

1972 bonadieu

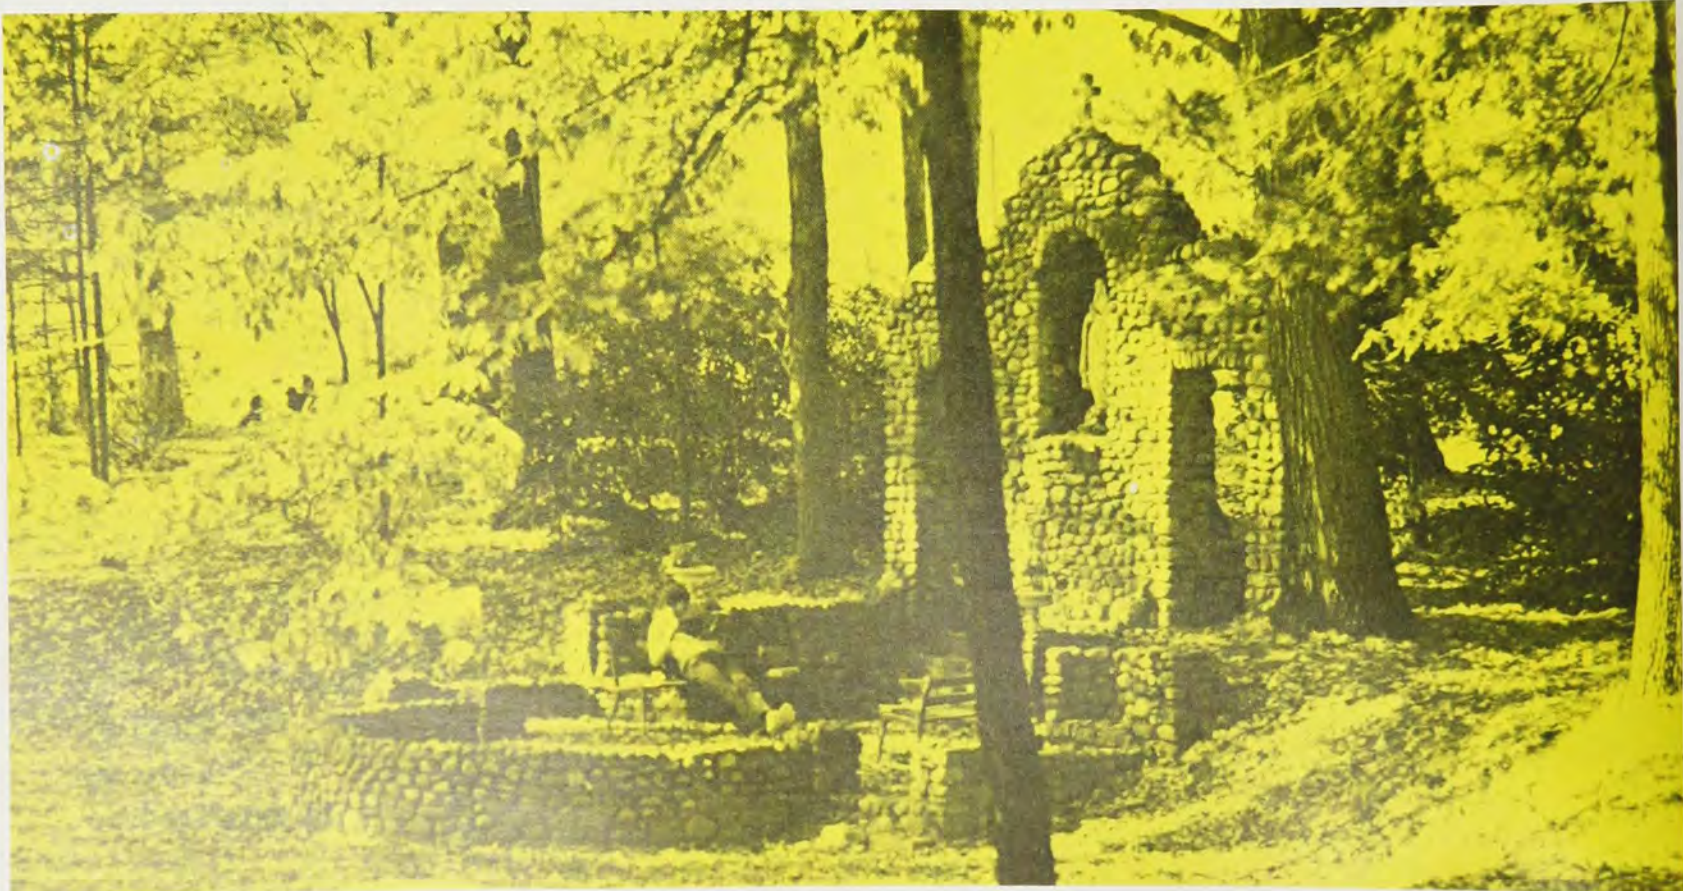

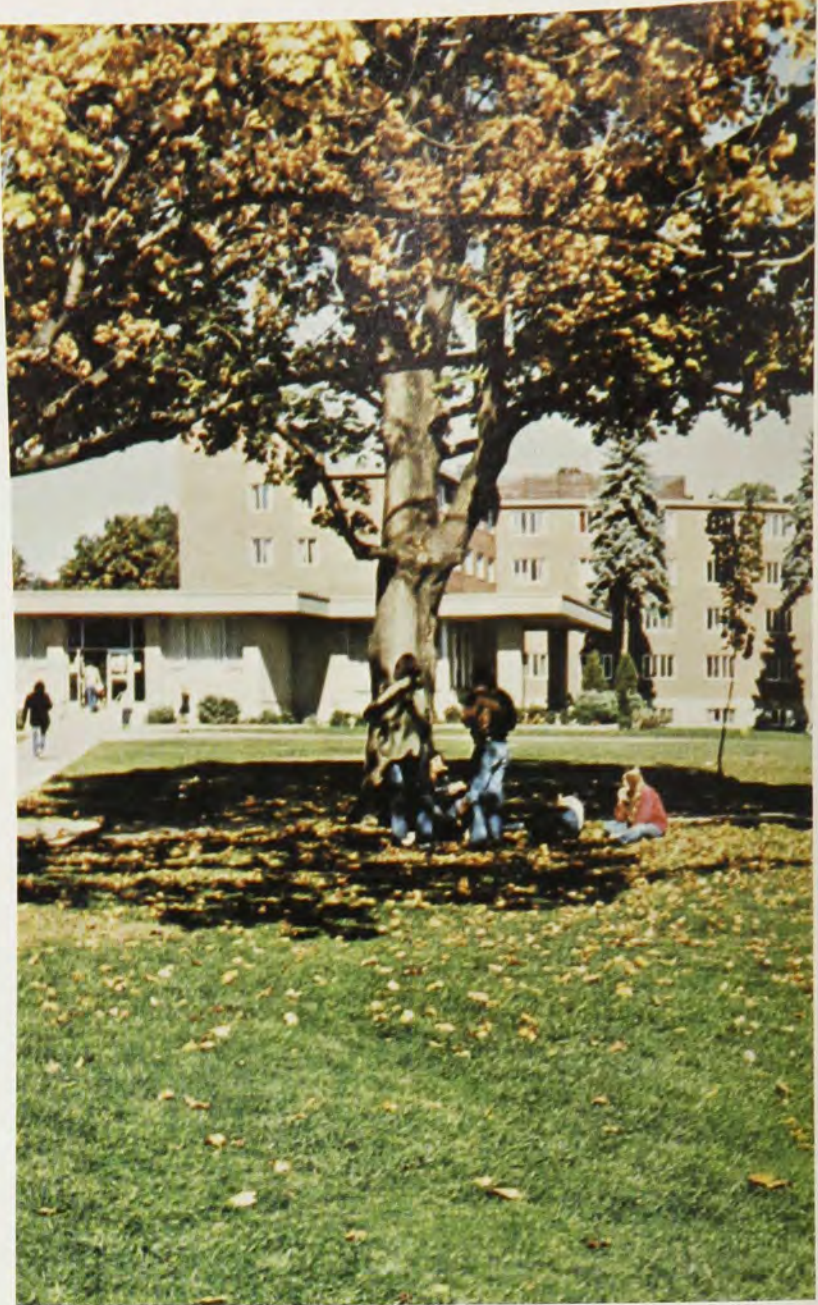

1972 bonadieu

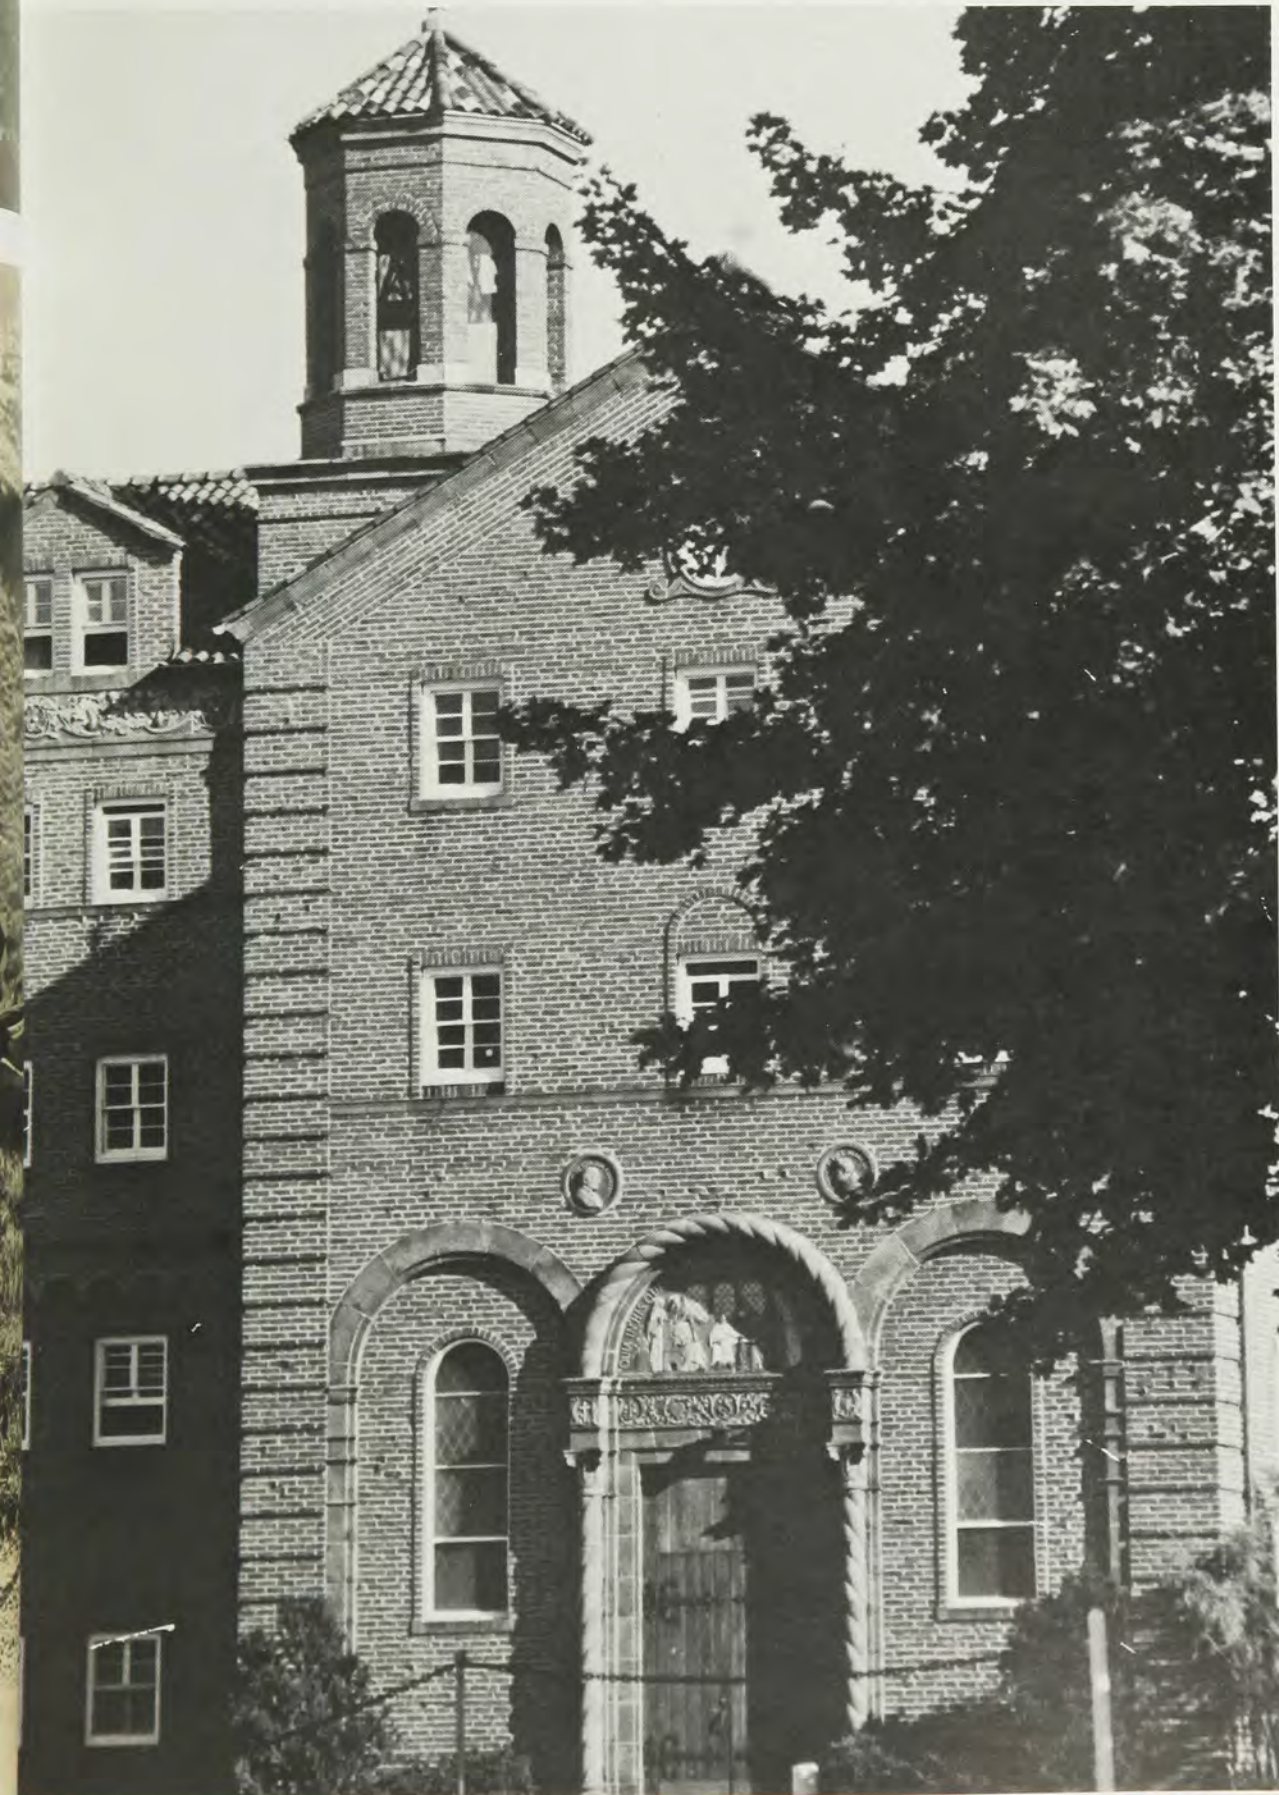

this is bonaventure.
some have had only the opportunity to read about it in the pages of the campus newspaper or yearbook.
others are luckier.
they have had the chance to be part of bonaventure.

if you liked what you saw in the workings of bonaventure,
then your reflection is one of positive acclaim . . .
if the view upset you, then your looking back is simply that.
either way, the recognition of part of your life that holds many patterns must still be made.

it is in pages like these that the chance for the inescapable recognition is found . . . in the faces that you can't forget . . . and those that left no mark or slightest trace to cause emotion.

there are words that kept you wondering what they really meant then, and yet they are understandable now, and remarks that disturbed your sensitivity of the past aren't able to penetrate the aging reflection of today.

here, a world has been captured.
for a special reason.
one that belongs to every character
in this story.

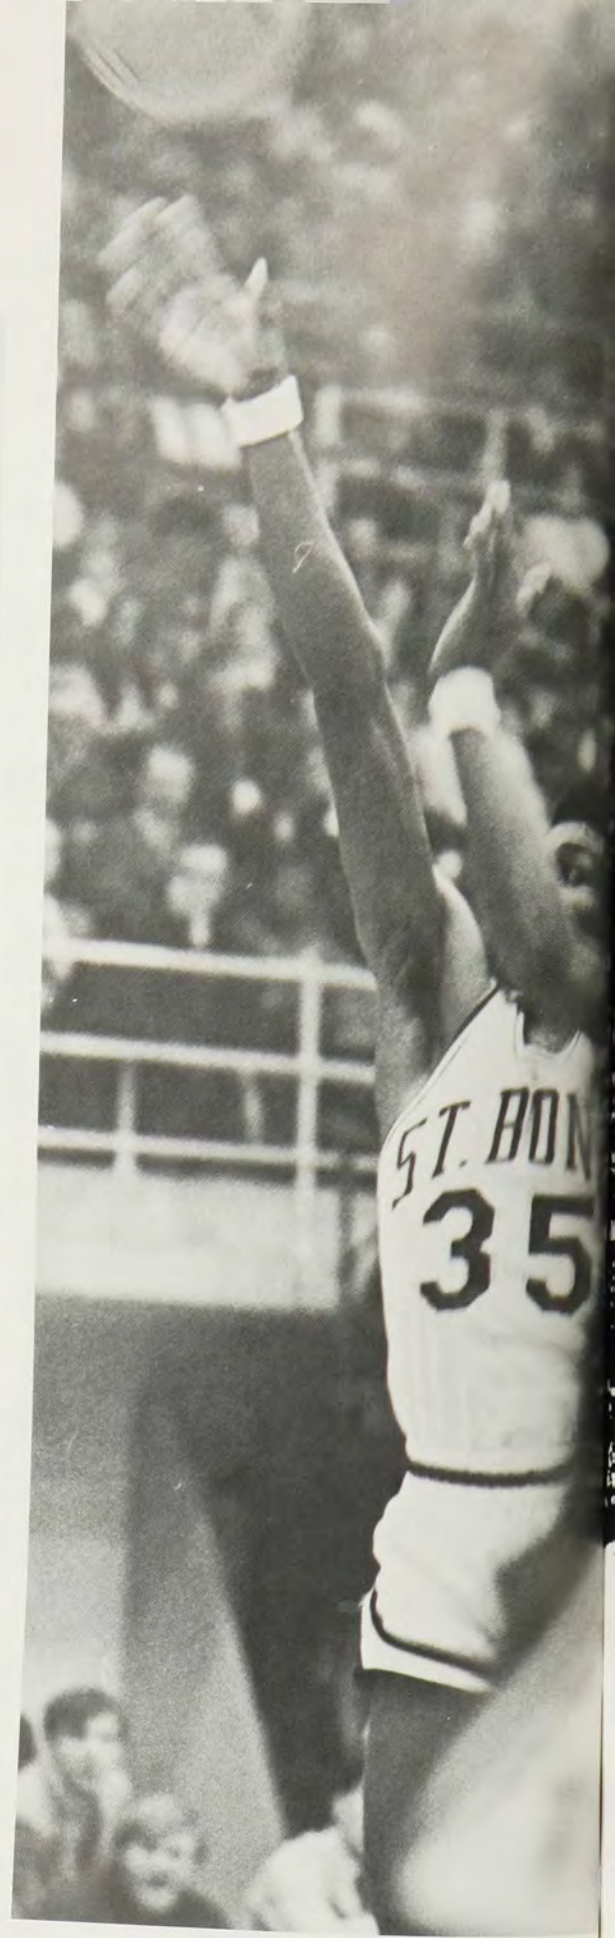

take it for what it's worth . . .
just a tale of people
clearly defined and easily seen.
but, don't try to pass the recognition to the side.
all you have to do is put it all together . . .

The Bonaventure varsity soccer team suffered through a disappointing 4-8-1 season, despite the return of seven starters from the 7-4-1 team of a year before.

Highlights of the season included consecutive overtime wins against Susquehanna and tournament-bound Fredonia State, as well as the 7-1 trouncing of Canisius, in which the Bonnies set game and period scoring records, tallying five times in the fourth period alone.

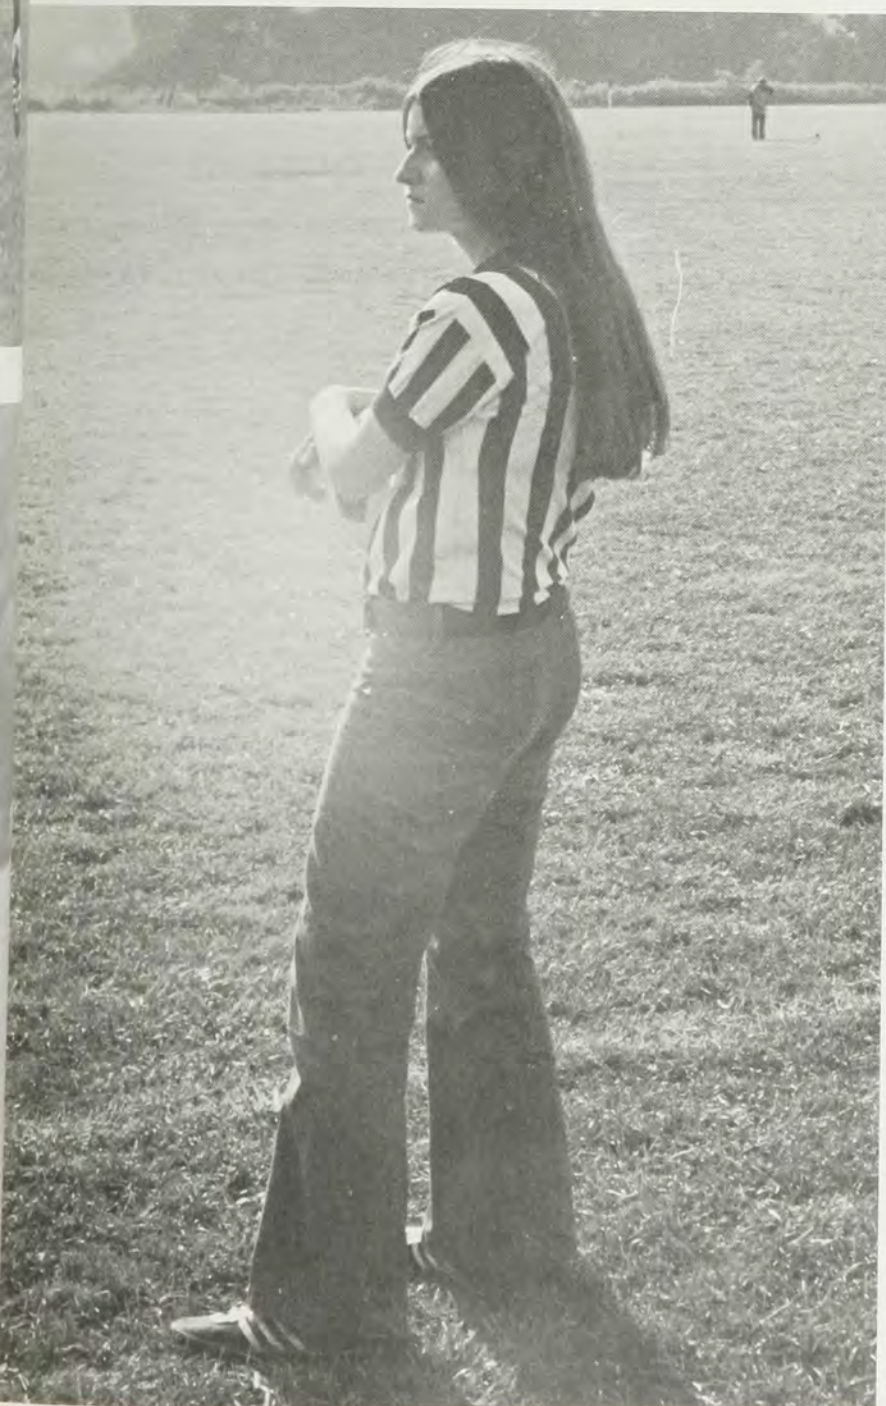

High scorer for the booters was sophomore forward Gary Dean with six goals, followed by junior Mark Werstein with five.

The turning point in the season occurred when Coach Skehan carted his squad to West Virginia, where they absorbed a demoralizing 9-0 thumping at the hands of the powerful Mountaineers. From then on, the Bonnies could salvage just one win and a tie in the remaining six games.

Though senior goalie Rich Ciccolella sat out two games with a knee injury, he had another fine season, receiving an All-American nomination for his shutout of Fredonia State.

With one meet remaining on the dual meet schedule, the St. Bonaventure swim team was headed toward a second consecutive record-breaking season, having compiled a fine 10-2 record.

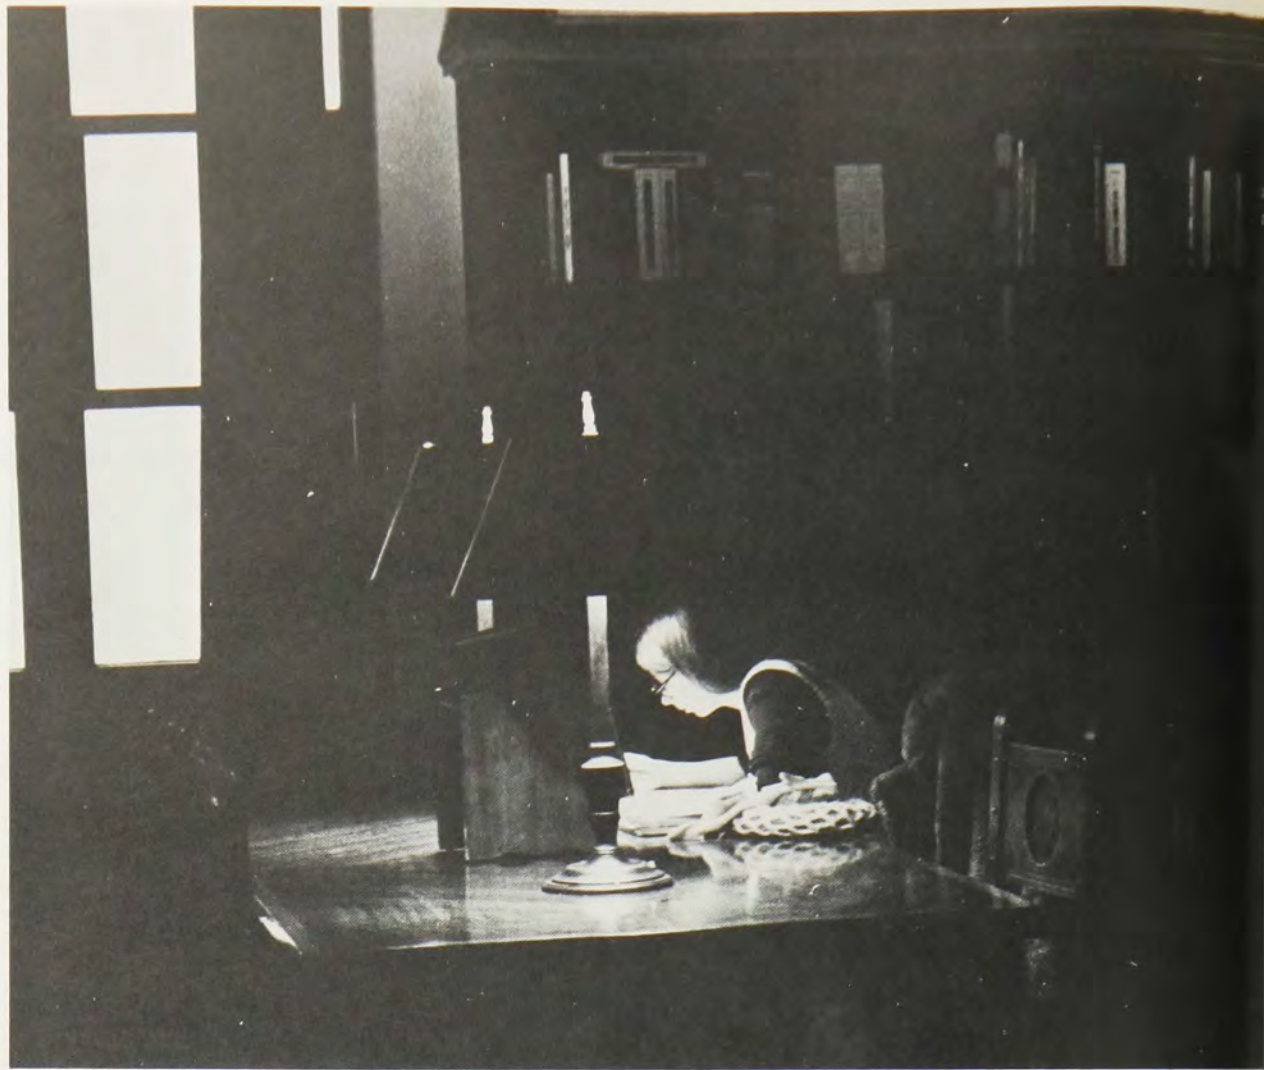

Key meets included a 61-52 win over upstate power Rochester Tech, the Little Three championship meet victory over Niagara, and a narrow 61-52 loss to Notre Dame, in which the Bonnies broke four varsity records.

Leading competitors for Coach John Skehan included Rich Bohan, who broke four opposing pool records (as well as his own varsity record twice) in the 200-yard breaststroke, and Duffy Hickey, record-setter in the 1000-yard freestyle and 500 free.

In March, the Bonnies compete as the defending champions in the Upper New York State Championships, with Bohan, backstroker Sid Freeman, medley man John Martin and freestyler Mark Lutterbein defending their individual titles.

With four games remaining in the season, the St. Bonaventure Brown Indians had come on strong to establish a 13-7 record, keeping alive hopes for a post-season tournament bid.

The campaign had been generally considered a disappointment at that point, however, mainly due to the fact that six of the losses had been of the heartbreaking variety, coming by five points or less.

The first in a series of setbacks occurred as early as the second game, when junior forward Carl Jackson suffered a knee injury which would force him to miss the next four contests.

No sooner had Jackson been issued crutches than the Bonnies had their first taste of defeat, a shocking 87-84 loss at the hands of a mediocre Bowling Green team.

Ten days and two wins later, the Bonnies met heavily-favored Penn in the finals of Rochester's Kodak Classic. Though sterling performances by Matt Gantt and Glenn Price led a determined second-half comeback, two last-second shots by Paul Hoffman missed the mark and the Bonnies were handed their second heartbreaking loss, 70-69.

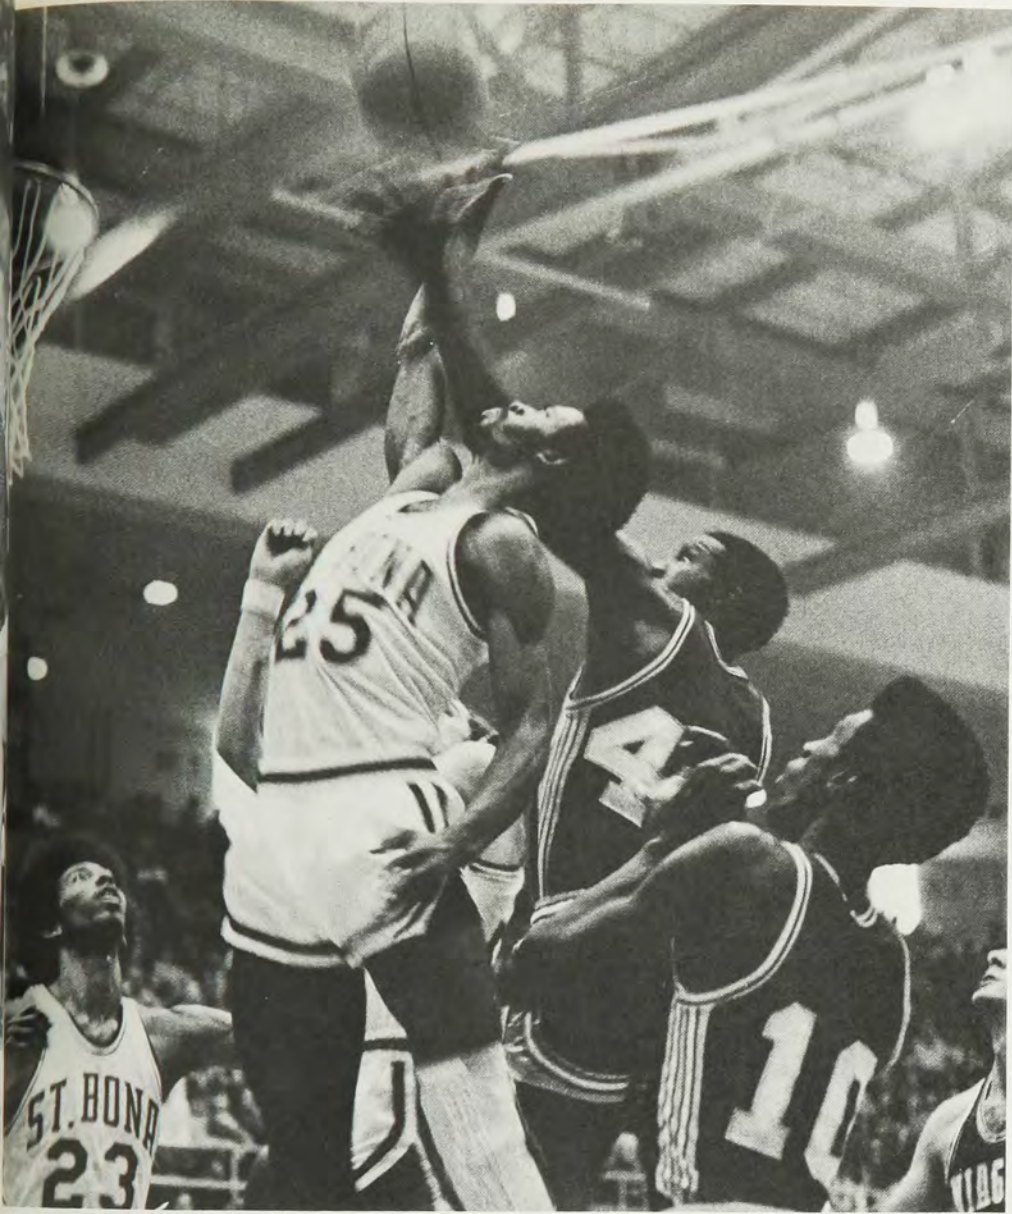

But the worst was yet to come.

With Jackson back in the lineup, the Brown Indians rebounded for three easy wins over Baldwin-Wallace, Kent State and Xavier, and appeared ready to tackle their difficult mid-season schedule.

These high hopes were greeted by disaster, however, as the Bonnies stumbled into a four-game losing streak, including their first loss to Canisius in six years.

Next on the agenda was a home tilt with Niagara, where victory and hopes of a tournament returned as Paul Hoffman's 27 points and generally sparkling play led the Brown Indians to a narrow 76-73 victory.

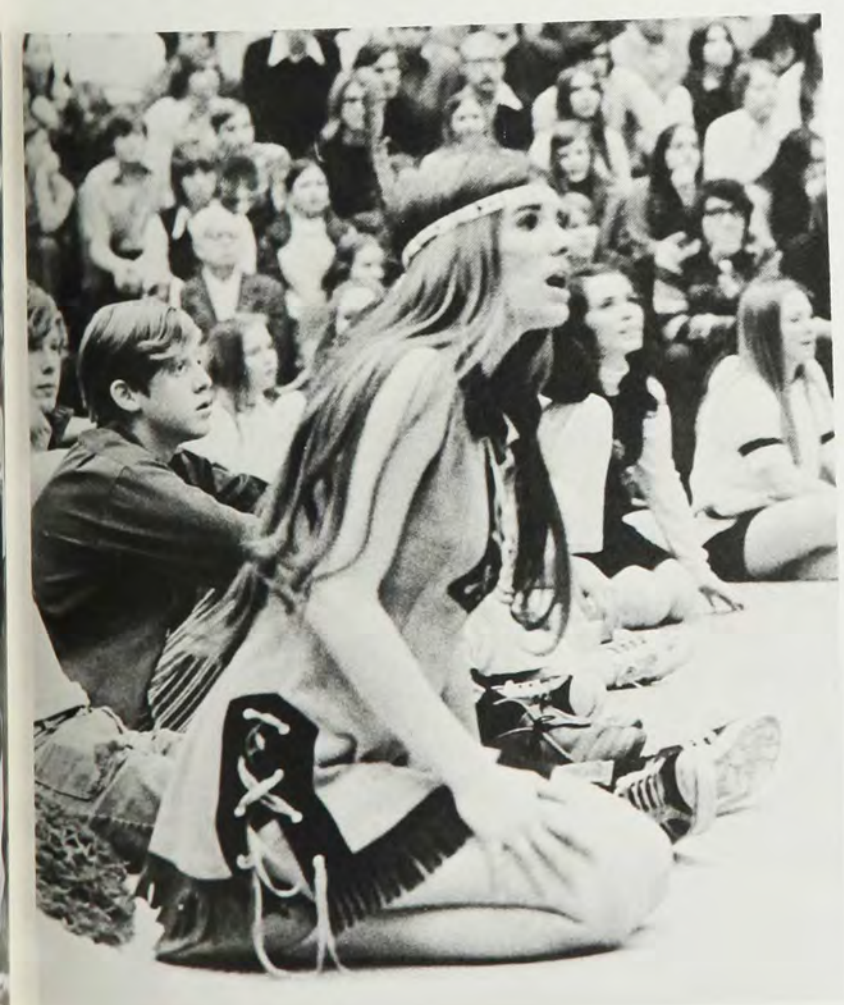

Hoffman became an even greater factor as each game became more crucial, scoring 22 in a big win over Northern Illinois, then missing an all-important foul shot with one second remaining for yet another heart-breaking loss, 67-66, to Detroit.

With every game now a must win, the senior captain shared the spotlight with Price in three consecutive victories.

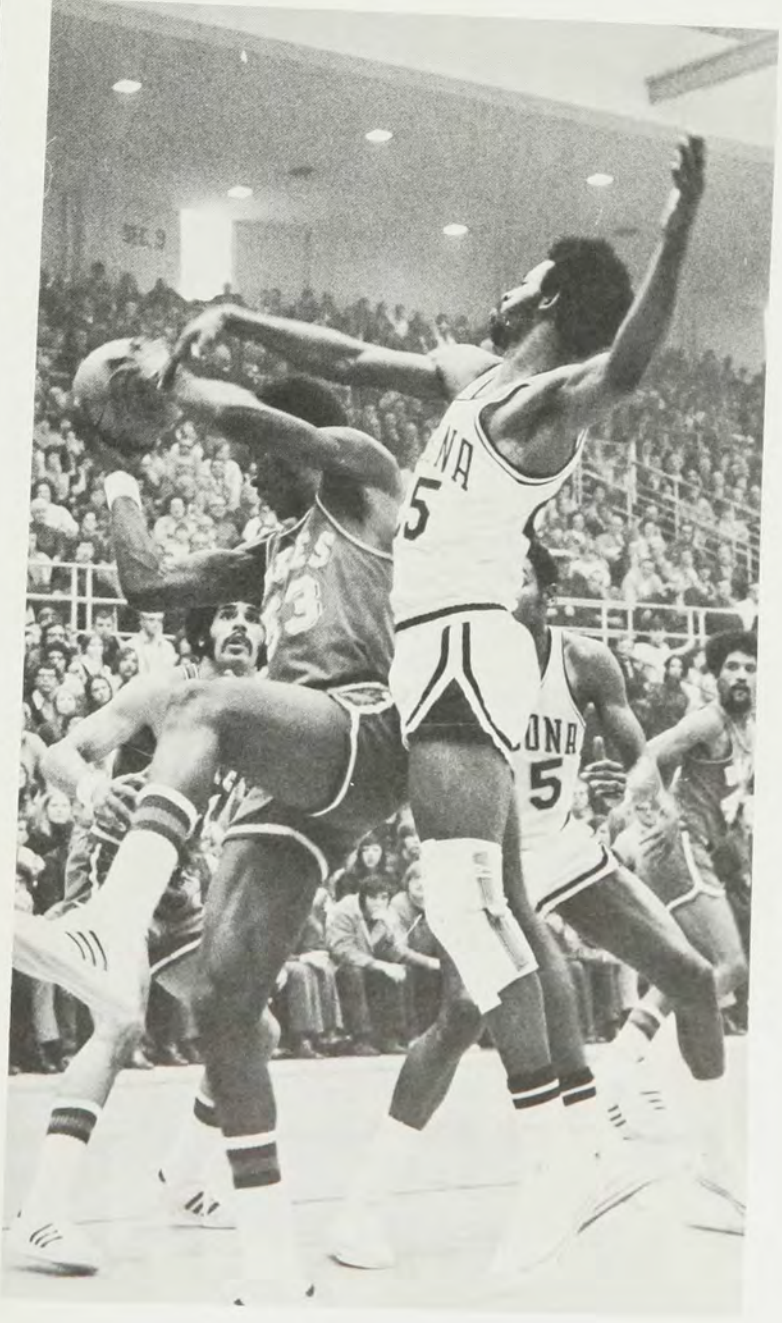

The Bonnies produced their best effort in a 98-82 trouncing of Providence, led by Hoffman's 27 points and Price with 26.

Finally came an almost unbelievable 72-point half against St. Francis, whose coach, Les Yellin, termed the Bonnies "a definite tournament team."
