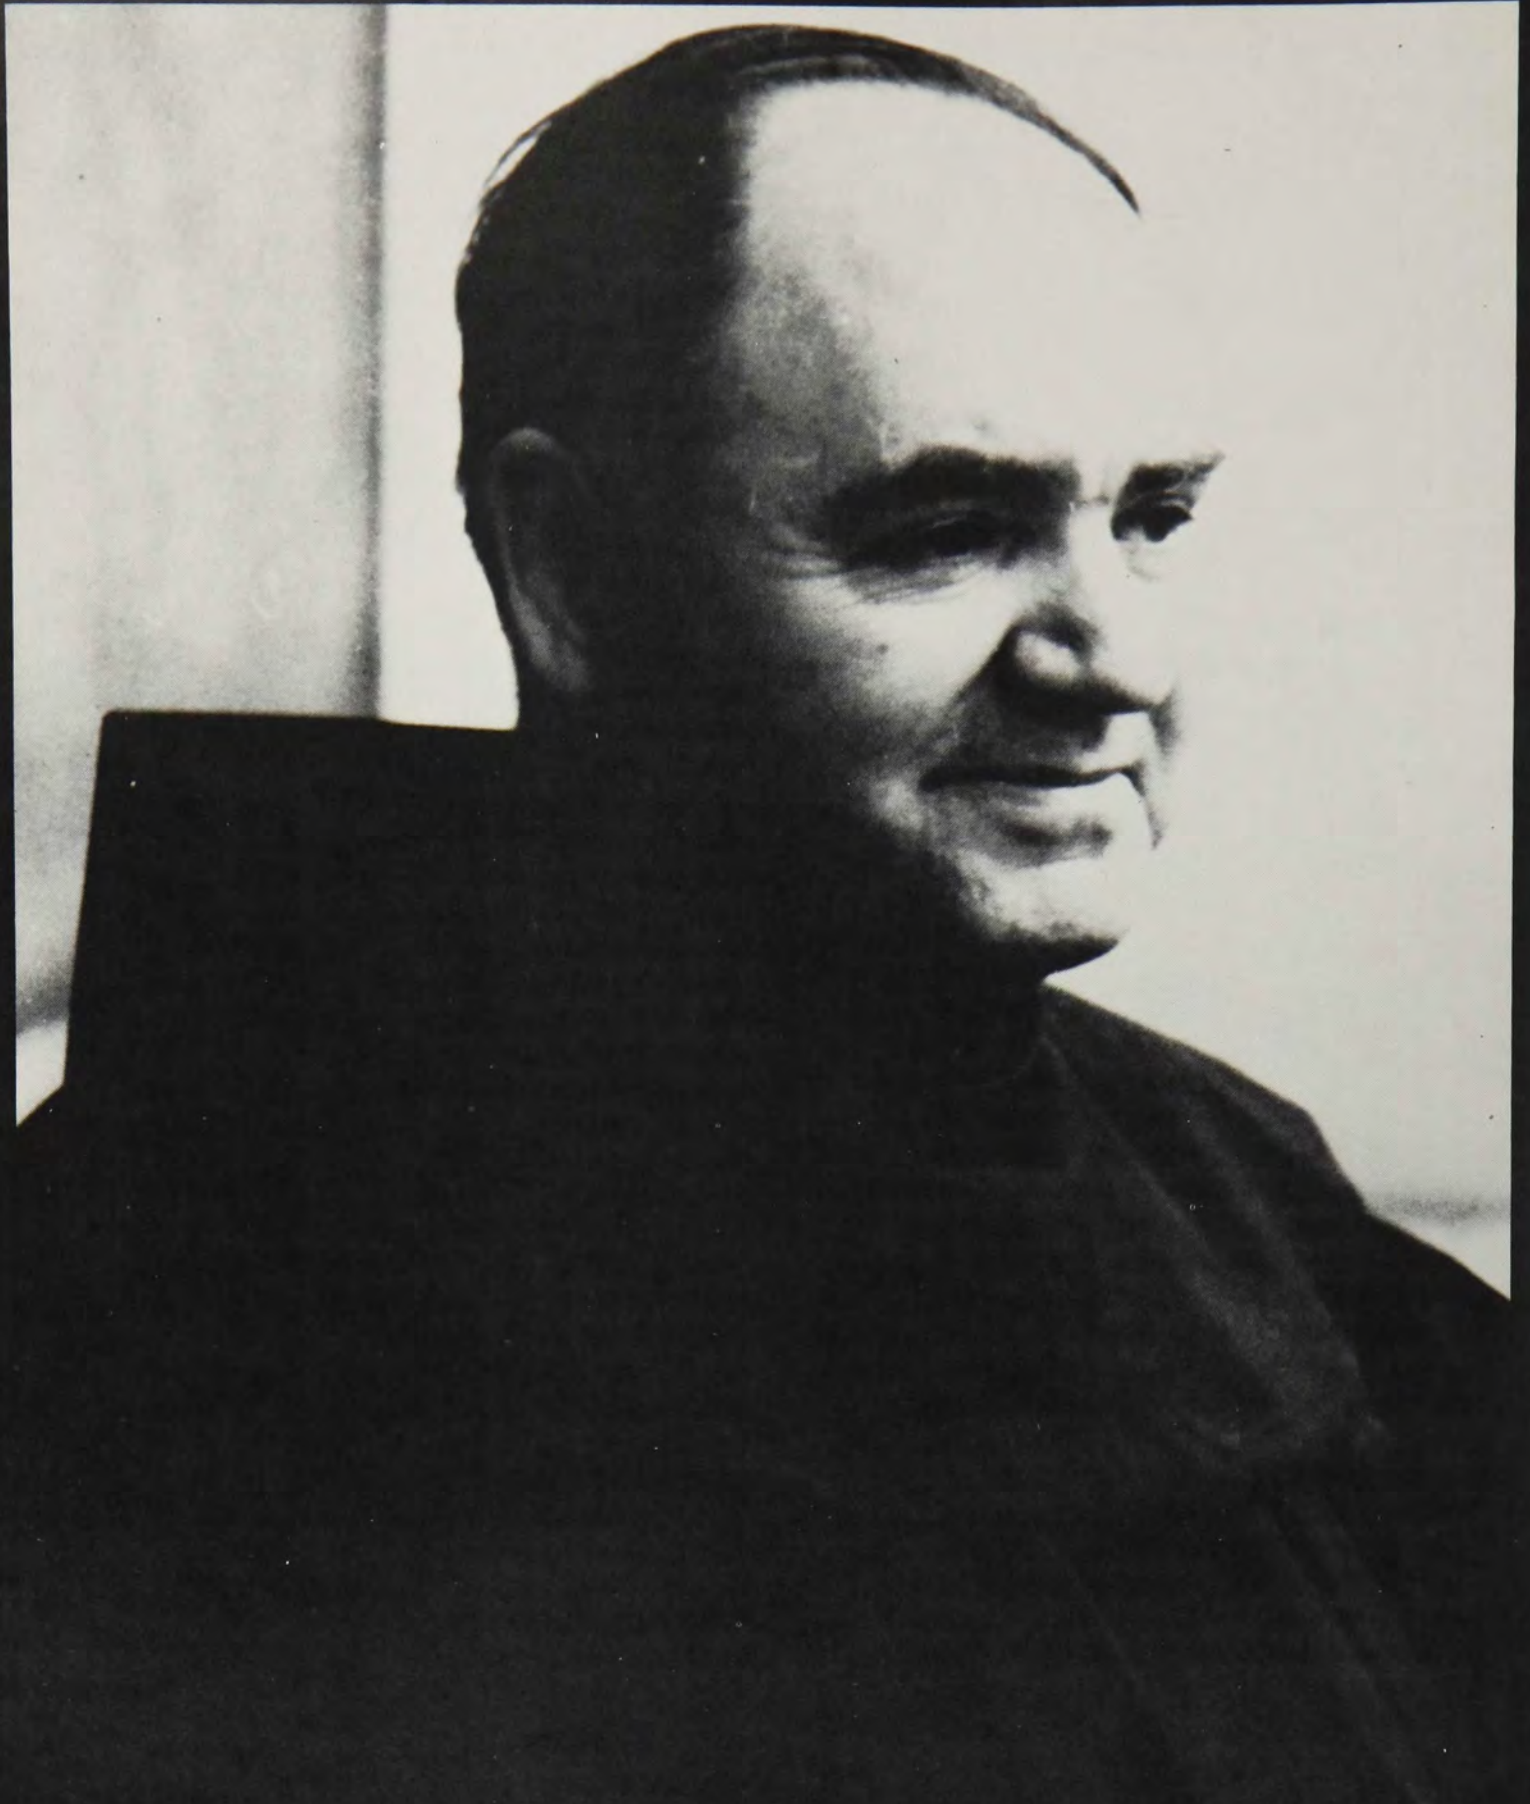

W. Ewald

WILLIAM EWALD

Ewald's day-to-day criticisms of the television programs you watched the night before are sure to interest you . . . and the chances are you'll disagree with him. But — you will read him and talk about him. And probably think harsh things about him for picking on your favorite performer. But — you will read what he has to say. And talk about his daily reviews with your friends and your neighbors.

Break away from the grind of routine, read the cartoons that appear daily in the Times Herald. Jimmy Hatlo's "They'll Do It Every Time" panel is famous for keeping people in a good mood . . . and "Blondie" can always put a smile into your day. There's the very popular Beetle Bailey, Buzz Sawyer, Archie, and Our Boarding House, to keep you well entertained each day. Then, follow Walt Disney's beautiful illustrated True Life Adventures, for a trip into the unusual yet factual fantasies. To make your day complete . . . read the funnies in your family newspaper, the Times Herald!
