Buckenmeyers, Monroe pace cross country

The real story of this season's cross-country squad can't be found in meet results. That's because in every match, an inside battle took place between junior Phil Buckenmeyer, his brother, Andy, and freshman Bruce Monroe, for top spot among the Bonnies.

Despite continual top-notch performances by these individuals, the harriers as a team were hot and cold.

They whipped RIT in the opening SBU Relays, but suffered their first defeat a few days later when Fredonia State and Clarion State finished one-two ahead of the Bonnies at Houghton College. Bona again trumped RIT but scholarship laden Niagara and Geneseo stopped the team cold in a Niagara Falls Invitational. Shortly after Coach Steve Hirst's men could manage only a 16-42 win over Erie Community.

In a 27-30 loss to Buffalo, Monroe set a school record for the 5.8-mile course with a time of 31 minutes flat enroute to a third-place finish on his home course.

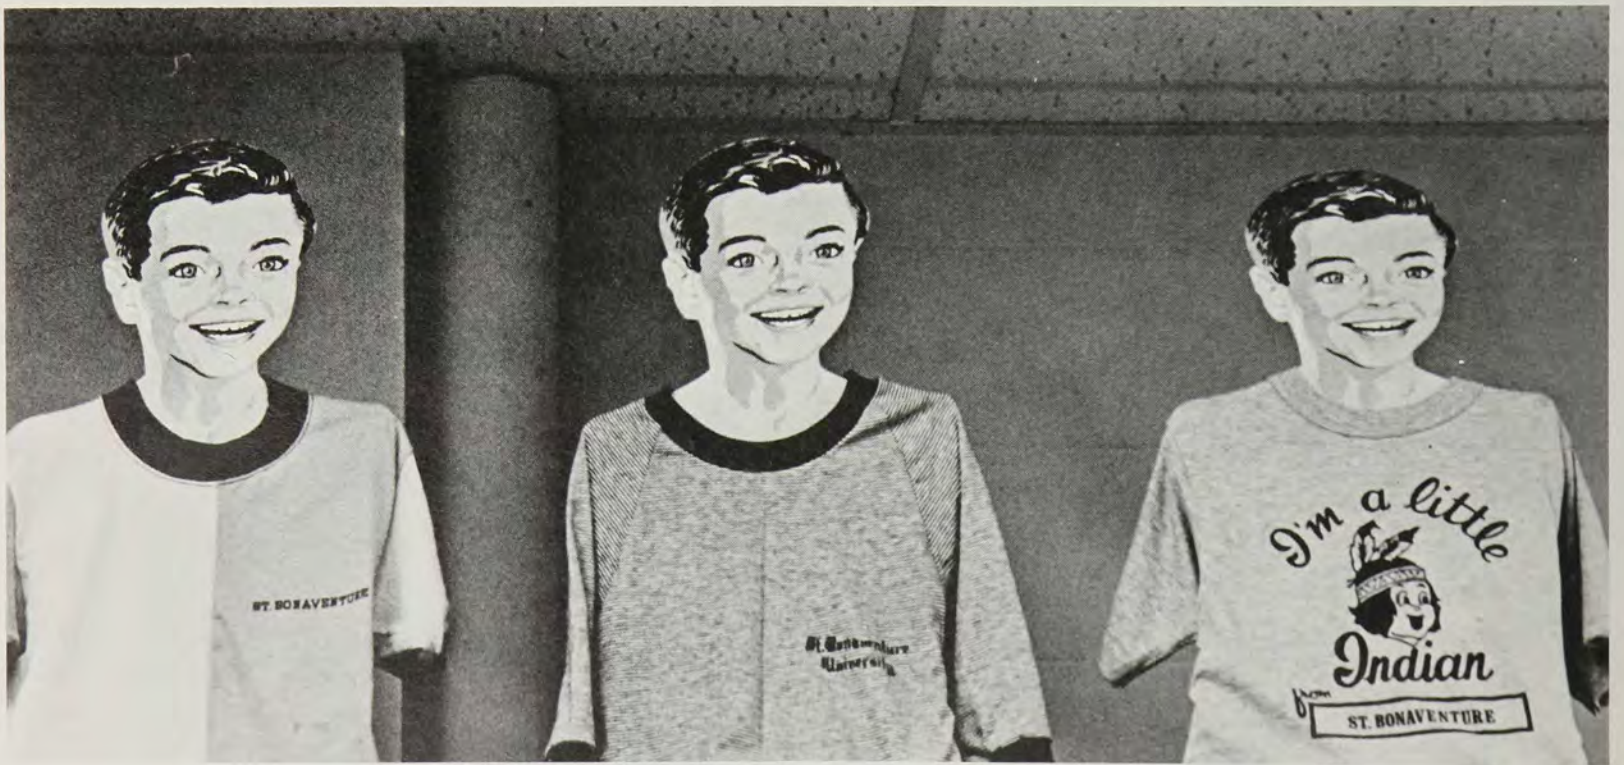

The team sandwiched a loss to Mansfield State and a victory over St. John Fisher between its two remaining invitationals. Bona placed third in the Brockport Invitational, October 12 and trudged to a disappointing 12th place in field of 18 teams at Canisius two weeks later.

That's when Phil Buckenmeyer took over. He sped to a fourth place finish in the Little Three Championship October 30 on his home course. His time of 30:59 broke the first sub-31-minute time ever by a Bonaventure runner. Buckenmeyer finished with the 20th best time at the Upstate Championships in Albany and, for the second straight year, was named to the All-State squad.

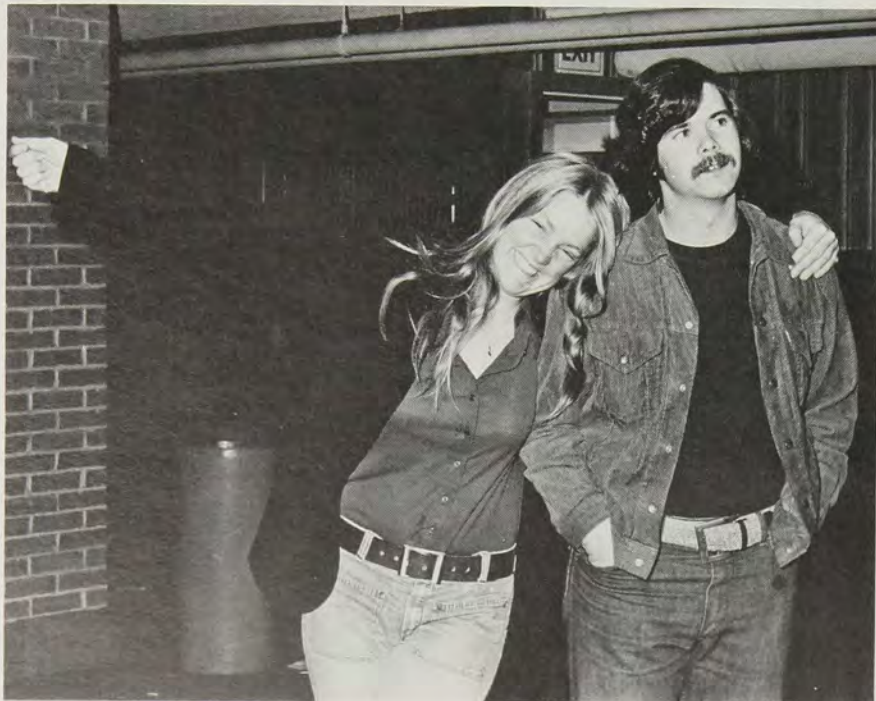

As a unit, the Bonnies finished fifth out of 11 teams in the state meet.

Coach Fred Handler's baseball Bonnies utilized experience and hitting consistency to post an 11-5 record — one of the best ever at Bonaventure. The Brown Indians started five seniors, Rick Spadaccini, Mike Martello, Mike LaPlaca, Mike Dunning, and John Greco. All finished with batting averages over .300.

Greco sparked the team in the early going, collecting eight hits in the first three games, as Bona won over Jamestown Community, Geneseo State, and Buffalo State. Fall weather forced the scheduling of six doubleheaders in ten days.

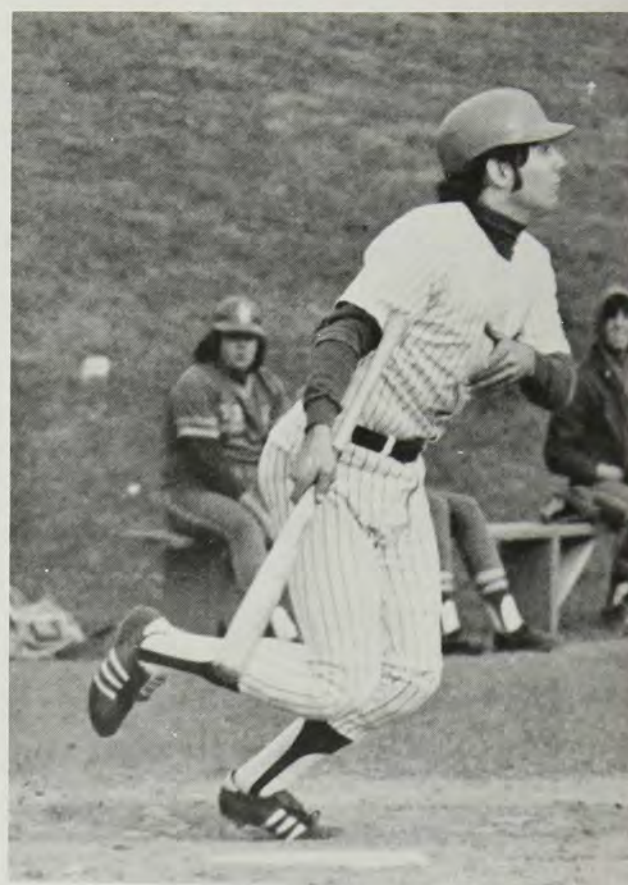

The Bonnies split a two-game set with the Purple Eagles at Niagara then edged Rochester Institute of Technology behind the hitting of Martello and Chris Tracey.

The jam-packed schedule began taking its toll on Bona's too-small pitching staff about half-way through the season.

Handler was forced to rely on centerfielder Martello and first baseman Dunning to appear on the mound as relievers.

Junior Steve Zelinski was the team's best pitcher, winning three games, including a 4-0 blanking of heralded Buffalo.

Bonaventure split all its doubleheaders with the exception of their final set against Houghton. Spadaccini and Dunning combined for eight hits that day.

Golfers rally behind Ballert

Early in the season, it looked as if Bonaventure's golf team would have a hard time finishing above the .500 mark, but, paced by the combination of sophomore Glen Pewarski, senior Tom Krajewski and freshman sensation Dave Ballert, Coach Leo Keenan's linkmen turned the tide before it was too late.

The Bonnies dropped their first three matches, one each to the University of Buffalo, Gannon and Niagara. From there, however, putts began dropping for Bona as the team chalked up consecutive victories over Canisius (twice), Niagara, UB, Houghton and Jamestown Community College.

Bonaventure placed second in Little Three competition, thrashing Canisius for the third time after being edged by Niagara for the title. The season closed with a 10-stroke loss at the hands of St. John Fisher and a 432-443 coasting past the University of Rochester.

Keenan's golfers were eighth out of 21 teams at the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Qualifiers at Cornell, as Ballert shot an 81 to qualify for medal play. Ballert then progressed to Jamesburg, N.J. for the ECAC tournament, where he fired an impressive 77. That enabled the freshman to attain a tie for fifth place in the East.

to losing season

Women blanked in first campaign

Both men's and women's tennis teams suffered disappointing seasons at Bonaventure. Pat Panzarella, in his eighth season as varsity coach for the men, was forced to rely on inexperience for his third and fourth singles slots.

Marchiony, Panzarella's perennial strong man, completed his second straight undefeated season at first singles, stretching his winning streak to 17 games. His overall record at Bonaventure is 22-1. Junior veteran Ross Bonanno did not live up to expectations as he won only three matches. Freshman Mike Gaffney proved to be a pleasant surprise at third singles, copping his last five matches after dropping his first three.

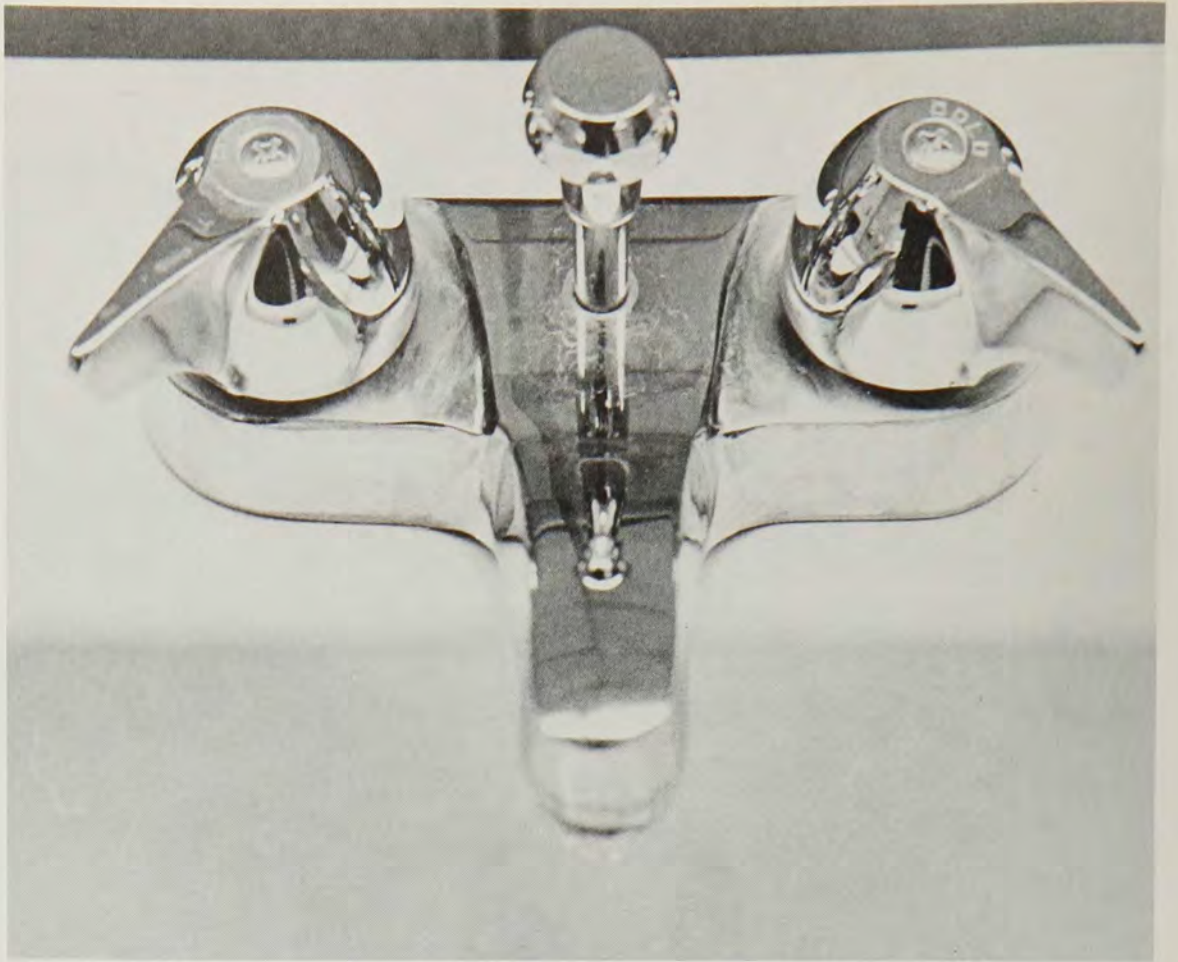

The team lost matches to Gannon, Geneseo State and Fredonia State before stopping rival Niagara, 6-3, away. The Purple Eagles bounced back to nip Bona, 5-4 here and the next week Canisius turned back Panzarella's forces, 6-3. The team then shut out Houghton College and finished the season by edging St. John Fisher, 5-4 in Rochester.

Meanwhile, Bonaventure's tennis women were struggling through their first season of interscholastic competition. The women lost all five matches—to Elmira College, Fredonia State, University of Buffalo, and a pair to Geneseo State. Carlyne Freitag and Cathy Finneran switched off at the top singles position while Andrea Barone and Mary Lynn occupied third or fourth spots. The women's best showing came against Elmira where the Barone-Freitag doubles team took a 6-2, 7-5 victory and the Finneran-Lynn duo swept to a 6-1, 6-2 trouncing as the Bonnies lost, 5-2.

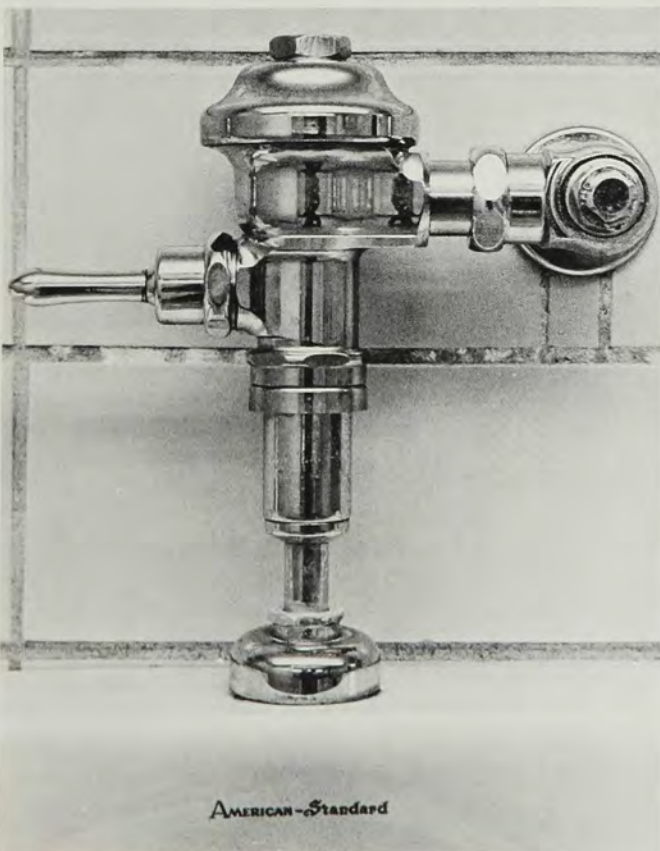

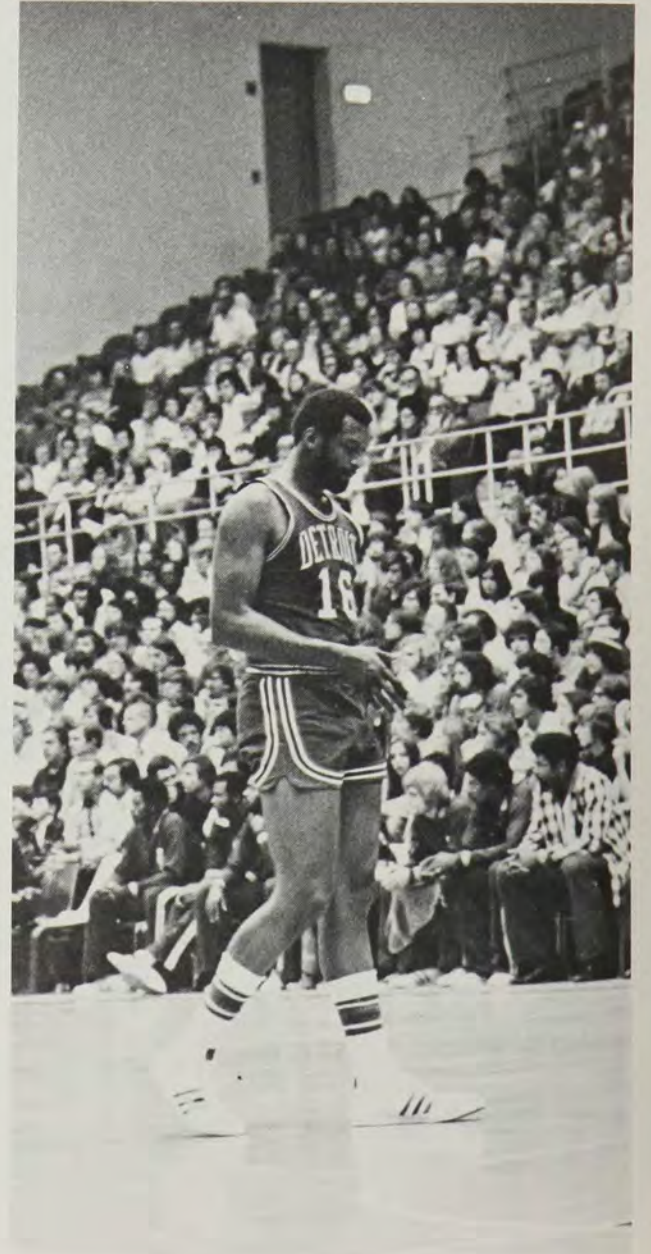

Some of you are probably wondering why you are looking at components of a local lavatory. Think about it. In what other place do you release such expression? It is the site of many a judicial proceeding, the keeper of the keg, and for some, a place of porcelain worship. In many cases, some of the most creative literary efforts are written within these four walls—or on them, of course. It is a place to catch up on current events — world, national, and with a glance left or right, local. Many have also found a sense of power here. A mere release of the handle could at times bring a screech of terror from some poor unsuspecting soul. Although those found guilty have an entirely unique perspective, we can all recall something going on in here: a friend removing a sink, another empty keg, a shaving cream war, or maybe just quiet satisfaction. So, you can stop wondering now, one flip and — GONE!

Coach Enrique Barrera's booters won two more games than last season, but the old familiar story again plagued the team — if you don't score it's impossible to win. Bonaventure scored only 21 goals all season while their opponents racked up 33 and that margin hurt the team in the win-loss column.

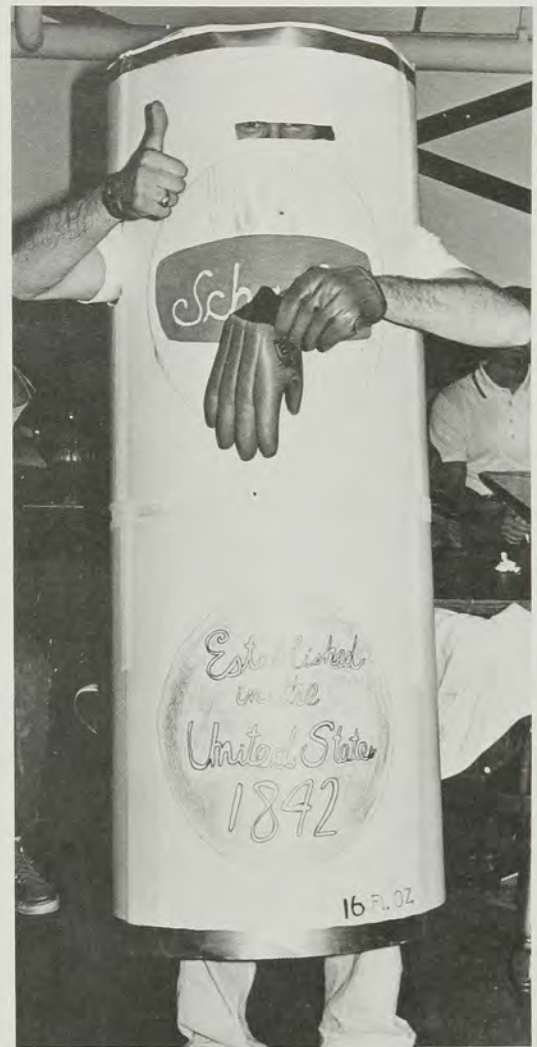

Goalie Bob Higgins and jack-of-all-trades Pete Larkin both seniors, were responsible for many of the Brown Indians' unheralded contributions, while junior sparkplug Kevin Conklin led the team in scoring with six goals. A pair of juniors, veteran Bob Kucewicz and newcomer Rick Federico, helped stabilize Barrera's defense but a stable defense doesn't put the ball in the nets — and that's exactly what the team needed.

Bonaventure's intramural football program manifested itself as second only to basketball in popularity during the 1974 fall season. Leagues were again divided into two groups. The Brown League, playing Tuesdays and Thursdays, and the White League, contesting on Mondays and Fridays.

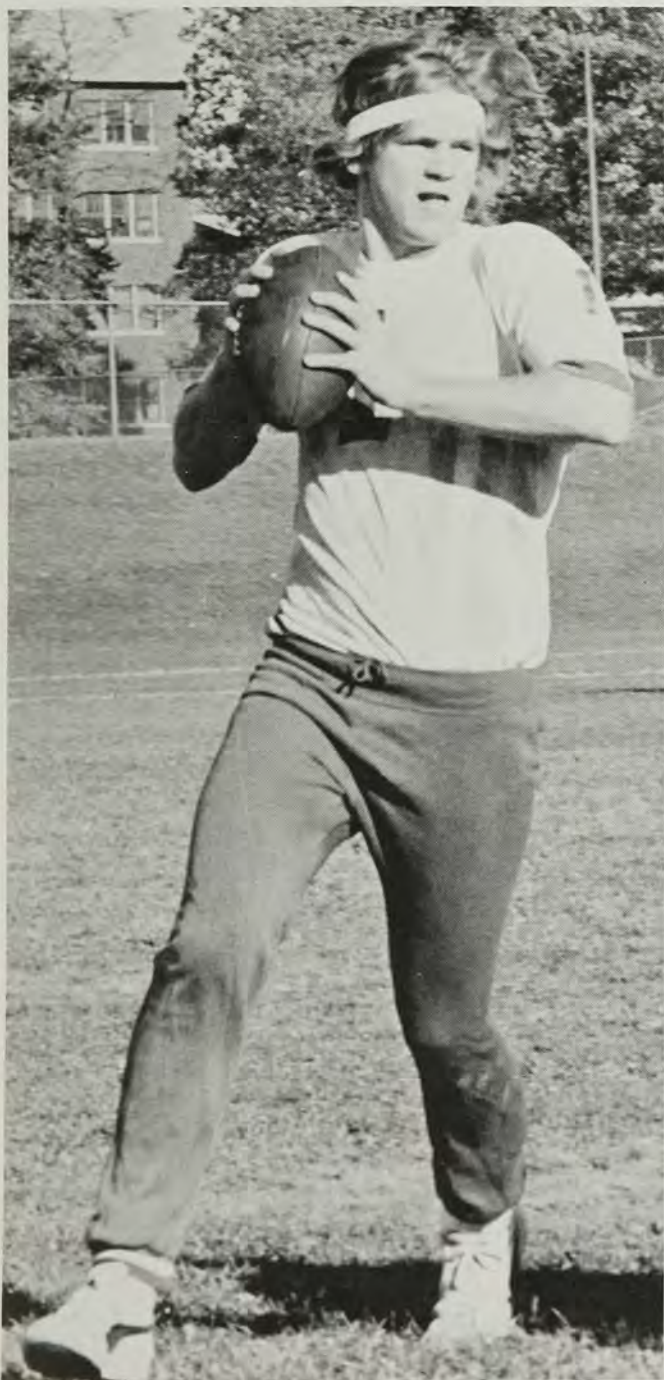

The White League was highlighted by perennial powerhouses Off-Campus, First Rob and Lower Dev, along with a surprising Fourth Dev West contingent. The defense-minded off Off-Campus squad, led by senior standouts Beau Barile, Mike Allen, Gary Pienkowski, Paul Ogiba and Mike Anderson, allowed a stingy 32 points the entire season. Meanwhile, the team's offense was cooking, largely behind quarterback Bill Folan and halfback Jeff DePetro.

One of Off-Campus' victories in the early going was against First Rob and it was that team which knocked Folan's Forces out of the running for White League Super Bowl representation. In the post-season playoffs, lineman Mark Thompson, halfback Leo Pusiteri, quarterback Joe Ribaudo and receiver Bob Dougherty sparked First Rob to a convincing 22-7 upset over favored Off-Campus.

Upper Shay dominated the Brown League, taking the title by virtue of early-season victory over Fourth Dev East. Both teams finished with 11-1 records.

Shay's statistics made their top ranking unquestionable. A defense toughened by linemen John Conkle, Mark Capobianco and Al Faldemeyer held opponents to two points per game, an average maintained with the strength of a league-leading nine shutouts. Quarterback Paul Mannion, along with halfback Bob Kane, and ends Bob Curran and Mike Zebrowski, ignited an offense that amassed more points — 316 — than any intramural football team in recent years at Bonaventure.

Upper Shay went on to blank upset-minded First Rob in the annual Super Bowl, 11-0, on the strength of a Mannion to Curran touchdown pass, a pair of safeties, and an unyielding defensive line.

THE BONNIES

The Upper New York State Swimming Association Championships (UNYSSA) took on added significance this year. Coach John Skehan and his troops played host to 13 of Upstate New York's most prolific swimming schools as the Reilly Center found itself drowned in the constant sound of splashing the weekend of February 28-March 1.

Bonaventure's portion of the state competition was marked by the expected quality performances of senior captain Duffy Hickey and junior ace John Closs, and the startling efforts of senior John Ogden and an underclassmen quartet — Paul Hoffman, Fred SanFilipo, Jim Duffy and Greg Stillwagon.

SanFilipo, Hoffman and Duffy cashed in on a pair of varsity records in relay events. Closs joined that trio for a record time of 3:21.4 in the 400 freestyle relay, good for fourth place in the UNYSSA standings. Hickey helped the threesome to a record-shattering time of 7:32.6 in the 800 freestyle relay, third best time in Upper New York State.

Closs failed to repeat a first-place performance in the 200 butterfly event, but finished second in UNYS with 2:02.0 clocking. Stillwagon, with head shaven, placed ninth in the same event with a time of 2:08.5.

Hickey, despite a flu illness, placed in four events — including the 200-yard breaststroke and 400 individual medley. His time of 2:27.17 in the 200 breaststroke was good for a sixth place. His running mate, Closs, took a 12th in the 200 individual medley, recording a 2:09.78.

John Ogden may have surprised everyone, even himself, by shaving eight seconds off the varsity record in the 1650-yard freestyle. Ogden finished in 18:20.16, 10th in the meet.

Other swimmers who placed included Hoffmann in the 200-yard freestyle, SanFilipo in the 100-yard freestyle, Stillwagon in the 100-yard butterfly and Kevin McNamee in his specialty, the 100-yard breaststroke.

Sophomore Tony Russo and senior Jim Serbalik placed 10th and 11th, respectively in the three-meter diving. They joined Hickey, Closs, SanFilipo, Hoffmann, Duffy, McNamee and Stillwagon in qualifying for the Mid-Eastern Championships in Pittsburgh following the state competition.

Here we are again. Standing in line waiting . . . for what, we're never quite sure. If you properly "staggered" yourself you may not have had to stand long. This isn't always to your advantage, of course. Decisions, decisions . . . That's when it wasn't "roast beef" — every other day, wasn't it? Well, after choosing the lesser of two evils, there was always the threat of getting in the "slow zone." But after you proceeded to the hallowed counter, didn't it seem like a plot when they undoubtedly ran out of something? Finally you eat. And then you start wondering . . . Why did they ever move the infirmary?

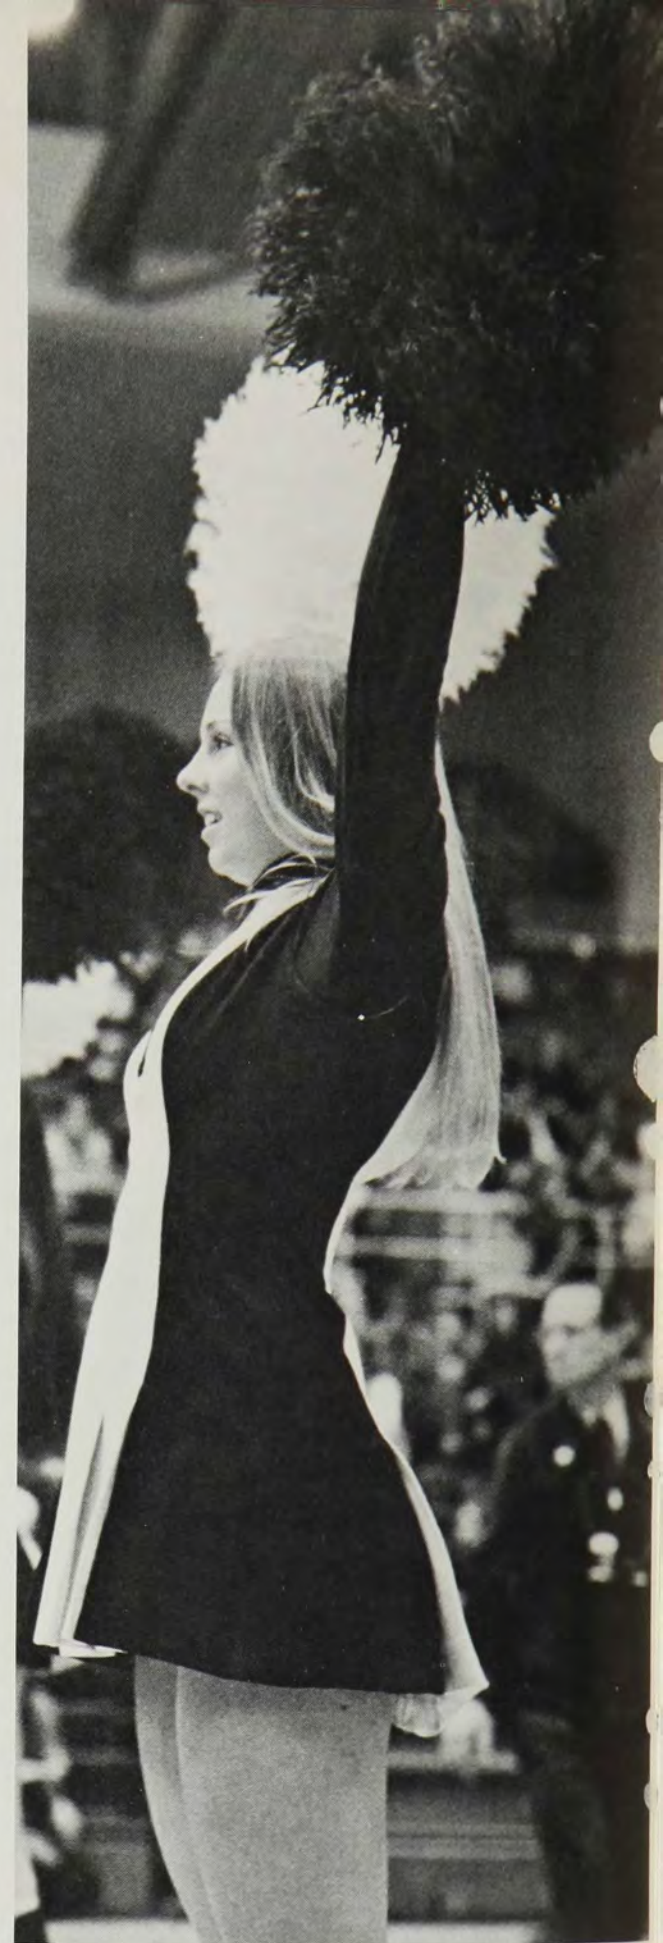

Bonnies stun Little Three

It took them awhile, but Coach Jim Satalin's basketball Bonnies emerged from "rebuilding" late in the season — just in time to prance away with a winning record and, more importantly, a National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division IV Tournament berth in Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium.

The early part of the campaign showed little promise as five of the Bonnies' first seven opponents, including perennial national powerhouse UCLA, proved the better contestants. The team's first scrimmage is always just that and this year was no exception. Captain Howie Harrison pumped in 20 points and rookie forward Greg Sanders set the precedence for his entire season, coming off the bench to score 20 points and grab a team-high seven rebounds against the outclassed University of Baltimore cagers.

Three straight road games against Georgetown, Seton Hall and DePaul began Bonaventure's season-long jinx away from home. The story of that trio could easily be seen in the Brown Indians' field goal accuracy, which averaged a discouraging 34 percent before the squad came home to trounce Baldwin-Wallace in a breather.

At the Maryland Invitational, the only bright spot seemed to be the play of 5-foot-6 Howie Harrison, who dazzled the Cole Field House crowd of 14,500 with 18 points and an array of blocked shots, handy assists and effective ball-handling against the favored Bruins of UCLA. The Bonnies played their best in that one and still lost by 16. The next night Georgia Tech's determination combined with Bonaventure's overtime listlessness gave the Yellowjackets a nine-point victory.

By this time, Sanders had earned himself a starting job. He responded gracefully to the assignment, collecting 29 points, nine rebounds and three assists to spark this team over Virginia Tech. That game also saw the beginning of the Jim Baron — Jerry Beckles guard combination, which ignited Bonnies to a 47-31 second-half spurt.

Satalin's troops did nothing unexpected the next four games, walloping the likes of Thomas More and St. Francis of Pa., and being edged in a pair of road contests at LIU and Duquesne. About the only thing this stretch proved was the value of junior center Bob Rozyczko, who erupted for 105 points and 37 rebounds in the four games.

The second half of the season began with the squads regionally televised battle against visiting Villanova. Appropriately, it marked a turning of the tide. Five Bonnies reached double figures, topped by skinny freshman Glenn Hagan's 18-point, off-the-bench showing. Bona went on to capture eight of its next 12 outings.

Canisius, minus highly-touted Larry Fogle, visited the Reilly Center and held a slim lead the entire game, only to lose in the last two minutes on a steal by Hagan and jump shots by Rozyczko and Sanders. Three nights later, in the Niagara Falls Convention Center, Bona suffered two beatings, one at the hands of the hot-shooting Purple Eagles and one to Brown Indian Bob Kucewicz at the hands of some fired-up NU fans.

Mo Keenan, brown squaw

Pushover wins over Loyola of Maryland and St. Francis of NY preceded a four-point defeat at Detroit, the team's ninth road loss of the season. Highly-touted Syracuse found the RC field-house a cozy shooting spot, as they hit for 53 percent of their floor shots, good for a comfortable overtime victory. Statistics again tell the story of those games.

Bonaventure missed 53 shots against Detroit and another 56 against Syracuse, actually beating themselves in both contests.

Satalin and his crew realized their tournament hopes hinged on the next five games and they promptly proceeded to win four of them. The first victim was the Stags of Fairfield. The steadiness of Rozyczko and Sanders was complimented by Hagan with 15 points and five assists. Backcourt strongman Jerry Beckles pulled down nine rebounds and chipped in with 12 points to overcome the performance of Fairfield's hot-shooting Ray Kelly.

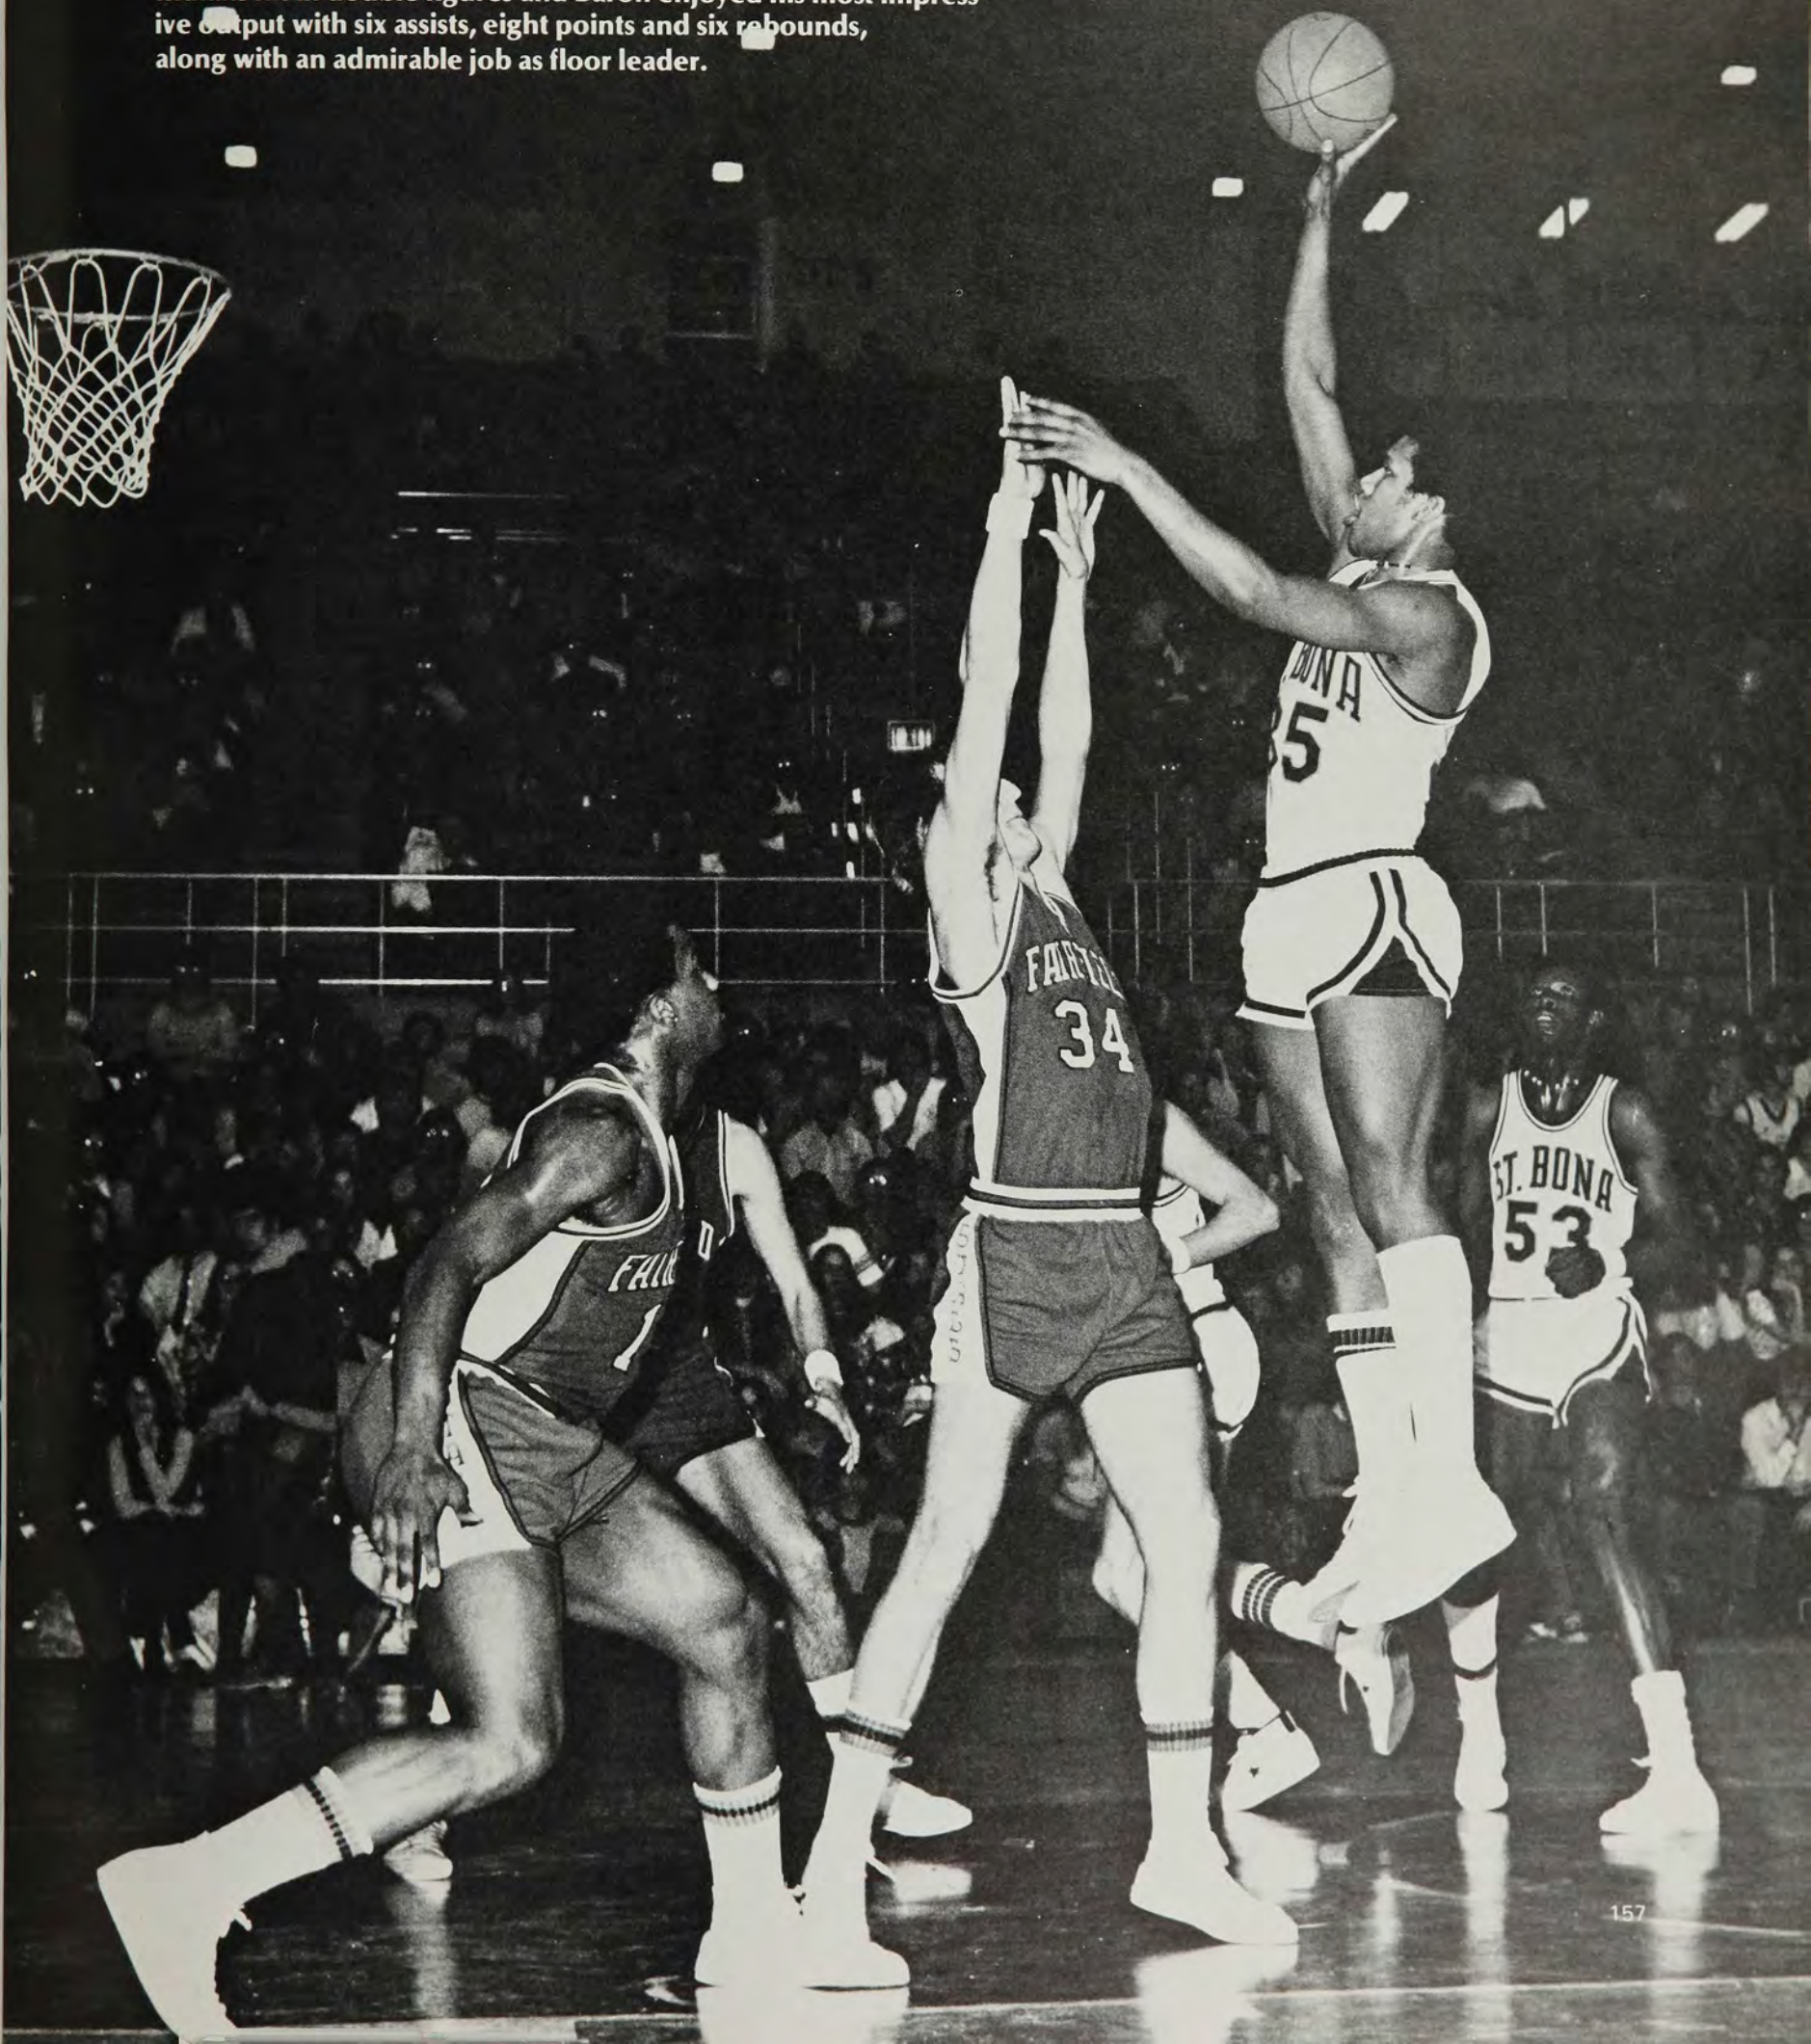

After losing to Xavier University — the Bonnies fourth overtime defeat of the season the team prepared for what proved to be its most impressive stretch.

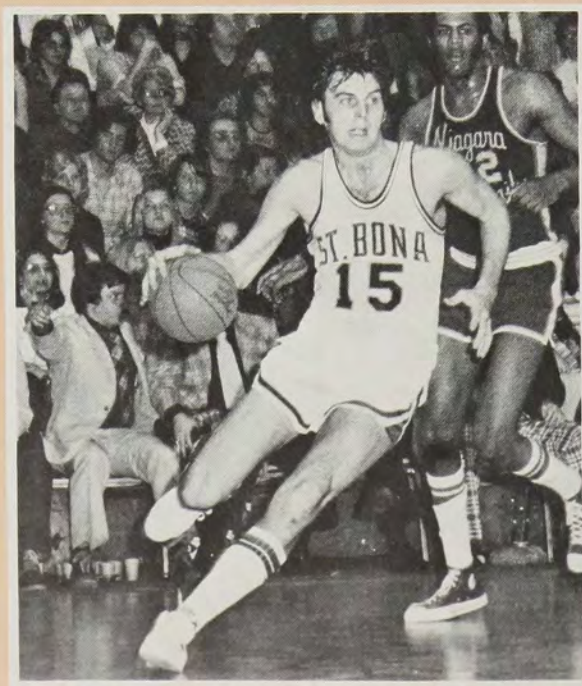

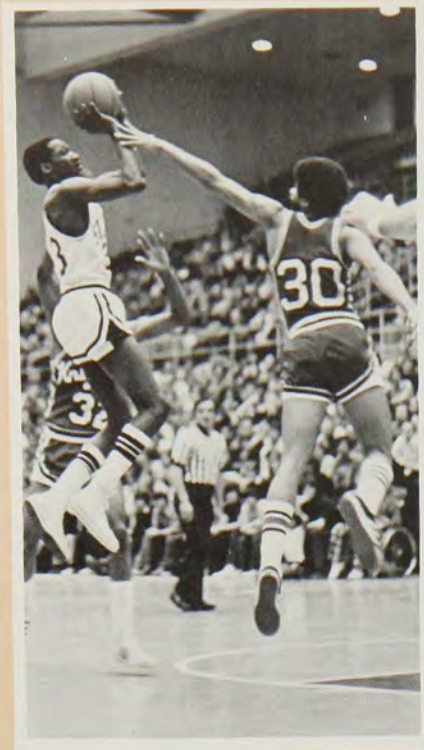

Pre-game solemnities which included a morbid grey coffin and a struggling purple chicken managed to ruffle the feathers of Bonaventure's starting front line, which bullied for 61 points and an avenged 10-point victory over Niagara in the RC. But that wasn't enough. Bonaventure's team effort demolished Rutgers in the first half, then withstood a 27-point outburst by Phil Sellers in the second half to eke out a two-point win. Hagan had the best game of his short career, with 16 points, eight rebounds, six assists and a pair of steals off Sellers.

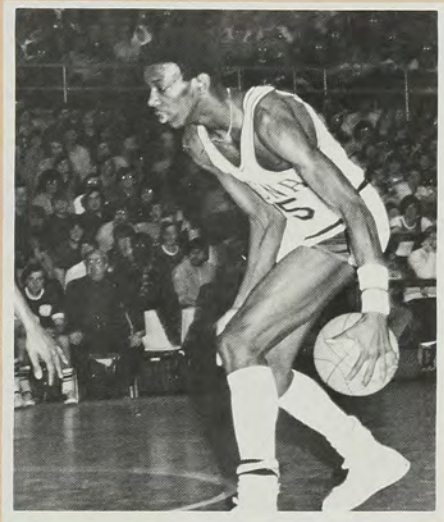

Bob Kucewicz, brown indian

The Bonnies biggest Saturday night was the season clincher against Canisius. With Larry Fogle playing, the Golden Griffins apparently ran out of excuses for losing — just when they needed one most. The lackadaisical visitors trailed most of the way, but sparkplugs Hagan, Baron, and Sanders led a 17-point outburst in the games final six minutes that even startled Satalin. Four Brown Indians hit in double figures and Baron enjoyed his most impressive output with six assists, eight points and six rebounds, along with an admirable job as floor leader.

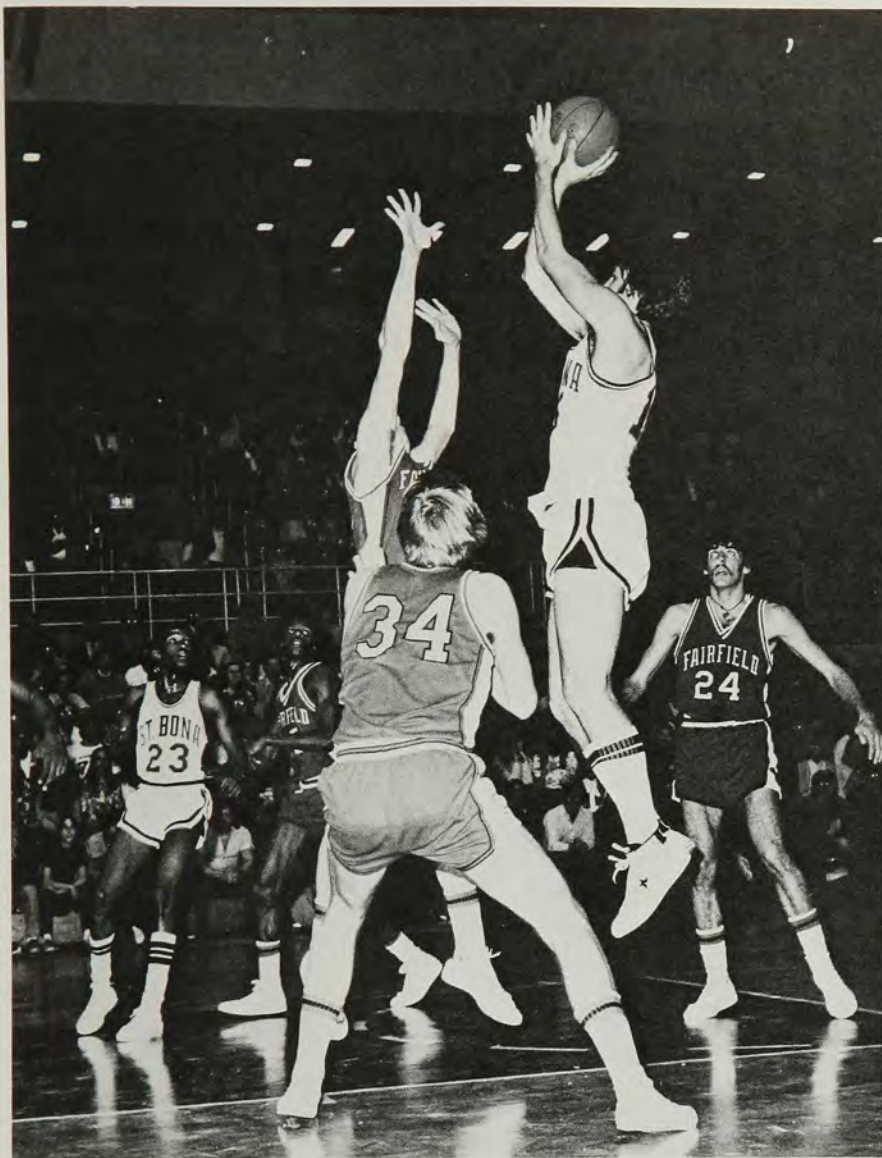

Howie Harrison, captain

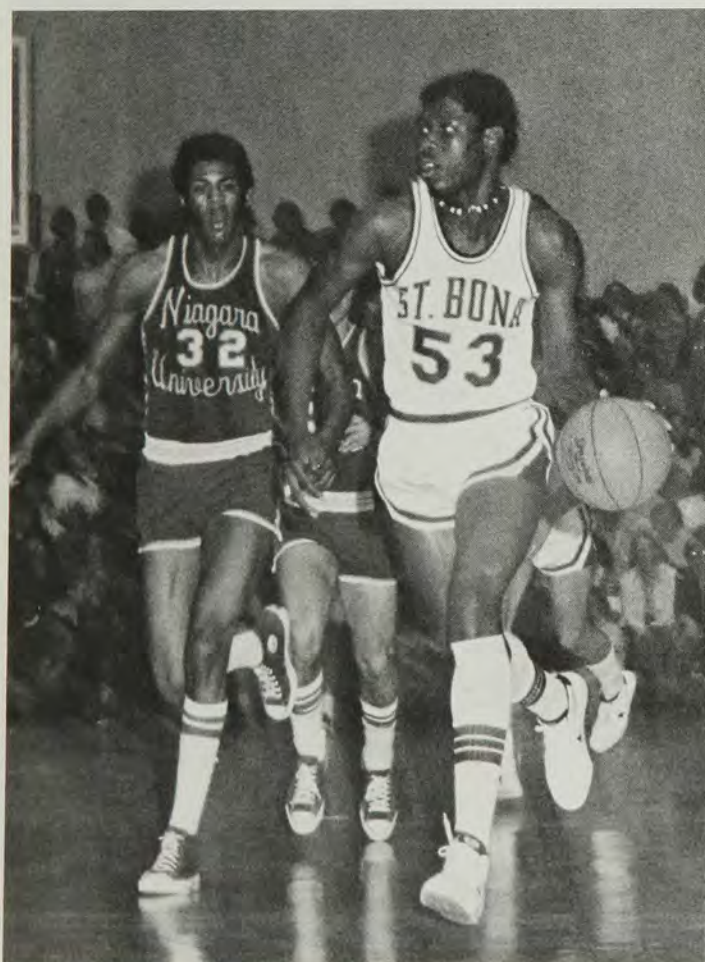

The Bonnies' winning skien was expectedly halted at the hands of Providence in the Friars' hometown Civic Center. Satalin's forces then spent the remainder of the week re-grouping for their first post-season tournament activity in four years.

It was a strange tournament in Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium, and Bonaventure added some surprises of its own. It was the type of set-up where a team could play, in plain English, a lousy caliber of ball and still win. The Bonnies did just that in the opening round, struggling past an even less impressive Fairfield squad, 78-73. It took 28 points from Sanders, 24 points and 12 rebounds from Hollis and a career high 10 assists from Baron to do the Stags in. Rozyczko chipped in 14 points and pulled down 17 rebounds. But Bona didn't show what they had to have to go any further.

The next night was disaster for the young Brown Indians. Their cold shooting and lack of hustle seemed to compliment the devastating effects of the Syracuse fast break, along with All-American Rudy Hackett's 32 points and 21 rebounds. In short, Bonaventure picked the worst possible time for their worst shooting game of the season (34 per cent).

Sweets & Stuff

To most of you, the 1975 Bonadieu is like any other yearbook. Maybe a little better or a little worse, probably depending on how many times you are in it. Obviously, to those who were involved in producing it, this book means much more. Although recognition could be given to many, I must point out a few individuals before the final page is turned. There were countless hours spent by many members of the staff. I would like to acknowledge the editorial staff: Phyl Gatti, John O'Neill, Tom Kiefer, and Clare Costello, for their hard work and dedication. Also, thanks to John Engels for doing the sports copy, and Brian Murphy for designing the cover.

This didn't come about by accident. For their help, advice and concern, I would like to thank Kevin Byrnes, Meg Fosdick, Carol Urban, Diane Okonski, Ken Harrison, and Jim VanDevelde. My appreciation to Father Crispin for allowing the Bonadieu to be a student publication in every sense. He was always willing to assist us when we needed him. Thanks also to Father Cornelius, Mr. John Schmitt, campus security, the administration, the faculty, and the seniors for their help and understanding.

Although the list of those who should be recognized could continue, one person stands out in particular—Mr. Bill Sloane. As our representative from Delmar Printing, his understanding, talent, and patience always managed to outshine our tardiness.

Finally, I would just like to say that all of us realize there are short-comings to the 1975 Bonadieu—one notably, the absence of women's intramurals. I hope that each of you has found something that met with your approval. But in case you didn't, I urge you to stop complaining and join the yearbook staff. Improvement can start with you.
